Hans Magnus Enzensberger Sammlung Metzler:

Hans Magnus Enzensberger Alasdair King, 2007 The writings of Hans Magnus Enzensberger are a provocative commentary on the post 1945 period in Germany Poet and essayist of international standing and frequent contributor to political and cultural debates his work has accompanied the development of the Federal Republic from the 1950s to German unification and after This study makes explicit the links between Enzensberger's literary imagination and the cultural and political history of Germany and offers a close reading of both Enzensberger's poetry and his seminal essays on politics and culture proposing that they be considered as part of a single artistic project The book argues that Enzensberger's significance lies in his sustained exploration of the relationship between literary and cultural practices and political democracy in Germany It offers detailed analyses of Enzensberger's poetry and considers his essays on the consciousness industry and on the constituents of a theory of the media in the context of the political development of the Federal Republic in the half century following 1945 Post World War 2 essays on cinema and television on tourism consumption and migration and on digital media and the future of literature are also considered and analysed Enzensberger's work is situated as part of an ongoing critical debate between him and key intellectual figures such as Theodor W Adorno Walter Benjamin Siegfried Kracauer Jürgen Habermas Jean Baudrillard and Michel Foucault

Hans Magnus Enzensberger Frank Dietschreit, Barbara Heinze-Dietschreit, 2016-12-17 Writing with the Words of Others Alan J. Clayton, 2010 Hans Magnus Enzensberger is one of the most widely read and respected writers in post war Germany In the present study a considerable number of his most important poems are closely analyzed including the texts that make up his major poetic cycles Mausoleum 1975 and Der Untergang der Titanic 1978 Central to any discussion of this highly diverse corpus is the way in which Enzensberger creates strikingly original poems on the basis of borrowed material Der Untergang der Titanic for example is closely based on the famous bestseller A Night to Remember 1955 by the American writer Walter Lord and on the film of the same name by Roy Baker 1958 Enzensberger's Versepos is simply unimaginable without Lord's book and certain episodes represented in the poem can be fully understood only by readers who have seen the film The appropriation of documentary material also plays an important role in the series of poems devoted to nature or science many of which present themselves as riddles An entire chapter is devoted to the analysis of these fascinating riddle poems The various personages portrayed in Mausoleum comprise not only scientists inventors explorers and thinkers who were responsible for truly world changing discoveries Gutenberg Humboldt and Darwin for example but also a whole series of historical figures whose admission to this oddball pantheon is best explained by the bizarreness of their often utopian projects or by their compulsive or megalomaniacal personalities The playful and provocative Enzensberger clearly chose several of these latter for their shock value Raimondo di Sangro V M Molotov Ernesto Guevara de la Serna Our reading of this collection demonstrates Enzensberger's willingness to undermine seriousness with irony and humor hence the presence of Dante and Marilyn Monroe on board the sinking Titanic The final chapter examines the relation between poetry and politics and examines the notorious essay Gemeinpl tze die Neueste Literatur betreffend 1968 as well as the disturbing interview with the Weimarer Beitr ge 1971 in which the poet expresses his thankfully short lived rejection of literature as art and his desire to break out of the Ghetto des Kulturlebens This chapter also discusses the influence of Bertolt Brecht Other chapters focus on the poet s taste for anachronism his asynchronous sensibility and the recurrent theme of disappearance Women and Modernity in

Weimar Germany Vibeke Rützou Petersen,2001-06 This book focuses on the popular fiction of Weimar Germany and explores the relationship between women the texts they read and the society in which they lived A complex picture emerges that shows women talking center stage not only in the fiction but also in the reality that shaped its fictional representations One of the author s significant conclusions is that it was the growing strength of female subjectivity its strong positioning and its insistent claim to visibility that occupied the imaginations and fears of Weimar culture and contributed in an important way to the crisis that afflicted the Weimar Republic "Ach, Neigung zur Fülle - " Christiane Caemmerer,Walter neu ausgehandelt wird vor allem mit Blick auf kulturkritisch geprägte literaturpolitische Selbstverständigungsprozesse der frühen Nachkriegsjahre. Im Zentrum stehen exemplarische Studien zu Gottfried Benn, Bertolt Brecht, Günter Eich, Peter Huchel, Karl Krolow, Paul Celan, Ingeborg Bachmann, Peter Rühmkorf und Hans Magnus Enzensberger. Ergebnis der Untersuchung ist die kritische Revision der prominenten Auffassung einer raschen Assimilation von Poetiken der lyrischen Moderne nach 1945. Stattdessen wird Nachkriegsmoderne als komplexe ästhetische Übergangs- und Orientierungsphase vor dem Hintergrund der von Restauration und Modernisierung geprägten janusköpfigen 1950er Jahre vorgeschlagen.

Dieses Buch liefert das Werkzeug dazu. Ein kurzer Intensivkurs vermittelt zunächst die wichtigsten Elemente der Verslehre. 12 Lektionen erweitern Kenntnisse und Analysefähigkeiten. 8 Essays sorgen für vertieftes Wissen.
