Spooksville Tennyson Hatfield, 2006-06 With Campbell in the lead they proceeded down a long monotonously gray corridor turned a corner and doubled back A tall slope shouldered young man passed them with a deliberate wariness and glanced back defensively The place certainly was different as well as the humanoids which inhabited it Not a window was visible The corridors were like subterranean tunnels What lurked behind the cold gray walls and unmarked doors Feeling a permeating clammy chill Anderson grimaced as he buttoned his coat Now he thought he knew why they were called spooks If the human zombies he had seen including his peculiar companion were a reflection of what he himself might become maybe he should head for daylight But even that was prohibitively risky He probably wouldn't be able to find his way back to the damn elevators on his own That was incentive enough for him to spurt ahead and overtake Campbell He didn't want to spend the rest of his life wandering through this eerie maze
