Heart To Heart A Personal Conversation With God

Margaret Silf

Heart To Heart A Personal Conversation With God:

Heart to Heart Wanda Jones, 2005-12 When God created us His desire was to have a personal relationship with us In order to have a relationship with someone there must be communication and trust Conversation is the root to communicating and building a good relationship In Heart to Heart A Personal Conversation with God you will find many of the author's personal conversations with God God has an ear for us when we cry out to Him and He has a heart to receive us when we just want to have a simple conversation with Him A Book of Prayers for Daily Conversation with God and Prayers for Special Occasions George M. Plasterer, 2023-12-14 Part of our life of prayer can be a conversation with God This book will help the reader broaden and deepen that conversation allowing that conversation to touch every area of life After an introduction that explores various facets of a life of prayer the book offers five months of prayers that model a conversation with God concluding with prayers for the seasons of the year and other special occasions

The Feminine Face of Christianity Margaret Starbird, 2003 Early Christianity was fundamentally egalitarian but later influences conspired to curtail the role of women in the Church This text seeks to reclaim the gender balanced Christianity implicit in the Gospels It takes a historical look at the profound influence of women on the development of the Christian faith and uncovers a wealth of feminine symbols and icons found in Christianity exploring their influence on architecture literature and art

Frank Spencer's Rule of Life, and how it led to his Prosperity John William Kirton, 1870

Close to the Heart Margaret Silf, 2003 Close to the Heart is a comprehensive guide that opens a world of imaginative yet simple ways to approach personal prayer Breaking through boundaries and stereotypes best selling author Margaret Silf shows personal prayer to be a journey into reflective living as she invites readers to experience prayer as a natural organic process Silf's stories and suggestions drawn from contemporary life are solid and practical She explains This book sets the scene for deep personal prayer by suggesting ways of inner stillness and reflective living It tempts the reader to search for clues to the kingdom on the sidewalks of his or her own hometown

Tormented Master Arthur Green, 1979 If Hasidism begins in the life enhancing spirituality of the Baal Shem Tov it concludes in the tortuous elitist and utterly fascinating career of Nahman of Bratslav 1722-1810 whose biography and teaching Arthur Green has set forth in his comprehensive moving and subtle study Tormented Master Arthur Green has managed to lead us through the thickets of the Bratslaver discourse with a grace and facility thus far unequalled in the English language literature on Hasidism Tormented Master is a model of clarity and percipience balancing awe, respect and honor for its subject with a ruthless pursuit of documented truth Tormented Master is sufficiently open to the agonies of religion in general and the issues of modern religion in particular to make Nahman a thinker utterly relevant to our time Nahman of Bratslav is unique in the history of Judaism Green emphasizes for having made the individual's quest for intimacy with God the center of the religious way He was a Kierkegaard before his time believing in the utter abandon of the life of faith and the risk of paradoxicality He was more than all others the predecessor of Kafka whose tales like Nahman's have no

what they really taught was that the final judgmental end for such people will be destruction taking its obvious meaning that they will cease to exist as conscious individuals The arguments are not complex because most of the New Testament writers make plain statements to this effect The book also looks at those parables and Revelation passages sometimes taken to indicate unending torment It links with academic works that in increasing numbers are making the same points but the book is not a contribution to academic scholarship Rather it is a careful readable and accessible account to challenge pastors church leaders and Christians generally to consider what the Bible actually says rather than rely on tradition

Putting on the Heart of Christ Gerald M. Fagin,2011-05-01 Putting on the Heart of Christ by Gerald M Fagin SJ offers a fresh look at the Spiritual Exercises through the lens of virtue ethics In doing so the book encourages us to become the kind of person whose very life is in tune with the heart of Christ Fr Fagin covers 15 virtues throughout the book including gratitude reverence and forgiveness Each is explained within the context of the Spiritual Exercises and the life of St Ignatius as well as within the context of Scripture Ultimately Fr Fagin uses virtue ethics along with the Spiritual Exercises to help us think beyond What has God called me and to think quite specifically in terms of Who has God called me to be

Blessed Is She Elizabeth McDavid Jones,2015-02-03 God is alive and well and speaks to His people today He does this primarily through His living Word the Bible In Blessed is She Lessons in Living from Women of the Bible author Elizabeth McDavid Jones demonstrates to today s women that God is speaking to us Blessed is She is a book meant to lead women to the Bible to be an aid in helping us understand how to read and study God s Word for ourselves to apply it to our lives and to grow our faith The intention is that through this book every woman may come to know that the Bible is for her she can read the Bible and understand it the Bible is relevant and applicable to her life here and now the women in the Bible were women just like her who experienced the same heartaches and spiritual trials she experiences the faith journey of every woman in the Bible is similar to her own This devotional Bible study will jumpstart women in their own discovery of Bible truths and life lessons and even more important the very heart of God for them The study features a close up look at Elizabeth Mary the mother of Jesus Mary of Bethany Martha and Naomi Use the devotional pages for personal growth in quiet time with God and individual Bible reflection For the woman who wants to delve deeper For More Understanding pages allow a further exploration of what God s Word teaches about each Bible subject To enhance group discussion and personal reflection use the For Deeper Thought questions at the back of the book or zoom into a more in depth group focus with the 8 week Elizabeth Bible study

On Holy Ground Keith R. Anderson,2025-06-24 There is a universal human need to understand our identity and find belonging and sacred purpose in the most daily moments of our lives When we know our identity as the beloved of God our lives take on practices that are urgently needed in our divisive culture today starting with compassion hospitality and discourse and joining a movement to boldly proclaim Abba s love Sacred purpose involves everything we do on holy ground which is where God walks with us before us and alongside us in time and place As we enter the fray we find ways to live as people of justice grace and conviction seeking the kingdom of God as our priority as we address those issues that are so charged and divisive today race inclusion exclusion individualism and trauma Within the image of an ecosystem we understand that Scripture the living word points us to Jesus the incarnate word who calls us to sacred purpose a living relationship of following Jesus at our own altars in the world for all of our lives Children's Prayer Vivienne Mountain,2016-04-11 This book provides strong arguments for giving prayer a central place in the education and nurture of children It is based on research in Australian Catholic parent controlled Christian Independent Jewish Muslim and government schools The author demonstrates focused attention and care in the data collection from the words of children and their drawings of people praying She takes us through her thorough processes of analysis and synthesis The research shows that prayer is valued by all children whether they come from a religious background or not For some children it is a way of associating with their communities and traditions of faith For others prayer is practised in an individualistic manner Prayer is a way to perceive and respond to the experiences of life It can help in dealing with the challenging emotional states of anxiety loneliness fear anger and guilt It can give hope for the future It provides a way of seeking help for others as well as expressing praise and thanksgiving Vivienne Mountain has a background in teaching and in clinical counselling She lectures in Spirituality and Ministry with Children at Stirling Theological College University of Divinity Australia She has published three books as well as contributing chapters to a number of others and articles for national and international journals I Wait in the Night Fr. Rupert Allen, Cong. Orat.,2025-09-08 What drives a man to commit murder And what can bring a murderer an embittered atheist to love God The story of Servant of God Jacques Fesch could have been one of potential cut short in infamy Instead it s the story of a man who found faith on death row and struggled in his last days to love God even while human emotion threatened to overwhelm him I Wait in the Night presents the prison journal of Fesch translated by and with commentary from Fr Rupert Allen Cong Orat In a frank and sometimes brutally honest way these pages tell the story of the hope that has come to a young man in a five by two meter cell while he waits to be executed for a murder he committed in the course of a robbery This is not a Damascus experience but the slowly dawning realization of the love of God for all his children It is a story of mercy forgiveness and redemption There in the dark solitude of death row Fesch found light That light was carried by his family the prison chaplain a monk who befriended him and a lawyer who cared for his soul as much as his case But above all he found the light in his own encounter with Jesus Christ More High School Talksheets-Updated! David Lynn,2010-12-21 Start Discussions That Matter to Your High Schoolers About God About themselves their beliefs their questions their lives Burst More than a quarter million copies sold in this series More High School TalkSheets Updated contains the same kind of provocative compelling discussion starting questions that are hallmarks of the best selling TalkSheets series now updated for new millennium high schoolers Here are 50 more creative discussions that focus on relevant real life topics The FutureDeathPrioritiesAIDSHeaven HellPremarital SexPrayerKnowing
