Exploration in Development

Issues Nurul Islam,2017-11-30 This title was first published in 2003 Nurul Islam currently head of economic and social policy at the FAO UN and a key advisor at the International Food Policy Research Institute has been a renowned expert on economic development for the past thirty years Over that time he has researched and written about a wide range of economic development issues focussing mainly on policy For the first time ever his most important writings have been brought together in this volume reflecting not only Professor Islam s own views on particular issues but also providing a unique overview of the key debates and discussions taking place among academic economist and policy analysts over the past three decades The collection is divided into three main sections trade and aid development strategy and food security the section on food security being the most recent It discusses food security in a broad sense covering issues of availability and growth in food production access or entitlement of individuals or households to basic food and variability in food supplies and prices In the section on Development Strategy Professor Islam highlights how theoretical argument has veered away from organized development planning models which proved so important in the 1960s He questions the role of models and policies throughout the decades and following articles written in the 1970s or 80s he includes articles he has recently completed assessing the previous ones from his current perspective In the final section on Trade and Aid he follows the academic debate on trade and exchange rate policies in developing countries from the 1960s to the progress of the WTO forums of today This is a wide ranging and thought provoking volume No matter whether the subject in question was examined in the 1960s or currently Professor Islam provides a challenging and insightful analysis and even the earliest articles retain relevance and will be of continuing interest

Asian Development William E. James,Seiji Naya,Gerald M. Meier,1989

While the world s attention has been focused on the spectacular economic success of Japan and Korea the less developed countries of Asia have often been neglected Asian Development closes the gap In nontechnical style and with minimal mathematics it presents an in depth perspective on the economic development of fourteen countries in East Southeast and South Asia Asian Development is mainly a story of success Though some problems remain Asian countries have shown remarkable resilience in responding to sharp changes in the international economy oil shocks world recession and inflation exchange rate and interest rate fluctuations and rapid technological change The authors conclude that their ability to adjust to changing external conditions is closely related to intelligent governmental policies Looking back they comment In the past growth of the United States and Japan pulled up the growth rates of the smaller economies in the region Looking forward they predict In the future increasingly it will be the growth of the Asian developing countries that acts as a catalyst to growth in the more advanced economies

Political Cultures in Asia and Europe Jean Blondel,Takashi Inoguchi,2006-09-27 Drawing on data from the largest cross national survey on political culture for the last half a century this is an original and comprehensive study of the attitudes to political and social life among the citizens of eighteen countries in Europe and Asia Departments of Commerce, Justice, and State, the Judiciary, and related agencies appropriations for 1990 United States. Congress. House. Committee on Appropriations. Subcommittee on the Departments of Commerce, Justice, and State, the Judiciary, and Related Agencies,1989 Kerala: the Development Experience Govinda Parayil,2000-08-12 At a time when disillusion with neo liberal development nostrums is mounting alternative models of development are being revisited Kerala s 30 million people may not have experienced rapid growth in GDP per capita but they have for the past several decades achieved a remarkable social record in terms of adult literacy infant mortality life expectancy stabilising population growth and narrowing gender and spatial gaps What are the implications of the disjuncture between human development and economic growth What are the political social and cultural factors responsible for Kerala s success Does its human development record necessarily relate to sustainability in environmental terms How inclusive has the Kerala model been particularly for the fishing community and other socially marginalised groups Can the new people s campaign for decentralised development from below make Kerala s development experience more enduring What realistic view can be taken of its replicability elsewhere in India or further afield in the South These are among the most important questions explored in this timely reassessment The Department of State Bulletin ,1962 Central Banking and Monetary Policy in Muslim-Majority Countries Akhand Akhtar Hossain,2015-08-28 The introduction of Islamic banking and finance across the globe strengthens the argument for low and stable inflation and rule based monetary policy for sustained economic growth Although Islamic banking and finance may have created some complexities T.F. Green Airport Improvement Program ,2011 Frank Joseph Shulman,Anna See Ping Leon Shulman,2001-01-01 A descriptively annotated multidisciplinary cross referenced and extensively indexed guide to 2 395 dissertations that are concerned either in whole or in part with Hong Kong and with Hong Kong Chinese students and emigres throughout the world Neoliberalism and Conflict In Asia After 9/11 Garry Rodan,Kevin Hewison,2013-09-13 Key events in Asia s recent history have included the end of the Cold War the Asian Economic Crisis and the war on terror This is a critical assessment of these events and of the interplay of security and economics in shaping political regimes and modifying market systems Based on the notion that market systems are inherently political and conflict ridden this collection clarifies and explains the conflicts shaping the path of neoliberal globalization Collectively it represents a disciplined and systematic address of four overarching questions What are the significant conflicts emanating from neoliberal globalization and what are their implications What are the implications of new security concerns for these conflicts and what are their impacts How are conflicts associated with globalization and security affecting social and economic policy directions Can these directions be reconciled with the reproduction of existing political regimes or do they threaten their basis In addressing these questions the essays depict neoliberal globalization in the new security context as being able to accommodate a range of political regimes This fascinating collection is a must read for those with a professional interest in the region post 9 11 This book was previously published as a special issue of the Journal Critical Asian Studies Encyclopedia of Immigrant Health Sana Loue,Martha Sajatovic,2014-06-20 There is increasing interest in the scientific literature on immigrant health and its impact on disease transmission disease prevention health promotion well being on an individual and population level health policy and the cost of managing all these issues on an individual institutional national and global level The need for accurate and up to date information is particularly acute due to the increasing numbers of immigrants and refugees worldwide as the result of natural disasters political turmoil the growing numbers of immigrants to magnet countries and the increasing costs of associated health care that are being felt by governments around the world Format and Scope The first portion of the encyclopedia contains chapters that are approximately 25 to 40 manuscript pages in length Each overview chapter includes a list of references and suggested readings for cross referencing within the encyclopedia The opening chapters are Immigration in the Global Context Immigration Processes and Health in the U S A Brief History Alternative and Complementary Medicine Culture Specific Diagnoses Health Determinants Occupational and Environmental Health Methodological Issues in Immigrant Health Research Ethical Issues in Research with Immigrants and Refugees Ethical Issues in the Clinical Context The second portion of the book consists of alphabetical entries that relate to the health of immigrants Entries are interdisciplinary and are drawn from the following fields of study anthropology demographics history law linguistics medicine population studies psychology religion and sociology Each entry is followed by a listing of suggested readings and suggested resources and also links to related terms within the whole book Outstanding Features The book adopts a biopsychosocial historical approach to the topics covered in the chapters and the entries Each entry includes suggested readings and suggested resources The chapters and entries are written graduate level that is accessible to all academics researchers and professionals from diverse backgrounds We consider the audience for the entries to be well educated but a non expert in this area The primary focus of the book is on the immigrant populations in and immigration to magnet countries References are made to worldwide trends and issues arising globally In addition to the comprehensive subject coverage the text also offers diverse perspectives The editors themselves reflect the multidisciplinary nature of the topics with expertise in psychiatry law epidemiology anthropology and social work Authors similarly reflect diverse disciplines The Evolution of Central Banking and Monetary Policy in the Asia-Pacific Akhand Akhtar Hossain,2015-08-28 This book of case studies is a significant contribution to monetary macroeconomics in which country specific experience and issues in inflation and monetary policy are reviewed and analysed in an historical context In doing so the key ideas and views Corruption in Asia Timothy Lindsey,Howard W. Dick,2002 Multilateral and bilateral aid agencies now direct much of their East Asia activities to so called governance reform Almost every major development project in the region must now be justified in these terms and will usually involve an element of legal institutional reform anti corruption initiatives or strengthening of civil society and often a mix of all of these Most are in fact major exercises in social engineering Aid agencies and major multilateral players like the IMF the World Bank and the Asian Development Bank are attempting not just to improve governance systems and combat corruption but implicitly to restructure entire national political systems and administrative structures Conditionality puts real weight behind these projects If successful they could transform the face of East Asia Defining governance and understanding corruption are therefore not minor issues of terminology However a great deal of optimism is required to believe that social engineering for good governance will succeed in either Indonesia or Vietnam within the foreseeable future In Indonesia there is neither the political will nor the mechanism to act since the legal system is itself utterly corrupted Better laws have been passed but they fail in implementation In Vietnam the problems are somewhat different but the outcomes are similar Corruption is widely recognised to be a major political social and economic issue even by the Party itself but few cases are ever tried The bureaucracy including the legal system and the party are so complicit that reform is impossible These systemic problems point to the basic flaw in the good governance agenda and strategy A politically powerful alliance of foreign and domestic interests is necessary Foreign multilateral agencies donors and NGOs are able to set the international policy agenda but their domestic allies are politically weak In the absence of rule of law the basic institutions of these transitional societies remain largely as they were and there is as yet no viable alternative system in either Indonesia or Vietnam The argument of this book is that more might be achieved sooner by much better understanding of political legal commercial and social dynamics in Indonesia and Vietnam not as they are meant to be but as they are Multilateral agencies donors NGOs business firms and scholars on the one hand and local politicians bureaucrats business people lawyers journalists academics and NGOs on the other hand have much usefully to discuss Only out of that dialogue a dialogue between the world as it is and the world of ideals can steady progress be made This book examines these problems initially in an abstract theoretical sense before testing the frameworks thus established through a series of case studies of Indonesia and Vietnam two very different Asian states one Vietnam still socialist but in difficult transition from command economy to a limited market structure the other Indonesia embracing a market economy and an emerging democratic system one with a Confucian legal and political tradition the other not one with a socialist the other a civil law legal system The book is divided into three parts The first Frameworks establishes some theoretical approaches to the problem of corruption and governance including a East European example The second part looks at case studies from Indonesia and the third part looks specifically at Vietnam Relevant legislation and judicial decisions can be found in the table of cases and a detailed glossary and list of abbreviations will assist readers unfamiliar with the countries under examination ABOUT THE CONTRIBUTORS Ibrahim Assegaf is the Executive Director of the Centre for Indonesian Law and Policy Studies Pusat Studi Hukum dan Kebijakan Indonesia and the Managing Director of the Indonesian law website <http://www.hukumonline.com> He is also a member of the Steering Committee for the Establishment of the Anti Corruption Commission and for the UNDP's Partnership for Governance Reform Paul Brietzke is a Professor at Valparaíso University Law School USA and from January 1999 to August 2000 was Legal Advisor at the then Ministry of Justice of Indonesia in Jakarta Howard Dick is an Associate Professor in the Australian Centre for International Business University of Melbourne Australia John Gillespie is Associate Professor in the Law School Deakin University Melbourne Australia Gary Goodpaster is Professor of Law Emeritus University of California School of Law Davis and former Chief of Party Partnership for Economic Growth a joint economic policy development project of USAID and the Government of Indonesia Leslie Holmes is a Professor of Political Science and Director of the Contemporary Europe Research Centre at the University of Melbourne Australia He is also the President of the International Council for Central and East European Studies Kanishka Jayasuriya is Senior Research Fellow South East Asia Research Centre City University of Hong Kong Tim Lindsey is Director of the Asian Law Centre and an Associate Professor in the Law School both at the University of Melbourne Australia Elizabeth Maitland is Associate Director of the Australian Centre for International Business University of Melbourne Pip Nicholson is Associate Director Vietnam of the Asian Law Centre and a Senior Fellow of the Law School both at the University of Melbourne Australia Veronica Taylor is Professor of Law and Director of the Asian Law Center University of Washington Seattle

Asian Economy and Finance: Dilip K. Das-Gupta, 2006-03-30 Topicality of Asian economy has refused to fade for almost four decades if anything it has been levitating The Asian economy has changed markedly since the economic and financial crisis of 1997 1998 and is continuing to evolve As a scholarly subject matter Asian economy has not stopped attracting academicians policy mandarins decision makers in the arena of business and students of Asian economy The Asian crisis was a cataclysmic event for the region and brought to the surface several systemic limitations like those in the financial sector corporate governance regulatory oversight legal framework and exchange rate management Managers of Asian economy need to get to the bottom of these acutely problematical systemic issues Additionally Asian economies need to change with the demands of time and devise their post crisis development strategy Asia's growth model that served it so well for four decades is overdue for renewal so that it can re-strengthen its bonds with the ever evolving regional and global economic reality The old growth model is likely to be less relevant and effective in the post crisis future of the Asian economies It is sure to run into the wall of diminishing returns An outstanding feature of Asian Economy and Finance A Post Crisis Perspective is that unlike most Asia related books it is written in a comprehensive and authoritative manner and covers large areas of Asian macro economy and finance The noteworthy areas of focus include global and intra regional trade and investment as well as financial and monetary aspects In depth discussions have been provided on regional integration through expanding trade financial flows regional production networks and financial and monetary co-operation In taking a contemporary or post crisis view of the Asian economy this book offers the newest knowledge related to relevant themes on the Asian economies as well as the latest concepts In a succinct manner this book deals with the principal normative and positive strands with which one need to be properly familiar in this subject area This tightly written volume covers a great deal of ground and imparts knowledge on the Asian economy related themes to students researchers and policy makers alike The book is neither overly technical nor model oriented It is easy to access for the target readership because of its descriptive analysis style which stops short of mathematical formulations and econometric modeling Many students and other readers who have good analytical minds and sound knowledge of economic principles feel lost in mathematical formulations This writing style makes it accessible to a much larger number of readers

Sustainable Urbanization Mustafa Ergen,2016-09-28 The rapid urbanization that began with industrialization has begun to cause many problems New approaches are emerging today to minimize these problems and make urban areas more livable These problems include insufficient social facilities in urban areas for increasing populations due to migration and unbalanced use of green areas water and energy resources due to urbanization Careless consumption and the pollution of natural resources will cause people many more problems in the future than they do today in urban development Many professional disciplines have noticed this unbalanced development in urban areas Urban areas have larger populations than rural areas today Urban areas are developed neglectfully Sustainability is needed as a criterion for urban areas to develop in a more livable and healthy fashion Sustainable urban development approaches are seen in many fields ranging from land use to the use of natural resources in urban areas

Defensive Restructuring of the Armed Forces in Southern Africa Bjørn Møller,Gavin Cawthra,2018-12-12 Published in 1997 the work explores the reorientation of security policies and the accompanying restructuring of the armed forces going on in Southern Africa under entirely new circumstances Democracy has come to South Africa the civil wars in Angola and Mozambique have ended and the region is establishing a regional framework for cooperation While covering the entire region a special focus is placed on South Africa which is predestined to play a leading role but which is struggling with the legacy of the apartheid regime and its repeated aggressions against neighbouring states A defensive restructuring of the South African of the South African military is an element in the building of mutual trust The implications of such defensive restructuring to a non offensive defence are described in detail In addition to the analytical contribution the work also contains central documents and a bibliography
