Raising the Barre Lauren Kessler, 2015-11-24 Like generations of little girls, Lauren Kessler fell in love with ballet the first time she saw The Nutcracker and from that day at age five she dreamed of becoming a ballerina. But when she was twelve her very famous ballet instructor crushed those dreams along with her youthful self-assurance and she stepped away from the barre. Fast forward four decades, Lauren suddenly powerfully, itchy, restless at midlife embarks on a Transcontinental Nutcracker Binge Tour where attending a string of performances in Chicago, New York, Boston, and San Francisco reignites her love affair with the ballet and fuels her girlhood dream. What ensues is not only a story about The Nutcracker itself but also an inside look at the seemingly romantic but oh so gritty world of ballet about all that happens away from the audience's eye that precedes the magic on stage. It is a tale told from the perspective of someone who not only loves it but is also seeking to live it. Lauren's quest to dance The Nutcracker with the Eugene Ballet Company tackles the big issues: fear, angst, risk, resilience, the refusal to settle in to midlife, the refusal to become yet another Invisible Woman. It is also a very funny, very real look at what it's like to push yourself further than you ever thought you could go and what happens when you get there.
