The HARD-BOILED
VIRGIN

James Branch Cabell writes:

"This appears to me the most brilliant, the most candid, the most civilized, and—always within the limits of its chosen field—the most profound book yet written by any American woman. You have here—for, to be sure, the discerning and the tolerably tolerant reader alone—a small masterpiece."

H. L. Mencken writes:

"I go with Cabell all the way, and even beyond. You have done an original and first-rate job, and I kiss your hand."
