The Economies of South Eastern Europe C. Papazoglou, 2005-05-04 This book provides a comprehensive analysis of the main factors that affected the course of the countries of South Eastern Europe during transition contributing as a result to their disappointing economic performance Thus the role of initial conditions and issues concerning the effectiveness of macroeconomic stabilization and structural reforms are at the centre of the analysis Furthermore this volume focuses on developments and issues concerning international trade patterns foreign direct investment and the impact of the Euro on the exchange rate policies of the countries in the region Labour

Markets in Transition Sandrine Cazes, Alena Nešporová, 2003 This book aims to contribute to the debate on the degree of flexibility and security needed for the transition countries and its implications for the new direction of labour market and social policies Foreword OECD Economic Surveys: United Kingdom 2004 OECD, 2004-01-19 OECD's 2004 review of the UK economy finds that performance has been impressive in recent years This edition also looks at product market competition and sustainable development in the UK The Balkans: Foreign Direct Investment and EU Accession

Aristidis Bitzenis, 2016-03-23 The fall of communism and subsequent developments have put a renewed spotlight on the potential of the Balkan economies Bulgaria Albania Serbia Montenegro Romania and the Former Yugoslav Republic of Macedonia are countries which have attracted low levels of investment and poor political leadership in most of the countries has delayed much needed reforms However there are now signs of improvement and this timely book fills a significant gap in the available literature Demonstrating that these countries must engage as fully as possible with the world economy via EU accession this book explores the implications of the specific characteristics of these countries which have made the transition process more difficult This exciting new volume is valuable reading for students academics and business professionals interested in international development in the Balkans Foreign Direct Investment for Development Maximising benefits, minimising costs OECD, 2002-09-24 Provides a comprehensive review of the issues related to the impact of FDI on development as well as to the policies needed to maximise the benefits Shaping the New Europe M. Landesmann, D.

Rosati, 2004-04-30 This volume brings together contributions on the major economic policy issues which have opened up as a result of the immanent process of European Union Enlargement The issues analyzed range from modelling and analyzing the costs and benefits of enlargement to challenges for macroeconomic policy both at the EU level and in the new member countries to the state of affairs in the new member countries with respect to sectoral policy reforms such as those undertaken in the financial sector and in competition policy and the impact of enlargement on Europe's trade policy agenda

Monetary Policy in Central Europe Miroslav Beblavý, 2007-02-08 Miroslav Beblavý an experienced policy maker examines monetary policy and monetary institutions in Eastern European and looks at monetary policy more generally in less developed but highly open and financially integrated market economies The European Economy in an American Mirror

Barry Eichengreen, Dieter Stiefel, Michael Landesmann, 2007-10-04 Europe's economy is under strain due to lagging productivity growth population ageing the difficulties of adjustment in an enlarged European Union and the challenges of globalization In comparison with America rates of growth of GDP per capita and labour productivity growth are anaemic raising questions about the viability of a distinct Europe Report of the Director-General International Labour Organisation. European Regional Meeting, 2005

From System Transformation to European Integration Werner Meske, 2004

Science and technology in the former socialist Central and East European countries underwent a period of transformation in the last decade of the 20th century With respect to the past this represents the restructuring of the old system with respect to the 21st century however it was the turbulent starting phase in the transition to new national innovation systems Based on the authors many years of research in this area the book analyses these processes in detail for 14 countries reveals common features and differences in the transitional phase and infers the prospects for the development of science and technology in Eastern Europe in the framework of EU enlargement OECD Economic Surveys: Euro Area 2002 OECD, 2002-07-31 This 2002 edition of OECD's periodic review of the Euro Area economy examines recent economic developments policies and prospects and includes special features on the fiscal policy framework monetary management financial market integration and the EU's policy processes

Ageing in Asia Roger Goodman, Sarah Harper, 2013-09-13 The volume takes four key themes related to ageing the experience of old age intergenerational relations economics of and social policy for ageing longevity and the culture of ageing and examines how these issues are emerging in different regions of Asia specifically the former Soviet Union South Asia China Japan and South East Asia In placing these Asian cases studies in the broader context of debates about and policies on ageing more generally it brings them into the mainstream of comparative research on ageing from which they have been too often excluded As the studies show the relationship between ageing and poverty is a complex one and often reflects policy towards the aged rather than that the aged themselves are unproductive and dependent Ageing moreover can no longer be considered as simply a national question we also need to consider the implications of its global dimension in terms of issues such as human rights and quality of life
