

An aerial photograph of a flooded landscape, likely a coastal or riverine area. The water is a deep blue-grey color, and the submerged land is visible as darker, textured patches. In the background, there are some buildings and structures partially submerged. The overall tone is somber and environmental.

I.S.C. Environmental Science for Class XII Dr. Nirmal Kapoor, Goyal Brothers Prakashan, 2015-12-01 Goyal Brothers Prakashan Urban design: The ecological thinking - A compendium Dimitra Babalis, 2008 Towards the Ecology of Human Communication Marta

Bogusławska-Tafelska, Anna Drogosz, 2015-10-13 There is undoubtedly considerable intellectual and methodological progress evident in approaches to linguistics from systemic and formal methods to post Newtonian transpersonal non local models of meaning co creation built within contemporary language studies Indeed such changes are constant the 20th century product orientation of linguistic research is currently being complemented by ecolinguistic processes with the linearity of scientific perception and treatment being replaced by the dynamic and multispectral approach of ecological theory This book provides a richly detailed analysis of this profound shift within contemporary language and communication research A particularly interesting facet of this volume is the proposal that the architecture of the human organism is transpersonally in constant relation with its immediate surroundings as well as with non local multilevel surroundings This connection is based not only on the cognitive connection of minds or neurocognitive contacts with the nervous and sensual systems of communicators but on the multidimensional relationship between the manifold communicative modalities living systems possess Human communication is embedded within a given local communicative situation as well within the global non local environment via the basic ontology of entanglement The human communicative process is always evolving as a result of the constant fluctuations of life processes Indeed the conclusions presented in this volume open up a new approach to present day linguistics that human language is an essential life process

Defining the Urban Deljana Iossifova, Christopher N.H Doll, Alexandros Gasparatos, 2017-10-06 What is urban How can it be described and contextualised How is it used in theory and practice Urban processes feature in key international policy and practice discourses They are at the core of research agendas across traditional academic disciplines and emerging interdisciplinary fields However the concept of the urban remains highly contested both as material reality and imaginary construct The urban remains imprecisely defined Defining the Urban is an indispensable guide for the urban transdisciplinary thinker and practitioner Parts I and II focus on how Academic Disciplines and Professional Practices respectively understand and engage with the urban Included among others are Architecture Ecology Governance and Sociology Part III Emerging Approaches outlines how elements from theory and practice combine to form transdisciplinary tools and perspectives Written by eminent experts in their respective fields Defining the Urban provides a stepping stone for the development of a common language a shared ontology in the disjointed fields of urban research and practice It is a comprehensive and accessible resource for anyone with an interest in understanding how urban scholars and practitioners can work together on this complex theme
