Heart Of Darkness And Other Tales:

Heart of Darkness and Other Tales Joseph Conrad, 2002 Regarded as Conrad's finest tale these stories tell of Marlow's journey up the Congo River to meet Mr Kurtz This volume also includes An Outpost of Progress Karain and Youth in a revised edition using the English first edition texts and with new chronology and bibliography Heart of Darkness and Other Tales Joseph Conrad, 2008-05-08 HEART OF DARKNESS AN OUTPOST OF PROGRESS KARAIN YOUTH The finest of all Conrad's tales Heart of Darkness is set in an atmosphere of mystery and menace and tells of Marlow's perilous journey up the Congo River to relieve his employer's agent the renowned and formidable Mr Kurtz What he sees on his journey and his eventual encounter with Kurtz horrify and perplex him and call into question the very bases of civilization and human nature Endlessly reinterpreted by critics and adapted for film radio and television the story shows Conrad at his most intense and sophisticated The other three tales in this volume depict corruption and obsession and question racial assumptions Set in the exotic surroundings of Africa Malaysia and the east they variously appraise the glamour folly and rapacity of imperial adventure This revised edition uses the English first edition texts and has a new chronology and bibliography ABOUT THE SERIES For over 100 years Oxford World's Classics has made available the widest range of literature from around the globe Each affordable volume reflects Oxford's commitment to scholarship providing the most accurate text plus a wealth of other valuable features including expert introductions by leading authorities helpful notes to clarify the text up to date bibliographies for further study and much more Joseph Conrad's Heart of Darkness Harold Bloom, 2008 Joseph Conrad's Heart of Darkness is not simply a critique of colonialism in the Congo it is an examination of the human tendency toward self-endangering corruptibility In this updated collection of critical essays master literary scholar Harold Bloom suggests that this resonant work has taken on the power of myth Book jacket Joseph Conrad Joseph Conrad, 1982 Modern Character Julian Murphet, 2023-11-27 How was modern character made or remade at the turn of the twentieth century Modern Character 1888-1905 considers a range of literary and dramatic texts showcasing the extraordinary efforts of various writers to rethink and reinvent human character during this period Arguing that many of the most significant breakthroughs happened in the small theatres of Europe in the 1890s the book's first section demonstrates how the countervailing currents of Naturalism and Symbolism created a vortex in which time-honoured truisms about character consistency depth and verisimilitude were jettisoned Works by Ibsen Strindberg Maeterlinck and Chekhov provide evidence of a searching and critical campaign against assumed models of characterization The second section turns to contemporary prose narratives with attention to Knut Hamsun Oscar Wilde Joris Karl Huysmans Gabriele D'Annunzio Henry James George Egerton Edith Wharton Kate Chopin and Joseph Conrad to ask what writers working in the novel novella and short story forms were doing to contest prevailing expectations about represented persons Inconsistency bad faith fragmentation and unconscious motives creep into the character spaces of these fictions Character description recedes and plots disintegrate a penumbral negativity intrudes just where identification and sympathy might have been achieved Ultimately Julian Murphet proposes that the modern character emerging over this decade and a half presents a radical rethinking of a venerable category of narrative and dramatic art with profound consequences for the coming century Travel, Modernism and Modernity Robert

Burden,2016-03-09 Focusing on the significance of travel in Joseph Conrad E M Forster D H Lawrence Henry James and Edith Wharton Robert Burden shows how travel enabled a new consciousness of mobility and borders during the modernist period For these authors Burden suggests travel becomes a narrative paradigm and dominant trope by which they explore questions of identity and otherness related to deep seated concerns with the crisis of national cultural identity He pays particular attention to the important distinction between travel and tourism at the same time that he attends to the slippage between seeing and sightseeing between the local character and the stereotype between art and kitsch and between older and newer ways of storytelling in the representational crisis of modernism Burden argues that the greater awareness of cultural difference that characterizes both the travel writing and fiction of these expatriate writers became a defining feature of literary modernism resulting in a consciousness of cultural difference that challenged the ethnographic project of empire

A Historical Guide to Joseph Conrad John Peters,2010 Joseph Conrad achieved worldwide literary renown in his third language Despite not having learned English until his twenties Conrad succeeded in breaking new ground with his portrayal of anti heroes distinctive narrative style becoming a major influence on 20th century English language fiction

R|EVOLUTIONS Jennifer Craig,Warren Steele,2009-03-26 Can art change the world Or can art produce new knowledge that facilitates radical change in our slowly evolving communities If so then we must ask How does cultural transformation whether super or slight affect our understanding of culture and the world Operating under the rubric of resistance and reform R EVOLUTIONS Mapping Culture Community and Change is a unique scholarly collection that seeks to illuminate current understandings of art aesthetics and the revolutionary impulse The resulting work interrogates intersections between culture and community revolution and evolution At the same time it examines how enduring social issues intertwine with current concerns such as representations of the body or the book Multidisciplinary in approach topics run from subversive uses of the body in Renaissance drama to the effect of the atom bomb on postmodern culture From Mark Wallinger s Turner Prize winning performance in a bear suit to Angela Carter s concept of sexual multiplicity in The Passion of New Eve Cutting edge and politically engaging R Evolutions will appeal to general readers as well as the specialist and it is designed for scholars not only interested in issues of cultural production but also in the evolution of politics and perception over time The Pathogenesis of Fear Elizabeth Ann Hollis Berry,2019-01-04 The Pathogenesis of Fear gathers together diverse conversations about cultural constructions of the monstrous Interdisciplinary essays map the margins of monstrosity as follows the cannibalistic paradox in Kleist s late Romantic Penthesilea intersections of the monstrous feminine and the new Victorian psycho physiology of consciousness in George Eliot s early novels the monster formed citizens of Dickensian and later dystopias the killing of African Americans targeted as monstrous entities in US cities the post human anguish of a television zombie world the monstrous mutilations of a Spanish horror film psychosocial aberration in Martin Millar s werewolf fiction the demonization of the Other on the war torn streets of Ireland Derridean devouring sovereignty Discursively correlated with different categories of body and mind monstrosity these essays argue persists in taking many forms Contributors are Elizabeth Hollis Berry Niculae Gheran Sarah Harris Fiona Harris Ramsby and Mubarak Muhammad Michaela Markov Kimberley McMahon Coleman Judith Rahn Cindy Smith and Marita Vyrgioti ÔRescuing MirandaÕ And Further Literary Essays Cedric Watts,2017 Cedric Watts Emeritus Professor of English at Sussex University gathers here fifteen of his literary essays which were previously published in a diversity of locations They include some of his most popular and controversial pieces notably The Semiotics of Othello Bakhtin s Monologism Haunting Conrad s Under Western Eyes and Jews and Degenerates in The Secret Agent Several of the essays concern Shakespeare and Conrad but there are also discussions of Keats Sterne Kipling D H Lawrence and Edward FitzGerald s translation of The Rub iy t of Omar Khayy m

Conrad and Gide Russell West-Pavlov,2023-04-17 This study examines the relations between the work of the Polish English novelist Joseph Conrad and the French Nobel Prize winner Andr Gide Gide s translation of Conrad s Typhoon is read as a work belonging paradoxically to the oeuvres of both writers where their respective preoccupations meet with illuminating results Focusing also on other major works by Conrad and Gide the study suggests that the intertextual and personal interaction between these two masters of 20th Century fiction was governed by processes of identification and projection conflict between master and disciple and a consequent resistant reading of texts and confrontation with linguistic and cultural heterogeneity Issues of translation theory psychoanalysis and intertextuality are brought together to offer a glimpse of a possible dialogue between literature and ethics This study will be of interest to students and researchers in English French and Comparative Literature The Cambridge Companion to the Modernist Novel Morag Shiach,2007-04-19 The novel is modernism s most vital and experimental genre In this 2007 Companion leading critics explore the very significant pleasures of reading modernist novels but also demonstrate how and why reading modernist fiction can be difficult No one technique or style defines a novel as modernist Instead these essays explain the formal innovations stylistic preferences and thematic concerns which unite modernist fiction They also show how modernist novels relate to other forms of art and to the social and cultural context from which they emerged Alongside chapters on prominent novelists such as James Joyce and Virginia Woolf as well as lesser known authors such as Dorothy Richardson and Djuna Barnes themes such as genre and geography time and consciousness are discussed in detail With a chronology and guide to further reading this is the most accessible and informative overview of the genre available A Progressive Occupation? Michael P. M. Finch,2013-08-15 On the eve of the twentieth century Joseph Gallieni and Hubert Lyautey claimed to have devised a new approach to the consolidation of colonial acquisitions Their method emphasized the primacy of political action over military action called for the replacement of military columns with a creeping occupation stressed the importance of economic organisational development in ensuring the lasting stability of newly acquired imperial possessions and called for the unification of civil and military powers in the hands of the soldier who would act as the first administrator of the colony This method was the culmination of colonial experiences in Tonkin and Madagascar in the final decades of the nineteenth century Following Gallieni s career path across these colonies A Progressive Occupation The Gallieni Lyautey Method and Colonial Pacification in Tonkin and Madagascar 1885 1900 focuses first on the painful process of pacification in Tonkin locating the emergence of the method and Gallieni s own achievements in their proper context The volume s focus then moves across the Indian Ocean to Madagascar where Gallieni combining the roles of Commander in Chief and Governor General was able to play out his nascent colonial method on a grand scale Meanwhile his subordinates with Lyautey at the forefront were able to interpret his method in the execution of their missions Drawing heavily on French archival sources Michael Finch sheds new light on colonial conflict and consolidation during the age of European imperial expansion illustrates the differences gaps and transgressions that exist between the theory and the practice of pacification and raises broader questions about the French army empire and civil military relations

Selected Short Stories Joseph Conrad, 1997 A selection of short stories including favourites such as Youth a modern epic of the sea The Secret Sharer a thrilling psychological drama An Outpost of Progress a blackly comic prelude to Heart of Darkness Amy Foster a moving story of a shipwrecked alienated Pole and The Lagoon and Karain two exotic exciting Malay tales

Masculinities in British Adventure Fiction, 1880-1915 Joseph A. Kestner, 2016-05-06 Making use of recent masculinity theories Joseph A Kestner sheds new light on Victorian and Edwardian adventure fiction Beginning with works published in the 1880s when writers like H Rider Haggard took inspiration from the First Boer War and the Zulu War Kestner engages tales involving initiation and rites of passage experiences with the non Western Other colonial contexts and sexual encounters Canonical authors such as R L Stevenson Rudyard Kipling Joseph Conrad and Olive Schreiner are examined alongside popular writers like A E W Mason W H Hudson and John Buchan providing an expansive picture of the crisis of masculinity that pervades adventure texts during the period

Conrad and Language Katherine Isobel Baxter, 2016-07-07 The essays in this collection examine Conrad s engagement with specific lexical sets and terminology maritime language the language of terror and abstract language issues of linguistic communication speech hearing and writing and his relationship to specific languages

Lord Jim , The Gothic, Postcolonialism and Otherness T. Khair, 2009-11-04 Starting with a re examination of the role of the colonial racial Other in mainstream Gothic colonial fiction this book goes on to engage with the problem of narrating the subaltern in the post colonial context It engages with the problems of representing difference in lucid conceptual terms with much attention to primary texts and highlights the strengths and weaknesses of colonial discourses as well as postcolonialist attempts to write back While providing rich readings of Conrad Kipling Melville Emily Brontë Erna Brodber Jean Rhys and others it offers new perspectives on Otherness difference and identity re-examines the role of emotions in literature and suggests productive ways of engaging with contemporary global and postcolonial issues

Joseph Conrad and Postcritique Jay Parker, Joyce Wexler, 2021-09-17 This book takes a postcritical perspective on Joseph Conrad's central texts including Heart of Darkness The Secret Agent Under Western Eyes and Lord Jim Whereas critique is a form of reading that prioritizes suspicion unmasking and demystifying postcritique ascribes positive value to the knowledge affect ethics and politics that emerge from literature The essays in this collection recognize the dark elements in Conrad's fiction deceit vanity avarice lust cynicism and cruelty yet they perceive hopefulness as well Conrad's skepticism unveils the dark heart of politics and his critical heritage can feed our fear that humanity is incapable of improving This Conrad is a well-known figure but there is another neglected Conrad that this book aims to bring to light one who delves into the politics of hope as well as the politics of fear Chapters 1 and 2 are available open access under a Creative Commons Attribution 4.0 International License via link.springer.com
