 meditations for purification and healing Being Generous Lucinda Vardey, John Dalla Costa, 2009-06-12 This extraordinary little book has the power to heal and foster relationships console and empower individuals create community and help save the world by providing a spiritual ecology for our daily lives Think that's a bold claim It is but it's also true We can all be generous with our money when an occasion like Christmas rolls around or when disaster strikes as it did with the Boxing Day tsunami of 2004 But Lucinda Vardey and John Dalla Costa say that this kind of giving segregates generosity and makes it a special activity only for special times If we're truly going to help this troubled world as individuals we must investigate other possibilities for being generous as well by helping those we interact with every day our children colleagues parents friends and the homeless men and women we encounter when out and about in our cities We learn that the four most generous words in the English language are I'm sorry and Thank you We learn that if we ask What do you need we may be surprised how readily we can provide assistance and how a single generous act may turn into something that circulates to include many Lucinda and John are a married couple who have committed they say humbly and imperfectly to making generosity a central practice in their daily lives What they refer to as their art of right living within family work and community is both a mode of being and a value that infiltrates all others Generosity inspires and guides them and continually tests and teaches them This book is filled with true stories they've collected about generosity in action Being Generous is their gift to readers written to enable and encourage us to follow the generous way She was famous for her work with the poor in the streets of Calcutta One day a beggar by the road ran up to her with a small coin financially worthless to anyone but him It was his day's take on a long hot and humid day and he wanted to give it to her She pondered what to do If she took the money then he would have nothing at all but if she rejected him it would not only hurt him but insult his generosity She stretched out her hand he who never had the chance to give could give to Mother Teresa The joy on his face said everything to her The Lesson Saying no to another's offer denies them the joy of giving Accepting what they wish to give even if you don't need it is what practising true generosity is about from Being Generous Treasury of Spiritual Wisdom Andy Zubko, 2003-01-30 FOR of eight living on rented land in Maryhill Iowa Hilda lived a life of hard labor and constant responsibility from milking cows and raising chickens to keeping the farm s financial ledger Rupp shows how the difficulties of her mother s early years and family life including the loss of a twenty three year old son forged a resilience that guided her through the illnesses and losses she faced in later years This affectionate profile of their relationship is at the same time an honest self examination as Rupp shares the ways she sometimes failed to listen to accept and understand her mother in her final years Rupp begins each chapter with a meditative poem that captures the essence of each stage in the journey Her unfailing candor and profound faith illumine this story of a mother and daughter with a universal spirit of hope reconciliation and peace Giving Up

Without Giving Up Jim Green,2019-03-07 What if the suffering that we call depression contains experiences and lessons without which we cannot be fully alive This is one of the many startling questions that Giving Up Without Giving Up invites us to ask ourselves Depression seems to be a contemporary epidemic a condition understandably feared and avoided by all Yet this book explores the possibility that we have much to learn from the desert times in our lives when it feels as though we are losing everything most of all any sense of who we are Drawing on his extensive experience of meditation within both the Buddhist and Christian contemplative traditions as well as his own times of personal loss and bewilderment Jim Green offers us a moving account of just how this wisdom practice can accompany each of us as we make the gentle pilgrimage of recovery He guides us through the invention of depression in the mid twentieth century questioning the increasing tendency to medicalize human suffering Based on the insight that Life is the Treatment he offers a thorough and practical approach to our times of personal desolation showing how we can learn to treat ourselves and each other with care and compassion At the heart of this approach is the practice of meditation learned from the Buddha The Desert Fathers and Mothers and from Jesus himself It s a practice which this heartfelt book insists can help you to be depressed which might mean in mourning for exactly as long as you need to be no longer and no shorter Then changed you are brought back to life which is change itself
