The Nature of Church Camp Christopher W. Anderson, 2023-12-18 The Nature of Church Camp An Environmental History of Outdoor Ministry 1945-1980 by Christopher W Anderson explores the mid twentieth century history of religious camps and retreat centers to provide new insights into the history of environmentalism in the United States Ecumenical Protestantism and the ecology movement both changed the calculus of American morality after World War II Through archival material case study visits and oral histories Anderson finds that these institutions often reacted to ecological critiques with temperate but gradual reforms However camps and outdoor ministries by virtue of their natural settings and sizable acreage soon provided a new way to explore the history of spirituality and ecology moving away from the conference campus and using nostalgia for the frontier instead to make arguments about the meaning of the American nation and the value of democracy This new way of thinking was reflected throughout the camps and enthusiastically endorsed decentralized small group camping By examining the conduct of church camps and conferences before during and after the ecological era Anderson shows how environmental stewardship became the dominant paradigm for Protestant environmentalism why that is a flawed and fractious model and why it has stalled

Prometheus and Gaia Harrison Fluss,Landon Frim,2022-02-01 Prometheus and Gaia examines the ideological positions of Futurism and Eco Pessimism While these are rarely spoken about in mainstream discourse they do have strong resonances in today s popular politics and culture In light of existential threats posed by climate change disruptive technologies and economic crises many have grown weary of the small fixes offered by mainstream policy makers Radical change thus appears necessary as Futurism and Eco Pessimism emerge as two fundamental challenges to the status quo The Futurist claims that the current dynamism of technology is incompatible with human limitations while the Eco Pessimist sees the climate crisis as symptomatic of a broader human domination over nature What these seemingly opposite currents have in common is a shared rejection of the human frame as grounding politics each seeks to subordinate the human in favor of a wholly alien other either in the form of an anarchic nature or a dynamic technology To transcend this strange coincidence of opposites Prometheus and Gaia makes the positive case for a humanism that is rationalist without being anthropocentric
