Hard Lines Voices From Deep Within A Reception:

Hard Lines Geoffrey Beattie, 1998 Centering on the city of Sheffield looks at the human consequences in northern England of the negative de industrialization that resulted from the economic and social policies of the ruling Conservative Party under Margaret Thatcher during the 1980s and early 1990s Work no work moving up moving down crime and vice being somebody and distractions are the windows Well illustrated Distributed in the US by St Martin s Press Annotation copyrighted by Book News Inc Portland OR

Masculinity, Labour, and Neoliberalism Charlie Walker, Steven Roberts, 2017-09-19 This book explores the ways in which neoliberal capitalism has reshaped the lives of working class men around the world It focuses on the effects of employment change and of new forms of governmentality on men s experiences of both public and private life The book presents a range of international studies from the US UK and Australia to Western and Northern Europe Russia and Nigeria that move beyond discourses positing a masculinity crisis or pathologizing working class men Instead the authors look at the active ways men have dealt with forms of economic and symbolic marginalization and the barriers they have faced in doing so While the focus of the volume is employment change it covers a range of topics from consumption and leisure to education and family

Working Lives Arthur McIvor, 2013-07-12 A balanced and richly informed survey that investigates how why and to what degree working lives have been transformed over the last 60 years McIvor covers themes such as gender race class disability and health in his exploration of how the meaning of employment has been signified by the workers themselves

Protestant Boy Geoffrey Beattie, 2013-02-07 Geoffrey Beattie grew up in the notorious murder triangle in North Belfast where during thirty years of the Troubles more than six hundred people were killed Many of his childhood friends ended up dead or in prison while Beattie himself moved to England at first to study and eventually to build a highly successful career as a psychologist On a visit home to see his ailing mother Beattie begins to explore his Ulster Protestant ancestry and to reflect on the unfashionable and little understood Protestant community His search takes him to the trenches of the Somme to the Plantation villages of Ulster and to Drumcree for the Orange march And it also takes him deeper into his mother s character at the heart of the book is an extraordinarily vivid portrait of this opinionated witty exasperating Ulsterwoman Protestant Boy is an honest beautifully written book about the stories that families and cultures tell themselves and about the silences that they leave behind

De-Industrialization Bert Altena, Marcel van der Linden, 2002 De industrialization processes have accompanied industrialization from the start both regionally and globally Most historical studies of de industrialization focus on economic issues including structural causes and forms of unemployment Much less attention is usually paid to the social and cultural aspects What are the consequences of de industrialization for working class families and their communities How does de industrialization affect working class culture trade unions traditional labour parties and the regional social educational and cultural infrastructure Are gender relations changed by de industrialization The essays here propose a wide scope for the study of industrial devolution

From Farms to Foundries Kevin Searle, 2009 Yemenis constitute the oldest group of Muslim settlers in Britain This book explores the intersections of the themes of racism class and resistance in the life stories of Yemeni former steelworkers in Sheffield Britain s major steel producing city     The American Economic Review ,1999 Includes papers and proceedings of the annual meeting of the American Economic Association Covers all areas of economic research     Journal of Economic Literature ,1999     The British National Bibliography Arthur James Wells,1999     Bookseller ,1998     Semiotica ,1999     Current Contents.
