Christian Atheism Slavoj Žižek,2024-04-04 If we want to be true atheists do we have to begin with a religious edifice and undermine it from within Slavoj i ek has long been a commentator on and critic of Christian theology His preoccupation with Badiou s concept of the event alongside the Pauline thought of the New Testament has led to a decidedly theological turn in his thinking Drawing on traditions and subjects as broad as Buddhist thought dialectical materialism political subjectivity

quantum physics AI and chatbots this book articulates i ek s idea of a religious life for the first time Christian Atheism is a unique insight into i ek s theological project and the first book length exploration of his religious thinking In his own words to become a true dialectical materialist one should go through the Christian experience Crucial to his whole conception of experience is not some kind of spiritual revelation but rather the logic of materialistic thought This affirmation of Christian theology whilst simultaneously deconstructing it is a familiar i ekian move but one that holds deep seated political philosophical and in the end personal import for him Here is i ek s most extensive treatment of theology and religion to date

Most Evil Is Done by Good People Who Do Not Know That They Are Not Good Ferd L. Wagner, 2010-05 This book takes the view that Christian truth is the basis for all answers to social issues and that there are not two opposing but equal answers within Christian truth that are equally valid and equally acceptable to God Any so called truth or right that circumvents or undercuts the required sacrifices disciplines and self denial demanded by God in any given social or moral issue ceases to be truth ceases to be right the moment it becomes a force unto itself outside of or independent of the Scripturally required obedience Human history has shown over the millennia that when the letter and spirit of God's laws are not obeyed the truth is abused nations become confused and people are used Many of our political and social issues are rooted in our misplaced belief that tolerance inclusion equal respect for unequal truth and live and let live is the way to greater peace and prosperity They are all wrong Each individual government and nation is judged by their response to Christ The Christian nation or one which ascribes to being one is tasked to set the Christian standard as every nation's point of reference It is the Christian's duty to show that the valid rule of God's law the letter of God's law and the spirit of God's law are superior to any other alternative standard The biggest obstacle to Christianity today is the undisciplined misinformed and unfaithful lifestyles of professing Christians The Church has become so indoctrinated in its aversion to any form of discrimination that it has placed a higher priority on keeping the peace by compromising than by keeping the truth by discriminating By accepting a false peace and rejecting a hard truth that resists compromise it begets neither peace nor truth A Guide to Academia Prosanta
