Heart Burial:

Heart Burial Charles Angell Bradford, 1933 The Feeling Heart in Medieval and Early Modern Europe Katie Barclay, Bronwyn Reddan, 2019-12-02 The heart is an iconic symbol in the medieval and early modern European world In addition to being a physical organ it is a key conceptual device related to emotions cognition the self and identity and the body The heart is read as a metaphor for human desire and will and situated in opposition to or alongside reason and cognition In medieval and early modern Europe the feeling heart the heart as the site of emotion and emotional practices informed a broad range of art literature music heraldry medical texts and devotional and ritual practices This multidisciplinary collection brings together art historians literary scholars historians theologians and musicologists to highlight the range of meanings attached to the symbol of the heart the relationship between physical and metaphorical representations of the heart and the uses of the heart in the production of identities and communities in medieval and early modern Europe Ritual, Belief and the Dead in Early Modern Britain and Ireland Sarah Tarlow, 2010-11-22 Drawing on archaeological historical theological scientific and folkloric sources Sarah Tarlow s interdisciplinary study examines belief as it relates to the dead body in early modern Britain and Ireland From the theological discussion of bodily resurrection to the folkloric use of body parts as remedies and from the judicial punishment of the corpse to the ceremonial interment of the social elite this book discusses how seemingly incompatible beliefs about the dead body existed in parallel through this tumultuous period This study which is the first to incorporate archaeological evidence of early modern death and burial from across Britain and Ireland addresses new questions about the materiality of death what the dead body means and how its physical substance could be attributed with sentience and even agency It provides a sophisticated original interpretive framework for the growing quantities of archaeological and historical evidence about mortuary beliefs and practices in early modernity A History of the World Through Body Parts Kathy Petras, Ross Petras, 2022-08-30 A grab bag of historic spleens chins and more this is your ultimate literary dissection of body parts throughout history From famous craniums to prominent breasts ancient spleens and bound feet this book will bring history to life in a whole new way With their inimitable wit and probing intelligence authors Kathy and Ross Petras look at the role the human body has played throughout history as each individual part becomes a jumping off point for a wider look at the times In far ranging quirky yet interrelated stories learn about Charles II of Spain s jaw and the repercussions of inbreeding what Anne Boleyn s heart says about the Crusades and the trend of dispersed burials and what can be learned about the Aztecs through Moctezuma s pierced lip A History of the World Through Body Parts is packed with fascinating little known historical facts and anecdotes that will entertain enlighten and delight even the most well read history buff BESTSELLING AUTHORS Kathy and Ross Petras have authored the New York Times bestseller You re Saying It Wrong and the hit calendar The 365 Stupidest Things Ever Said now in its 24th year with over 4.8 million copies sold ENGAGING CONTENT Packed with rich material told with a lively and humorous voice take a trip through history in this unique exciting way QUIRKY HISTORY FANS REJOICE For fans of The Disappearing Spoon Wicked Plants The Violinist's Thumb The Sawbones Book and Strange Histories Perfect for History buffs and pop history fans Father's Day birthday and holiday shoppers The Royal Funeral Ceremony in Renaissance France Ralph E. Giesey, 1960 Reassessing the Roles of Women as 'Makers' of Medieval Art and Architecture (2 Vol. Set) Therese Martin, 2012 The twenty four studies in this volume propose a new approach to framing the debate around the history of medieval art and architecture to highlight the multiple roles played by women moving beyond today's standard division of artist from patron Nelson's Encyclopaedia, 1907 Deathscapes James D. Sidaway, 2016-05-13 Death is at once a universal and everyday but also an extraordinary experience in the lives of those affected Death and bereavement are thereby intensified at and frequently contained within certain sites and regulated spaces such as the hospital the cemetery and the mortuary However death also affects and unfolds in many other spaces the home public spaces and places of worship sites of accident tragedy and violence Such spaces or Deathscapes are intensely private and personal places while often simultaneously being shared collective sites of experience and remembrance each place mediated through the intersections of emotion body belief culture society and the state Bringing together geographers sociologists anthropologists cultural studies academics and historians among others this book focuses on the relationships between space place and death bereavement in western societies Addressing three broad themes the place of death the place of final disposition and spaces of remembrance and representation the chapters reflect a variety of scales ranging from the mapping of bereavement on the individual or in private domestic space through to sites of accident battle burial cremation and remembrance in public space The book also examines social and cultural changes in death and bereavement practices including personalisation and secularisation Other social trends are addressed by chapters on green and garden burial negotiating emotion in public private space remembrance of violence and disaster and virtual space A meshing of material and more than representational approaches consider the nature culture economy and politics of Deathscapes what are in effect some of the most significant places in human society Heraldry, Pageantry and Social Display in Medieval England Peter R. Coss, Maurice Keen, 2003 Discussion of display through a range of artefacts and in a variety of contexts family and lineage social distinction and aspiration ceremony and social bonding and the expression of power and authority Medieval culture was intensely visual Although this has long been recognised by art historians and by enthusiasts for particular media there has been little attempt to study social display as a subject in its own right And yet display takes us directly into the values aspirations and indeed anxieties of past societies In this illustrated volume a group of experts address a series of interrelated themes around the issue of display and do so in a way which avoids jargon and overly technical language Among the themes are family and lineage social distinction and aspiration ceremony and social bonding and the expression of power and authority The media include monumental effigies brasses stained glass rolls of arms manuscripts jewels plate seals and coins Contributors

Savoring Disgust Carolyn Korsmeyer, 2011-03-17 Disgust is a strong aversion yet paradoxically it can constitute an appreciative aesthetic response to works of art Artistic disgust can be funny profound sorrowful or gross This book examines numerous examples of disgust as it is aroused by art and offers a set of explanations for its aesthetic appeal The Encyclopædia Britannica Hugh Chisholm, James Louis Garvin, 1926 250th Anniversary Edition Encyclopaedia Britannica, Inc, 2018-07-01 Encyclop dia Britannica founded in 1768 has been serving knowledge seekers around the world for 250 years To commemorate this milestone we re publishing the Encyclop dia Britannica Anniversary Edition 250 Years of Excellence 1768 2018 Designed both to complete your Britannica yearbook collection and to serve as an engaging stand alone volume this individually numbered special collector s publication is a rare compendium of knowledge insights and history and will be the last edition in the 80 year tradition of Britannica s distinguished yearbooks The Corpse Christine Quigley, 1996-01-01 Throughout the centuries different cultures have established a variety of procedures for handling and disposing of corpses Often the methods are directly associated with the deceased s position in life such as a pharaoh s mummification in Egypt or the cremation of a Buddhist Treatment by the living of the dead over time and across cultures is the focus of study Burial arrangements and preparations are detailed including embalming the funeral service storage and transport of the body and forms of burial Autopsies and the investigative process of causes of deliberate death are fully covered Preservation techniques such as cryonic suspension and mummification are discussed as well as a look at the recycling of the corpse through organ donation donation to medicine animal scavengers cannibalism and of course natural decay and decomposition Mistreatments of a corpse are also covered The Identities of Catherine de' Medici Susan Broomhall, 2021-07-05 In The Identities of Catherine de Medici Susan Broomhall provides an innovative analysis of the representational strategies that constructed Catherine de Medici and sought to explain her behaviour and motivations Through her detailed exploration of the identities that the queen her allies supporters and clients sought to project and how contemporaries responded to them Broomhall establishes a new vision of this important sixteenth century protagonist a clearer understanding of the dialogic and dynamic nature of identity construction and reception and its consequences for Catherine de Medici s legacy memory and historiography Ancient Egypt in the Modern Imagination Eleanor Dobson, Nichola Tonks, 2020-01-23 Ancient Egypt has always been a source of fascination to writers artists and architects in the West This book is the first study to address representations of Ancient Egypt in the modern imagination breaking down conventional disciplinary boundaries between fields such as History Classics Art History Fashion Film Archaeology Egyptology and Literature to further a nuanced understanding of ancient Egypt in cultures stretching from the eighteenth century to the present day emphasising how some of the various meanings of ancient Egypt to modern people have traversed time and media Divided into three themes the chapters scrutinise different aspects of the use of ancient Egypt in a variety of media looking in particular at the ways in which Egyptology as a discipline has influenced representations of Egypt ancient Egypt's associations with death and mysticism as well as connections between ancient Egypt and gendered power The diversity of this study aims to emphasise both the multiplicity and the patterning of popular responses to ancient Egypt as well as the longevity of this phenomenon and its relevance today Religious Materiality in the Early Modern World Suzanna Ivanic, Mary Laven, Andrew Morrall, 2025-10-01 This collection of essays offers a comparative perspective on religious materiality across the early modern world Setting out from the premise that artefacts can provide material evidence of the nature of early modern religious practices and beliefs the volume tests and challenges conventional narratives of change based on textual sources Religious Materiality in the Early Modern World brings together scholars of Catholic Protestant Jewish Islamic and Buddhist practices from a range of fields including history art history museum curatorship and social anthropology The result is an unprecedented account of the wealth and diversity of devotional objects and environments with a strong emphasis on cultural encounters connections and exchanges The Archaeological Journal, 1874 Death and the Royal Succession in Scotland, C.1214-C.1543 LUCINDA H. S. DEAN, 2024-07-30 Illuminates how the ceremonial dimension of death and the succession reflected both Scottish royal identity and a broader culture of ceremony To date scholarly attention to royal ceremony in Scotland from the Middle Ages into the early modern period has been rather haphazard with few attempts to explore how these crucial moments for the representation of royal authority This monograph provides a long duration analysis of the ceremonial cycle of death and succession associated with Scottish kingship from the thirteenth to the sixteenth centuries including the final century of the Canmore dynasty the crisis of the Bruce Balliol conflict and the emergence and consolidation of the Stewart family up to the funeral of last monarch buried in Scotland James V in 1543 Using a broad range of primary sources including financial records and material culture many of them previously untapped it addresses key questions about kingship and power the function of ceremony in legitimising royal authority its significance in relation to the practical exercising of power and evidence for Scottish similarities and distinctiveness within wider European contexts Death in England Peter C. Jupp, Clare Gittings, 1999 Death in England provides the first ever social history of death from the earliest times 500 000 BC to Diana Princess of Wales The book reveals how attitudes practices and beliefs about death have undergone constant change how why and at what ages people died plagues and violence wills and deathbeds funerals and memorials beliefs and bereavement Richly illustrated striking and often very powerful images In time with the spirit of the age and coming Millennium key scholars in their field write on their respective periods With the recent upturn of popular interest in death through films TV books and newspapers this book will prove stimulating to the general reader to students of archaeology art history medicine and sociology Tales of the Crusaders - Remembering the Crusades in Britain Elizabeth Siberry, 2021-01-31 Engaging the Crusades is a series of volumes which offer windows into a newly emerging field of historical study the memory and legacy of the crusades Together these volumes examine the reasons behind the enduring resonance of the crusades and present the memory of crusading in the modern period as a productive exciting and much needed area of investigation Crusading was a part of the rich tapestry of family history with tales of crusading developed as evidence of heroic endeavour to enhance family prestige Lists of crusaders were published to satisfy this market and heraldry was a visible means of displaying such lineage Drawing on extensive research and previously untapped sources this book charts continuing British interest in the crusades focusing on the nineteenth century The volume discusses what was available to read on the subject and how this was discussed in numerous journals Set in the British context of growing local and regional interest in history and archaeology the study also considers the physical artefacts associated with the crusades Tales of the Crusaders Remembering the Crusades in Britain is the ideal resource for students and scholars of the history of memory and crusades history in a British context
