The Father's Heart Lori Franz Branigan,2024-08-15 Written as a daily devotional to inspire the next generation of believers The Heart of a Father Karl Thompson,2019-12-31 A book on the heart of a father can be multidimensional The two areas that I will focus on are faith and finances which are key to becoming productive citizens God placed us on earth to occupy and have dominion over it We were created to be citizens of God's kingdom. Therefore as believers we have dual citizenship status. Despite geographic boundaries we have one common homeland called earth and one common fatherland called heaven. Citizenship has responsibilities. It requires strong faith in God, our creator. On earth we are required to carry out responsibilities as part of our dominion mandate. We are required to meet our financial responsibilities and respect and love each other. That means we must be financially educated. We must demonstrate prudent use of the gifts that he has given us and attest to his goodness. Man has yet to demonstrate true citizenship.

Father and Daughter Time: Conversations from the Heart A. M. Morgan, D. Lester Morgan, 2009-12-14. A father's guidance through engaging conversations helps a daughter embrace the power of unconditional love.

From the Father's Heart Shadoew Rose Terrell, 2010-12. If you've given up hope and lost your dream, the vision that you had is a faded memory. And all you've hoped for you have not seen. Just remember: All things are possible to them who believe. Your relationship with God is the most important relationship you will ever have. It supersedes all others. God desires relationship with you. He desires for you to know and experience the generosity of His unfailing love for yourself. He waits with open arms to receive you into His love.

From the Father's Heart is a book of poetry that illustrates the relationship God has with one of His children. Author Shadoew Rose Terrell writes about subjects such as prayer, love, miracles, protection, and many others, and lovers of poetry will be uplifted, motivated, and strengthened by the inspiring words of wisdom that seem to come directly from the Father's Heart.

Hearing from the Father's Heart Erma Danley, 2019-08-26. The youngest of seven children, Erma was raised by elderly parents. Approval and affection were scarce. Learning that achievement meant approval and being right meant acceptance, she pushed herself to perform. She graduated as valedictorian of her high school class. A few weeks later, Erma married Harold, the Korean War veteran and charming bad boy. She believed that if only she could be good enough, he would truly love her and show it by changing into the man she dreamed he could be. When their first child arrived, they called her Teena. She was the apple of her father's eye. But tragedy struck when their second child came along. Timmy died at three days old, and Erma went home from the hospital with empty arms and a broken heart. The wounds from such a loss heal slowly, if at all. Harold's inability or unwillingness to discuss the death of their son deepened Erma's heartache. Three years later, they were blessed to have another son; they named Curtis. Her marriage to Harold lasted 35 troubled years before he lost his battle with diabetic complications from an injury sustained in the war. But pain is not her full story. Through it all, Erma learned what it means to be comforted and accepted. She learned what it means to be held, secured, valued, and cared for. And she learned those things in the arms of the Father who walked with her in the pain.

The book you hold in your hand is not a narrative of her life; it is the whisperings she heard in the night. Along the way, she developed the skill of Hearing from the Father's Heart. She learned what it means to be loved. And now you get to listen in.
