E. Hulme Robert Ferguson, 2012-05-15 Prior to the First World War T E Hulme was one of the most original and striking creative personalities in England strongly admired by both Pound and Eliot Yet he died in 1917 virtually unknown A key figure in the genesis of Modernism Hulme mixed among a great range of gifted artists and was never shy of courting controversy Unusually among poets of his generation he was convinced of the rightness of Britain s role in the war and criticised Bertrand Russell for his pacifism Robert Ferguson offers the first modern biography of Hulme drawing upon access to Hulme s papers and later interviews with his associates A humane comprehensive biography By the end Ferguson s final judgment of his subject the conservative character at its best seems justified Jeremy Noel Todd Observer Austin Harrison and the English Review Martha S. Vogeler, 2008 Political and literary journalist Austin Harrison became editor of the English Review in 1910 While holding that chair he expanded the publication s literary scope by publishing articles on such issues as women s suffrage parliamentary reform the German threat and Irish home rule But although he edited the Review far longer than did its celebrated founder Ford Madox Ford history has long confined him to the shadows of not only his predecessor but also his father the English Positivist Frederic Harrison This first scholarly assessment of Harrison s tenure at the English Review from 1910 to 1923 shows him courting controversy establishing reputations winning and losing authors and pushing the limits of the publishable as he made his Great Adult Review the most consistently intelligent and challenging monthly of its day Martha Vogeler offers a compelling personal and family narrative and a new perspective on British literary culture and political journalism in the years just before during and after the First World War Vogeler provides a revealing account of Harrison the editor his writings and opinions his public life and relations as she also traces the complex relationship between a son and his famous father Balancing a scholar s attention to detail and a fine writer's eye for style she relates Harrison's improbable friendships with the notorious Frank Harris and the outrageous Aleister Crowley And she has mined Harrison's correspondence to lend insight into the careers of such writers as Ford Madox Ford D H Lawrence H G Wells Joseph Conrad John Masefield Bernard Shaw Arnold Bennett and Marie Stopes Other figures such as George Gissing Bertrand Russell Lord Northcliffe and important Irish revolutionaries appear in new contexts Ranging widely across literature foreign relations national politics the women's movement censorship and sexuality Vogeler captures the themes of Harrison's era She describes his transformation from Germanophobe before and during World War I to an outspoken critic of the punitive measures against Germany in the Treaty of Versailles She explores the ambiguities in his engagement with modernist aesthetics and in his attempt to escape the shadow of his father while benefiting from his family's wealth and connections Vogeler's assessment of Harrison's books further sharpens our understanding of his ideas about Germany women education and Victorian family life notably his underappreciated tribute rebuke to his father Frederic Harrison Thoughts and Memories This account of Austin Harrison's career allows us to observe a journalist making his way in a highly competitive world and opens up a new window on Britain in the era of the Great War Modern Print Artefacts Patrick Collier, 2016-09-20 This study focuses on the close connections between literary value and the materiality of popular print artefacts in Britain from 1890 1930 The book demonstrates that the materiality of print objects paper quality typography spatial layout use of illustrations etc became uniquely visible and significant in these years as a result of a widely perceived crisis in literary valuation In a set of case studies it analyses the relations between literary value meaning and textual materiality in print artefacts such as newspapers magazines and book genres artefacts that gave form to both literary works and the journalistic content critical essays book reviews celebrity profiles and advertising through which conflicting conceptions of literature took shape In the process it corrects two available misperceptions about reading in the period that books were the default mode of reading and that experimental modernism was the sole literary aesthetic that could usefully represent modern life Richard Aldington Vivien Whelpton, 2019-01-01 The story of Richard Aldington outstanding Imagist poet and author of the bestselling war novel Death of a Hero 1929 takes place against the backdrop of some of the most turbulent and creative years of the twentieth century Vivien Whelpton provides a remarkably detailed and sensitive portrayal of the writer from early adolescence His life as a stalwart of the pre war London literary scene as a soldier and in the difficult aftermath of the First World War is deftly rendered through a careful and detailed analysis of the novels poems and letters of the writer himself and his close circle of acquaintance The complexities of London's Bohemia with its scandalous relationships social grandstanding and incredible creative output are masterfully untangled and the spotlight placed firmly on the talented group of poets christened by Ezra Pound as Imagistes The author demonstrates profound psychological insight into Aldington's character and childhood in her nuanced analysis of his post war survivor's guilt and consideration of the three most influential women in his life his wife the gifted American poet H D Dorothy Yorke the woman

he left her for and Brigit Patmore his brilliant and fascinating older mistress Richard Aldington Poet Soldier and Lover vividly reveals Aldington's warm and passionate nature and the vitality which characterised his life and works concluding with his triumphant personal and literary resurrection with the publication of Death of a Hero Edinburgh Companion to Twentieth-Century British and American War Literature Adam Piette, 2012-03-07 The first reference to literary and cultural representations of war in 20th century English Bodies Behaviours Cultures The Cultural Impact of the Technologies of Modern War The Spaces of Modern War Genres of War Culture Key Features All new original essays commissioned from major critics and cultural historians Reflects the way war studies are currently being taught and researched in the volume's approach structure and breadth of coverage For scholars core arguments and detailed research topics For students Historically grounded topic and genre based essays useful for studying the modern period and war modules Edinburgh Companion to the First World War and the Arts Ann-Marie Einhaus, 2017-05-24 A new exploration of literary and artistic responses to WW1 from 1914 to the present This authoritative reference work examines literary and artistic responses to the war's upheavals across a wide range of media and genres from poetry to pamphlets sculpture to television documentary and requiems to war reporting Rather than looking at particular forms of artistic expression in isolation and focusing only on the war and inter war period the 26 essays collected in this volume approach artistic responses to the war from a wide variety of angles and where appropriate pursue their inquiry into the present day In 6 sections covering Literature the Visual Arts Music Periodicals and Journalism Film and Broadcasting and Publishing and Material Culture a wide range of original chapters from experts across literature and the arts examine what means and approaches were employed to respond to the shock of war as well as asking such key questions as how and why literary and artistic responses to the war have changed over time and how far later works of art are responses not only to the war itself but to earlier cultural production Key Features Offers new insights into the breadth and depth of artistic responses to WWI Establishes links and parallels across a wide range of different media and genres Emphasises the development of responses in different fields from 1914 to the present 2022 Günter Berghaus, 2022-12-19 The first part of the yearbook contains ten essays on Futurist art and literature in Italy France Russia Poland Portugal and the former colony of Goa Among other things early Futurist publishing and propaganda initiatives by means of manifestos press releases and newsheets are examined as well as Athos Casarini's artistic and political work undertaken in Italy and the USA Articles in the second part deal with the 30th anniversary of the international Academy of Zaum as well as various conferences exhibitions and publications celebrating the centenary of Zenitism in Serbia and Croatia Critical responses to exhibitions conferences and publications as well as a bibliographical section with information on 139 recent book publications on Futurism conclude the yearbook Square Haunting Francesca Wade, 2020 A beautiful and deeply moving book Sally Rooney author of Normal People An engrossing group portrait of five women writers including Virginia Woolf who moved to London's Mecklenburgh Square in search of new freedom in their lives

Max Weber, Rudolf Steiner, and Modern Western Esotericism Aaron French, 2025-03-10 This book challenges previous definitions of modernity by comparing Max Weber 1864 1920 often considered the most important sociologist of the 20th century and Rudolf Steiner 1861 1925 founder of

Waldorfp dagogik and the esoteric social reform movement of anthroposophy While acknowledging that Weber and Steiner were different in several respects this research illustrates that the individual histories of these two thinkers are more entangled than previously recognized This includes the influence of esotericism on their thinking as well as their profound concern with science and technological change and an openness to the religious and philosophical concepts of the civilizations of South and East Asia Demonstrating the importance of non European influences for a full understanding of modernity this book will be a valuable resource for students and scholars of Asian and European philosophy social theory and Asian society
