The Vietnamese City in Transition Patrick Gubry, Frank

Castiglioni, Jean-Michel Cusset, Nguyen Thi Thieng, Pham Thuy Huong, 2010 Since the Doi Moi policy of economic renovation was introduced in 1986 Vietnam has undergone deep transformations as a result of the transition to a socialist oriented market economy Social and urban transition has taken place in parallel as urban dynamics were spurred on by Vietnamese public and private stakeholders and by external agents such as international organizations and international solidarity organizations experts consultants and bilateral aid organizations Here are the results of research carried out by French Canadian and Vietnamese teams from the north and south of the country on the overarching theme of Vietnamese cities in transition Some of this research deals with urban dynamics some with the issues at stake within such dynamics or with the strategies of the most significant stakeholders in urban transition civil society donors within the framework of official aid for development consultants and international consultancy firms These projects were carried out between 2001 and 2004 as part of the Urban Research Programme for Development PRUD and mainly focus on Hanoi and Ho Chi Minh City or both in the case of comparative studies Is there such a thing as a Vietnamese model of an Asian city It seems that urban transition in Vietnam is not taking place in as radical and abrupt a manner as in China The country's capacity for absorbing external models the quest for a third way between state intervention and economic liberalism and the fact that the country's architectural heritage is taken into account in urban planning are just some of the reasons for its particularity The issues addressed in each chapter as well as the proposals for further research suggested by the contributors should act as a catalyst for urban research in Vietnam

Directors of Urban Change in Asia Peter J.M. Nas, 2005-03-10 Bringing together a group of international scholars Directors of Urban Change in Asia examines who the directors for urban change are in an eclectic mix of Asian cities The book discusses how in the majority of cases urban change has come about primarily as the result of visionary leaders on national regional and local levels It also makes clear that the less successful cities have tended to lack such leaders

Urbanization in Vietnam Gisele Bousquet, 2015-09-16 Most studies on urbanisation focus on the move of rural people to cities and the impact this has both on the cities to which the people have moved and on the rural communities they have left This book on the other hand considers the impact on rural communities of the physical expansion of cities

Based on extensive original research over a long period in one settlement a rural commune which over the course of the last two decades has become engulfed by Hanoi's urban spread the book explores what happens when village people become urbanites or city dwellers when agriculture is abandoned population density rises the value of land increases people have to make a living in the city and the dynamics of family life including gender relations are profoundly altered This book charts these developments over time and sets urbanisation in Vietnam in the wider context of urbanisation in Southeast Asia and Asia more generally

Archiv 57/58, Cities in Relations Ola Söderström, 2014-03-19 Cities in Relations advances a novel way of thinking about urban transformation by focusing on transnational relations in the least developed countries Examines the last 20 years of urban development in Hanoi Vietnam and in Ouagadougou Burkina Faso Considers the ways in which a city's relationships with other places influences its urban development Provides fresh ideas for comparative urban studies that move beyond discussions of economic and policy factors Offers a clear and concise narrative accompanied by more than 45 photos and maps

La ville vietnamienne en transition Franck Castiglioni, 2006 Depuis la politique du Doi Moi Renouveau amorcé en 1986 le Vietnam connaît de profondes transformations avec la transition vers une économie de marché orientation socialiste Transition économique mais aussi transition sociale et urbaine travers les dynamiques urbaines impulsées par les acteurs vietnamiens publics et privés et par les acteurs extérieurs organisations internationales et de solidarité internationales experts et consultants organismes d'aide bilatérale Cet ouvrage présente pour la première fois les résultats de recherches spécifiques inédites associant des équipes françaises canadienne et vietnamiennes du nord et du sud du pays sur le thème général de la ville vietnamienne en transition Les unes portent sur les dynamiques urbaines d'autres sur les enjeux que revêtent ces dynamiques d'autres enfin sur les logiques d'acteurs emblématiques de la transition urbaine au Vietnam la société civile les bailleurs de fonds dans le cadre d'aides publiques au développement les consultants et bureaux d'études internationaux Elles ont été menées entre 2001 et 2004 dans le cadre du Programme de recherche urbaine pour le développement PRUD et portent essentiellement sur Hanoi et H Chi Minh Ville ou sur ces deux villes la fois sous forme d'analyse comparative Peut-on parler d'un modèle vietnamien de ville asiatique A la différence de ce que l'on observe en Chine il semblerait que la transition urbaine au Vietnam soit de façon moins radicale ou brutale La capacité d'assimiler des modèles exogènes la recherche d'une troisième voie entre dirigisme et libéralisme la prise en compte du patrimoine architectural dans la planification urbaine sont autant de raisons de cette spécificité Cet ouvrage par le contenu de ses différents chapitres et par les propositions de recherche formulées par ses auteurs devrait être l'un des catalyseurs de la recherche urbaine sur le Vietnam

Moussons ,2003 Internationales Asien Forum ,2008 Informal Urbanization of a Peri-urban Village in Hà Nội Gisele Luce Bousquet,2008 Vietnam et États voisins Yves Duchère,2023-10-04 Trait d

union entre la Chine et l'Asie du Sud-Est le Vietnam connaît depuis la fin des années 1980 un développement spectaculaire facilité par la chute du bloc de l'Est et de importantes réformes économiques. L'émergence du Vietnam s'accompagne néanmoins d'enjeux socio-économiques qui ne peuvent être compris en dehors des relations et influences réciproques qui entretiennent le Vietnam et ses États voisins Laos, Cambodge, Chine. Après avoir mesuré le développement de ces États et mis en exergue les convergences et divergences des pays d'une région sous influence chinoise, l'ouvrage questionne la nature des relations des États de l'ex-Indochine avec le géant économique et démographique chinois. Une attention particulière est également portée à l'examen des divisions et tensions entre le Vietnam, le Cambodge et le Laos, un moment où Beijing est perçue comme une menace mais aussi une source d'opportunités. En passant le cadre des frontières nationales, les configurations spatiales illustrent la vigueur de l'intégration économique de cette région dans les dynamiques de la mondialisation et le nouvel ordre régional en cours de construction sous l'égide de la Chine. Archiscopie, 2001. Atlas des guerres d'Indochine, 1940-1990 Hugues Tertrais, 2004. En 27 double pages, cet atlas permet d'appréhender et de comprendre un demi-siècle de conflits en Indochine.
