Heart In Pilgrimage:

Pilgrimage of the Heart Sister Benedicta Ward SLG, 2001 Fairacres Publications 137 From the earliest times pilgrimage has provided an image of the inner life of Christians In its external aspect it became an ever more popular form of devotion throughout the Middle Ages The two concepts were not simple alternatives for the several strands within each were constantly interwoven With a wealth of illustration Sister Benedicta Ward demonstrates that while countless Christians sought to improve their material lot by undertaking pilgrimages to the shrines of the saints they could also find in the monastic ideal the pattern for their own inner journey to the heavenly Jerusalem She shows finally how the two major conceptions of pilgrimage were given a new direction in the sixteenth century when in the wake of the Reformation which abolished the custom Lancelot Andrewes and John Bunyan would portray the Christian pilgrimage as life itself the end indeed death and the way the way of the cross This remains true for all of us who today go on pilgrimage in whatever guise but however severe and demanding the life of pilgrimage might be arrival at the goal is delight pleasure wonder and love

The Heart of His Mystery John Waterfield,2009-10-21 Shakespeare has traditionally been viewed as Queen Elizabeth's poet laureate and as the official mouthpiece of the Elizabethan age. But the Elizabethan world was torn apart by the religious divisions initiated by the Reformation and vitiated by the government's merciless persecution of Catholics. As it was the victors who wrote the history, the English Reformation has been portrayed as a peaceful transition enjoying majority support when in fact it was nothing of the kind. Elizabeth's regime was a police state which sanctioned the use of torture where Catholic priests and those who harboured them were liable to summary and bloody execution. The persecution of Catholics was continued by James I evoking the violent response of the Gunpowder Plot. The Heart of His Mystery examines Shakespeare's life and work against this background. There is strong biographical evidence that he was himself a Catholic and a detailed survey of his plays and poems shows that his imagination was intimately bound up with his religious faith. When we realise that his human compassion grew from his membership in a persecuted community, we can glimpse the mystery he has encrypted in his works and we come closer to understanding the hidden heart of Shakespeare the man.

A Revolution of the Heart Patrick G. Coy, 1988. These new essays by scholars, activists and workers examine themes, events and people that have shaped and continue to build the Catholic Worker movement. Voices from both inside and outside the movement provide a much needed analysis of the ongoing significance of the Worker experiment of voluntary poverty, gospel, nonviolence and solidarity with the poor as a movement in U.S. religious history. Five of the eleven essays focus on individuals who were central to the movement's development: Dorothy Day, Peter Maurin and Ammon Hennacy. Four essays explore critically important themes of the Catholic Worker: the practice of nonviolence in the often violent atmosphere of hospitality houses for the homeless; prophetic spirituality; the relationship of radical politics to religious orthodoxy; and the differences and similarities between Catholic Worker pacifism and Vietnam era draft board raids led by the Berrigan brothers. A final section attends to the decentralized nature of this essentially anarchist movement, offering case histories of Worker communities in St. Louis and Chicago. With increasing numbers of Christians turning to the gospel call of peace, simplicity and service, and with over one hundred Catholic Worker communities existing in the United States, this timely collection offers a fresh analysis of the movement's tradition and its contribution to American culture. Author note: Patrick G. Coy, formerly Coordinator of the Peace and Justice Ministry at St. Louis University, is a member of the Karen Catholic Worker House Community and is on the National Council of the Fellowship of Reconciliation.

A Heart Like Mary's Edward Looney, 2017-10-06 A Heart Like Mary's is the perfect book for all Catholics wishing to begin or deepen their devotion to Mary Author and Marian theologian Rev Edward Looney guides us through thirty one daily meditations on the unique characteristics of Mary's heart. This easy to read and engaging monthly devotional is full of practical lessons that address the personal challenges we all face as Mary's fellow pilgrims walking the path of faith. In the midst of feeling lost in his prayer life and relationship with God, Fr. Looney found himself reflecting on who Mary is and how he could be more like her. He learned that by daily meditating on Mary's attributes and praying for the grace to have a heart like hers, he could turn his pessimistic and critical thoughts into optimistic and charitable ones. A Heart Like Mary's offers readers a simple yet reflective introduction to Marian spirituality by way of a month-long daily devotional. Readers come away with a clear sense of who Mary was, how she cares for and looks after the faithful, and how we can honor her in our daily lives. Based heavily on scripture, Church teaching, and Looney's personal experience, A Heart Like Mary's gently teaches us how to imitate Mary's love for others and devotion to God. Each day's meditation offers simple yet reflective insight into a unique characteristic of Mary's heart. You'll discover twenty-one attributes and ten separate desires of her heart, including: A Heart That Says Yes, A Heart That Rejoices, A Heart Filled with Generous Love, A Heart Attentive to the Needs of Others, A Heart of Compassion, A Heart Desiring to Alleviate Suffering, A Heart Desiring Us to Pray, A Heart Desiring Peace. As we're guided through each of these meditations, we'll find inspiration for changing our own behavior and heart's disposition so that we too can respond to God, our loved ones, and life's obstacles with the same tenderness that Mary does. Each day provides a scriptural quote or message from one of Mary's apparitions, followed by a reflection leading us into the depths of Mary's heart and showing us how to mirror her heart. We also will be invited to call upon Mary's intercession, asking her to give us a heart like hers. Each meditation concludes with a challenge to incorporate a love for Mary into our prayer life and action toward others.
