The Routledge Handbook on Historic Urban Landscapes in the Asia-Pacific Kapila

Silva,2019-12-23 The Routledge Handbook on Historic Urban Landscapes in the Asia Pacific sheds light onto the balancing act of urban heritage management focusing specifically on the Asia Pacific regions in which this challenge is imminent and in need of effective solutions Urban heritage while being threatened amid myriad forces of global and ecological change provides a vital social cultural and economic asset for regeneration and sustenance of liveability of inhabited urban areas worldwide This six part volume takes a critical look at the concept of Historic Urban Landscapes the approach that UNESCO promotes to achieve holistic management of urban heritage through the lens of issues prospects and experiences of urban regeneration of the selected geo cultural context It further discusses the difficult task that heritage managers encounter in conceptualizing mapping curating and sustaining the plurality poetics and politics of urban heritage of the regions in question The connective thesis that weaves the chapters in this volume together reinforces for readers that the management of urban heritage considers cities as dynamic entities palimpsests of historical memories collages of social diversity territories of contested identities and sites for sustainable liveability Throughout this edited collection chapters argue for recognizing the totality of the eco cultural urban fabric embracing change building social cohesion and initiating strategic socio economic progress in the conservation of Historic Urban Landscapes Containing thirty seven contributions written by leading regional experts and illustrated with over 200 black and white images and tables this volume provides a much needed resource on Historic Urban Landscapes for students scholars and researchers The Resilient City in World War II

Simo Laakkonen,J. R. McNeill,Richard P. Tucker,Timo Vuorisalo,2019-05-27 The fate of towns and cities stands at the center of the environmental history of World War II Broad swaths of cityscapes were destroyed by the bombing of targets such as transport hubs electrical grids and industrial districts and across Europe Asia and the Americas urban environments were transformed by the massive mobilization of human and natural resources to support the conflict But at the same time the war saw remarkable resilience among the human and non human residents of cities Foregrounding the concept of urban resilience this collection uncovers the creative survival strategies that city dwellers of all kinds turned to in the midst of environmental devastation As the first major study at the intersection of environmental urban and military history The Resilient City in World War II lays the groundwork for an improved understanding of rapid change in urban environments and how societies may adapt The Routledge Handbook on Informal Urbanization Roberto Rocco,Jan van

Balleghooijen,2019-01-02 The Routledge Handbook on Informal Urbanization investigates the mutual relationship between the struggle for political inclusion and processes of informal urbanization in different socio political and cultural settings It seeks a middle ground between two opposing perspectives on the political meaning of urban informality The first the emancipatory perspective frames urban informality as a practice that fosters autonomy entrepreneurship and social mobility The other perspective more critical sees informality predominantly as a result of political exclusion inequality and poverty Do we see urban informality as a fertile breeding ground for bottom up democracy and more political participation Or is urban informality indeed merely the result of a democratic deficit caused by governing autocratic elites and ineffective bureaucracies This book displays a wide variety of political practices and narratives around these positions based on narratives conceived upon specific case cities It investigates how processes of urbanization are politicized in countries in the Global South and in transition economies The handbook explores 24 cities in the Global South as well as examples from Eastern Europe and East Asia with contributions written by a global group of scholars familiar with the cases often local scholars working in the cities analyzed who offer unique insight on how informal urbanization can be interpreted in different contexts These contributions engage the extreme urban environments under scrutiny which are likely to be the new laboratories of 21st century democracy It is vital reading for scholars practitioners and activists engaged in informal urbanization

Understanding Heritage Marie-Theres Albert, Roland Bernecker, Britta Rudolff, 2013-04-30 The publication is the first in a new series on existing and innovative paradigms in Heritage Studies The series aims at systematising and developing the academic discourse on heritage which has yielded a wealth and breadth of contributions over the past few years The publication offers its own emphasis by developing heritage studies with a perspective towards and as a contribution to human development It thus offers a vision for the construction and establishment of a new discipline The academic mainsprings and research interests of this repositioning of heritage studies as an academic discipline are discussed by internationally renowned thinkers and heritage practitioners The publication thus establishes first important points for discussion Central to this publication are questions concerning the sustainable protection and use of heritage focussing on the world cultural heritage and intangible cultural heritage but equally questions on the relation of heritage and memory and how these could mutually enrich our understanding of heritage
