Heartsearch Toward Healing Lupus:

Heartsearch Donna H. Talman, 1991 Donna Hamil Talman is a psychotherapist with an interest in the mind body connection that predated her diagnosis with lupus erythematosus an auto immune disease which affects many more women than men Her desire to find a greater meaning in her illness and recovery and to discover why she developed an auto immune disease in which the body reacts against its own tissue led her to examine the ways in which unresolved and unexamined feelings could influence her health This is an inspiring book for anyone confronting illness with special meaning for those with an auto immune disorder Yoga Journal ,1991-11 For more than 30 years Yoga Journal has been helping readers achieve the balance and well being they seek in their everyday lives With every issue Yoga Journal strives to inform and empower readers to make lifestyle choices that are healthy for their bodies and minds We are dedicated to providing in depth thoughtful editorial on topics such as yoga food nutrition fitness wellness travel and fashion and beauty Travels with the Wolf Melissa Anne Goldstein, 2000 The Lupus Foundation of America estimates that between 5 and 1 5 million people have been diagnosed with lupus a chronic autoimmune disease that can attack any part of the body The elusive nature of the illness often becomes a source of overwhelming helplessness and frustration to its victims their loved ones and the physicians who treat it Narrated through both poetry and prose Travels with the Wolf is an autobiographical account of Melissa Anne Goldstein s experiences with lupus It is her story of becoming a young woman writer and teacher in the presence of severe often debilitating disease It is an exploration of her relationships with her family and friends as the illness steals into their lives and the record of her struggle to maintain her independence and identity despite disease Finally it is an author s journey to find her spiritual core This book is not just about lupus Goldstein uses her experience of the illness as well as sociological literary and historical research to portray and understand the dilemmas faced by the chronically ill person in our society In her conclusion she calls for reform of today s health care system which does not meet the needs of the chronically ill or their physicians Speaking from the Body Angie Chabram, Adela de la Torre, 2008-11-20 In compelling first person accounts Latinas speak freely about dealing with serious health episodes as patients family caregivers or friends They show how the complex interweaving of gender class and race impacts the health status of Latinas and how family spirituality and culture affect the experience of illness Here are stories of Latinas living with conditions common to many hypertension breast cancer obesity diabetes depression osteoarthritis rheumatoid arthritis dementia Parkinson s lupus and hyper hypothyroidism By bringing these narratives out from the shadows of private lives they demonstrate how such ailments form part of the larger whole of Latina lives that encompasses family community the medical profession and society They show how personal identity and community intersect to affect the interpretation of illness compliance with treatment and the utilization of allopathic medicine alternative therapies and traditional healing practices The book also includes a retrospective analysis of the narratives and a discussion of Latina health issues and policy recommendations These Latina cultural narratives illustrate important aspects of the social contexts and real world family relationships crucial to understanding illness Speaking from the Body is a trailblazing collection of personal testimonies that integrates professional and personal perspectives and shows that our understanding of health remains incomplete if Latina cultural narratives are not included National Library of Medicine Current Catalog National Library of Medicine (U.S.),1992
