

My Wounded Heart

Raindrops on my window pane, mirror to the tears I cry
Empty coffee cup by my side, another sleepless night goes by
Your ghost is dancing in this room, a memory I can't erase
Everywhere I turn I see your face, a constant echo of your embrace

They say time heals all the cuts, but this one cuts a little deep
A jagged scar across my soul, where promises used to sleep

My wounded heart, a fragile thing, barely holding on this time
Picking up the pieces, trying to find a reason, a rhyme

Can a love this broken ever learn to heal?
Is there a future where this wounded heart can feel?
