R. Bowker LLC, 1978 The Big Society Great Britain: Parliament: House of Commons: Public Administration Select Committee, 2011-12-14 This report which builds on previous reports by PASC warns that the Big Society project is hampered by the lack of a clear implementation plan leading to public confusion about the policy agenda eighteen months into this administration PASC has yet to see how the government will engage these charities and voluntary groups who wish to do so to deliver public services the little society rather than big business and Tesco charities Government must address the barriers such bodies experience in the contracting and commissioning system which means developing a plan to address roles tasks responsibilities and skills in Whitehall departments PASC concludes there are two major practical steps Government must take Firstly they must create a single Big Society Minister who has a cross cutting brief to help other Ministers to drive through this agenda once they begin reporting progress against the aims of Open Public Services White Paper from April 2012 Secondly they need to implement an impact assessment to be applied to every Government policy statutory instrument and new Bill which answers the simple question what substantively will this do to build social capital people power and social entrepreneurs PASC says early examples in practice like the Work Programme have left service providers such as the charitable sector who would play a major role in the Big Society with serious reservations The danger is that big contractors and the largest charities continue to dominate at the expense of small and local providers EU contracting rules need to be revised and smaller providers should be consulted on the legislative and bureaucratic barriers There needs to be a cultural shift in Whitehall departments The Concubine's Daughter Helen Kwok, 2003-04-21 The Concubine's Daughter is a snapshot of a bygone era depicting life in the British colony of Hong Kong in the fifties and sixties It is the story Elizabeth Lee beautiful intelligent and liberated from the time she is a wide eyed eighteen year old studying English Literature at the University of Hong Kong sharing girlish secrets with her two best friends to her becoming an academic at the University to just after her thirtieth birthday when she leaves Hong Kong with her husband and young son for the US frightened in part by the riots inspired by the Cultural Revolution taking place across the border in mainland China After twenty years in the US she returns to Hong Kong in 1986 just ten years before China is to regain sovereignty over the colony Educated in English Elizabeth is keenly aware of the conflict within herself between her love of certain aspects of Western culture and her Chinese heritage Living in that period of the colony s history and largely divorced from the cultural life of the Chinese mainland she is conscious of a sense of isolation Discriminatory attitudes and actions whether based on gender race or language are very much a fact of life in Hong Kong during this period The subject matter is original The narrative style is witty mildly sarcastic and humorous in places The vivid depiction of social customs and manners and memorable characters from different strata of society contribute to make The Concubine s Daughter a book well worth reading

El Camino Drive Edward Izzi, 2020-07-31 Detective John Valentino from Detroit s Third Precinct knows El Camino Drive very well his father was murdered there over forty years ago On Halloween 1978 Antonio Valentino was gunned down after work by three men alleging that he was having an affair with one of their wives He was shot in cold blood and his killers were later exonerated claiming self defense They believed that a toy pistol in the victim s pocket was an actual weapon In a very public declaration after the murder trial his uncle Rossano Valentino announces a vendetta against his brother s killers Over forty years later Detective Valentino is now an alcoholic He has lost his wife and family to his drinking and has just buried his mother When he and his sisters clean out the attic of her home they find an old locked wooden trunk containing an evidence bag and contents from the night of the murder in 1978 And in a clear plastic bag is a blood stained green water pistol he once owned as a little boy the very toy his father used to fool his killers Frustrated with his life problems and blaming them on his father s death Valentino decides to avenge the murder of his father and follow through with Rossano s family vendetta One hot July evening the wife of the man who planned the murder over forty years ago is found brutally stabbed to death in her ex husband s mobile home Next to her body is a poem from the killer and a green toy water pistol The Detroit detective has no idea who did it as his uncle is now too old and sickly to commit murder One by one the murderers who killed his father are brutally slain while Valentino has no clue who the Water Pistol Killer is He doesn t have any idea who is fulfilling this old vendetta Now John Valentino is considered the prime suspect And after every murder next to each body is a new stanza to the same poem and a green toy water gun Harper's Bazaar ,1873
