Women Criminals Vickie Jensen, 2011-11-10 A unique two volume study that examines female crime and the women who commit it. The two volume Women Criminals: An Encyclopedia of People and Issues addresses both key topics and key figures in women's crime. The first volume provides topical essays about areas critical to the understanding of female criminals such as the definition of women's crime, explanations of women's criminality, ethnic and age diversity in female criminals and responses of the criminal justice system. The second volume comprises biographical entries profiling women who are obviously criminals such as Aileen Wuornos and Myra Hindley and also women who were victims of circumstance, unjust laws or narrowly applied definitions of crime such as Rosa Parks, Harriet Tubman and Sophie Scholl. In addition to highlighting the breadth of women's criminality, these portraits provide a holistic, multifaceted understanding of the dynamics of women's crime and why it occurs, connecting the individual stories to the larger social scientific perspectives. Care has been taken to include the women's own voices and perspectives where possible and to address the intentions and reasoning of the system that responded to their criminality.

Serial killers have been around for a very long time and can be found in every corner of the globe and they're not just limited to the male gender, either. Some of these predators have been caught and brought to justice, whereas others have never been found, let alone identified. Serial killers can be anywhere. And scarier still, they can be anyone. Edited by acclaimed author and anthologist Mitzi Szereto, The Best New True Crime Stories: Serial Killers reveals all new accounts of true crime serial killers from the contemporary to the historic. The international list of contributors includes award-winning crime writers, true crime podcasters, journalists and experts in the dark crimes field such as Martin Edwards, Lee Mellor, Danuta Kot, Craig Pittman, Richard O. Jones, Marcie Rendon, Mike Browne and Vicki Hendricks. If you are a fan of true crime books such as I'll Be Gone in the Dark, Mindhunter, The Devil in the White City or Peter Vronsky's Sons of Cain, you will want to read Mitzi Szereto's The Best New True Crime Stories: Serial Killers. This book will leave you wondering if it's ever really possible to know who's behind the mask you're allowed to see.
