Heart Of A Continent:

The Heart of a Continent Sir Francis Edward Younghusband, 1896 The Heart of the Continent Nancy Cato, 2003
The Heart of the Continent Fitz Hugh Ludlow, 1871 The Heart of a Continent, Etc. (Fourth Edition.). Sir Francis Edward Younghusband, 1904 The Heart of a Continent Sir Francis Edward Younghusband, 1904 The heart of a continent, by francis younghusband Francis Younghusband, 1896 The Heart of a Continent Sir Francis Edward Younghusband, 1897

Francis Younghusband was an explorer and soldier best known for leading the controversial British military mission to Lhasa Tibet in 1903. In 1886 Younghusband was granted leave from his military post in British India to accompany the explorer H. E. M. James on a seven month journey around Manchuria. After completing this expedition Younghusband received permission in March 1887 to undertake an overland journey from Peking (Beijing) to India. Traveling alone with just hired guides Younghusband crossed the Gobi Desert to reach Hami, China and proceeded from there over the Himalayan Mountains via Kashgar (present day Kashi, China) and the Muztagh Pass to Kashmir. He reached Srinagar on November 2 and his post at Rawalpindi on November 4 exactly seven months after his departure from Beijing. Younghusband recorded this journey in the first eight chapters of his The Heart of a Continent. In 1890-91 Younghusband undertook further travels to the Pamir Mountains chiefly in present day Tajikistan with parts in Afghanistan, China and Kyrgyzstan and the Karakoram Range, the unclaimed corridor between Afghanistan and China. He and his superiors in the Indian government suspected that the Russians might be looking for an invasion route to India through these mountains and one object of his travels was to search for signs of Russian activity. Younghusband recounted these expeditions in the remaining chapters of the book. The book provides descriptions of spectacular scenery and of the peoples Chinese, Kalmak, Kalmyk, Kirghiz, Kyrgyz, Tajik, Hunza and others that he meets. It also recounts several meetings with Russian reconnoitering parties including one in the Pamir Mountains in August 1891 with a Russian detachment of more than 30 Cossack soldiers that resulted in a diplomatic clash between Britain and Russia. After an initial friendly meeting the Russian staff officer in command of the party Colonel Yonoff declared that Younghusband was on territory claimed by Russia and that he was under orders to escort the British intruder across the border to China. This encounter led to the lodging of a diplomatic protest by the British embassy in Saint Petersburg and a subsequent apology by the Russian government and an acknowledgement that Yonoff had been operating outside the Russian sphere of influence. The book contains illustrations and several maps including a large foldout Map of the Northern Frontier of India. Widely praised for his explorations Younghusband was elected the youngest fellow of the Royal Geographical Society in 1890 and named Companion of the Indian Empire (CIE) in 1891.

Heart of a Continent FRANCIS. YOUNGHUSBAND, 1937 Encounters at the Heart of the World Elizabeth A. Fenn, 2014-03-11

This Pulitzer Prize winning work pieces together the lost history of the Mandan Native Americans and their thriving society on the Upper Missouri River. The Mandan people's bustling towns in present day North Dakota were at the center of the North American universe for centuries Yet their history has been nearly forgotten maintained in fragmentary documents and the journals of white visitors such as Lewis and Clark In this extraordinary book Elizabeth A Fenn pieces together those fragments along with important new discoveries in archaeology anthropology geology climatology epidemiology and nutritional science The result is a bold new perspective on early American history a new interpretation of the American past By 1500 more than twelve thousand Mandans were established on the northern Plains and their commercial prowess agricultural skills and reputation for hospitality became famous Recent archaeological discoveries show how they thrived and how they collapsed The damage wrought by imported diseases like smallpox and the havoc caused by the arrival of horses and steamboats were tragic for the Mandans yet as Fenn makes clear their sense of themselves as a people with distinctive traditions endured

The Heart of a Continent Sir Francis Edward Younghusband, 1937 Adventure Journalism in the Gilded Age Katrina J. Quinn, Mary M. Cronin, Lee Jolliffe, 2021-07-13 These new essays tell the stories of daring reporters male and female sent out by their publishers not to capture the news but to make the news indeed to achieve star billing and to capitalize on the Gilded Age public's craze for real life adventures into the exotic and unknown They examine the adventure journalism genre through the work of iconic writers such as Mark Twain and Nellie Bly as well as lesser known journalistic masters such as Thomas Knox and Eliza Scidmore who took to the rivers and oceans mineshafts and mountains rails and trails of the late nineteenth century shaping Americans' perceptions of the world and of themselves
