Office of the Special Inspector General for Iraq Reconstruction,2009 Product Description The billions of dollars expended in Iraq constitute the largest relief and reconstruction exercise in American history SIGIR s lessons learned capping report characterizes this effort in four phases pre war to ORHA CPA post CPA Negroponte era and Khalilzad Crocker and the Surge From this history SIGIR forwards a series of conclusions and recommendations for Congress to consider when organizing for the next post conflict reconstruction situation Over the past five years the United States has provided nearly fifty billion dollars for the relief and reconstruction of Iraq This unprecedented rebuilding program implemented after the March 2003 invasion was developed to restore Iraq s essential services build Iraq s security forces create a market based economy and establish a democratic government all in pursuit of U S interests in a stable and free Iraq Did the U S rebuilding program achieve its objectives Was the money provided well spent or wasted What lessons have we learned from the experience Hard Lessons The Iraq Reconstruction Experience a report from the Special Inspector General for Iraq Reconstruction SIGIR answers these and other important questions by presenting a comprehensive history of the U S program chiefly derived from SIGIR s body of extensive oversight work in Iraq hundreds of interviews with key figures involved with the reconstruction program and thousands of documents evidencing the reconstruction work that was or was not done The report examines the limited pre war planning for reconstruction the shift from a large infrastructure program to a more community based one and the success of the Surge in 2007 and beyond Hard Lessons concludes that the U S government did not have the structure or resources in place to execute the mammoth relief and reconstruction plan it took on in 2003 The lessons learned from this experience create a basis for reviewing and reforming the U S approach to contingency relief and reconstruction operations

Marked Women Russell Campbell,2006-04-05 Julia Roberts played a prostitute famously in Pretty Woman So did Jodie Foster in Taxi Driver Jane Fonda in Klute Anna Karina in Vivre sa vie Greta Garbo in Anna Christie and Charlize Theron who won an Academy Award for Monster This engaging and generously illustrated study explores the depiction of female prostitute characters and prostitution in world cinema from the silent era to the present day industry From the woman with control over her own destiny to the woman who cannot get away from her pimp Russell Campbell shows the diverse representations of prostitutes in film Marked Women classifies fifteen recurrent character types and three common narratives many of them with their roots in male fantasy The Happy Hooker for example is the liberated woman whose only goal is to give as much pleasure as she receives while the Avenger a nightmare of the male imagination represents the threat of women taking retribution for all the oppression they have suffered at the hands of men The Love Story a common narrative represents the prostitute as both heroine and anti heroine while Condemned to Death allows men to manifest in imagination only their hostility toward women by killing off the troubled prostitute in an act of cathartic violence The figure of the woman whose body is available at a price has fascinated and intrigued filmmakers and filmgoers since the very beginning of cinema but the manner of representation has also been highly conflicted and fiercely contested Campbell explores the cinematic prostitute as a figure shaped by both reactionary thought and feminist challenges to the norm demonstrating how the film industry itself is split by fascinating contradictions

Gunten Robert Walser,2014-03-05 The Swiss writer Robert Walser is one of the quiet geniuses of twentieth century literature Largely self taught and altogether indifferent to worldly success Walser wrote a range of short stories essays as well as four novels of which Jakob von Gunten is widely recognized as the finest The book is a young man's inquisitive and irreverent account of life in what turns out to be the most uncanny of schools It is the work of an outsider artist a writer of uncompromising originality and disconcerting humor whose beautiful sentences have the simplicity and strangeness of a painting by Henri Rousseau Shiniwa Michael La Vasani,2012 Battered and psychologically abused by an alcoholic father and neglected by an equally abused mother Michael age seven descended into rage at the murder of his beloved pet rooster and the death of his adored sister Consumed by murderous hate Michael was exiled to an obscure monastery between China and Tibet in the back of beyond from a place it was assumed he would never return A very special Buddhist monk Kako made it his life's work to reclaim the wreck that was this belligerent boy It took Kako eleven years to transform Michael into the man of peace and charity he is today The path was difficult and often seemed impossible as Michael resisted all of Kako's patient teaching Michael's transformation was aided by a handwoven soccer ball made from bamboo and coconut skin and a team of young monks who played a game they had never seen before in their lives By the time Kako passed away at the age of forty four Michael was ready to return to a world that had long ago forgotten him Shinawa The Story of a Reclaimed Life is the remarkable story of the long and difficult path to Michael's transformation
