Heart Beguiling Araby:

Heart Beguiling Araby Kathryn Tidrick, 1989 What is it about Arabia and her people that has exercised such a powerful allure on generations of English travellers and explorers A land whose name could evoke haunting echoes of the unconscious a country of the mind more real than any place on a map had by the Victorian era become a deep and lasting obsession for some of the greatest writers and explorers of the time Here are the stories of some of those men iconic figures like T E Lawrence and Richard Burton whose extraordinary relationships with and explorations of Arabia changed the way we now perceive the Arab world and formed the basis of the West's understanding of the region Riveting and beautifully portrayed Heart Beguiling Araby reveals how these ultimately lonely figures pushed themselves to the limits of physical and mental endurance surviving and prevailing in a land that had captivated them thus binding their legends to its sweeping deserts and ancient tribes for generations to come

Heart-beguiling Araby Kathryn Tidrick, 1981 Getting God's Ear Eleanor Abdella Doumato, 2000 A detailed study of the role of religious worship and spiritual affairs in women's lives in the twentieth century Arab world

The Bookman, 1924 From Empire to Orient Geoffrey Nash, 2005-07-27 From Empire to Orient offers an alternative perspective on Britain's late imperial period by looking at the lives and the writings of the men who chose to defy the conventional social and political attitudes of the British ruling classes towards the Near East Between the Greek revolt in 1830 and the fall of the Caliphate in 1924 a different kind of voice was heard that was both anti Imperialist and pro Islamic Geoffrey Nash places David Urquhart's passionate belief in the ideal of municipal government in Turkey W S Blunt's enthusiasm for the Egyptian reformers of the Azhar E G Browne's zeal for the Persian revolution and Marmaduke Pickthall's pained advocacy of the cause of the Young Turks into their political and historical context and into the context of their writings The author argues that the actions of these men represented a distinctive identification with the Islamic world and of the involvement of the West in its politics By condemning Britain's manoeuvres and choice of allies in the Near East each of these writers embellished a narrative of betrayal and a breach with the British educated classes view of the Islamic East Through the lives and writings of these men who identified so passionately with the Islamic world Nash offers a fascinating perspective on Britain's late imperial period

The Arabian Desert in English Travel Writing Since 1950 Jenny Walker, 2022-12-30 Broadly this book is about the Arabian desert as the locus of exploration by a long tradition of British travellers that includes T E Lawrence and Wilfred Thesiger more specifically it is about those who since 1950 have followed in their literary footsteps In analysing modern works covering a land greater than the sum of its geographical parts the discussion identifies outmoded tropes that continue to impinge upon the perception of the Middle East today while recognising that the laboured binaries of East and West desert and sown noble and savage have outrun their course Where however only a barren legacy of latent Orientalism may have been expected the author finds instead a rich seam of writing that exhibits diversity of purpose and insight contributing to contemporary discussions on travel and tourism intercultural representation and environmental awareness By addressing a lack of scholarly attention towards recent additions to the genre this study illustrates for the benefit of students of travel literature or indeed anyone interested in Arabia how desert writing under the emerging configurations of globalisation postcolonialism and ecocriticism acts as a microcosm of the kinds of ethical and emotional dilemmas confronting today's travel writers in the world's most extreme regions

New Arabian Studies Volume 2 P. Bidwell, G. Rex Smith, J. R. Smart, 1994-06 New Arabian Studies is an international journal covering a wide spectrum of topics including geography archaeology history architecture agriculture language dialect sociology documents literature and religion It provides authoritative information intended to appeal to both the specialist and general reader Both the traditional and the modern aspects of Arabia are covered excluding contemporary controversial politics Contributions by Hussein Abdullah al Amri Madawi Al Rasheed W J Donaldson A B D R Eagle Andrey Korotayev Richard I Lawless Eric Macro Brian Marshall Mikhail Rodionov Marie Claude Simeone Senelle Martine Vanhove and Jerzy Zdanowski

Breaking Ground Getzel M. Cohen, Martha Sharp Joukowsky, 2010-06-02 At the close of the Victorian era two generations of intrepid women abandoned Grand Tour travel for the rigors of archaeological expeditions shining the light of scientific exploration on Old World antiquity Breaking Ground highlights the remarkable careers of twelve pioneers a compelling narrative of personal social intellectual and historical achievement Claire Lyons The Getty Museum Behind these pioneering women lie a wide range of fascinating and inspiring life stories Though each of their tales is unique they were all formidable scholars whose important contributions changed the field of archaeology Kudos to the authors for making their stories and accomplishments known to us all Jodi Magness University of North Carolina Chapel Hill This book presents twelve fascinating women whose contributions to the development and progress of Old World archaeology in an area ranging from Italy to Mesopotamia have been immeasurable Each essay in this collection examines the life of a pioneer archaeologist in the early days of the discipline tracing her path from education in the classics to travel and exploration and eventual international recognition in the field of archaeology The lives of these women may serve as models both for those interested in gender studies and the history of archaeology because in fact they broke ground both as women and as archaeologists The interest inherent in these biographies will reach well beyond defined disciplines and subdisciplines for the life of each of these exciting and accomplished individuals is an adventure story in itself

Marmaduke Pickthall: Islam and the Modern World, 2017-04-11 This new volume of essays marks eighty years since the death of Marmaduke Pickthall His various roles as translator of the Qur'an traveller to the Near East political journalist writing on behalf of Muslim Turkey and creator of the Muslim novel are discussed In later life Pickthall became a prominent member of the British Muslim community in London and Woking co worker with Muslims in the Indian subcontinent supporter of the Khilafat movement and editor of the journal Islamic Culture under the patronage of the Nizam of Hyderabad Marmaduke Pickthall Islam and the Modern World makes an important contribution to the field of Muslims in Europe in the first half of the twentieth century

Gerges,2025-04-29 How the Middle East can achieve political change and social progress The Middle East is in upheaval a widening chasm between state and society the failure of governing elites to address citizens genuine grievances massive economic mismanagement all made worse by repeated interventions by Western powers Why has political change been so difficult to achieve In The Great Betrayal Fawaz Gerges argues that the convergence of political authoritarianism meddling by the West and the effects of prolonged regional conflicts have produced political paralysis and economic stagnation The agency of everyday people has been thwarted by an authoritarian status quo that is maintained by a powerful partnership of external and internal forces Gerges traces more than a century of consequential events in the region from the end of the Ottoman Empire and the European carve up of the Middle East to the Iranian Revolution and the Arab Spring uprisings He shows how the people of the Middle East have been systematically denied self determination political representation and effective government Gerges finds that the region with its diversity variability and volatility defies abstract grand theories previous accounts that have attributed the Middle East s problems to any one cause such as modernism ignore the complexity and specificity of the issues What can we learn from the Middle East s vexed history Gerges is optimistic declaring that the region s future will be determined not by dictators and their superpower patrons but by a growing population of Arab and Muslim youth who demand to be treated as citizens and not as subjects

Travel Writing and Empire Steven H. Clark, 1999 Travel writing has become central to postcolonial studies This book provides an introduction to the genre particularly to its dynamics of power and representation and the degree to which it has promoted ideologies of empire The book combines detailed evaluations of major contemporary models of analysis new historicism travelling theory and post colonial studies with a series of specific studies detailing the complicity of the genre with a history of violent incursion from Columbus reports from the New World through to the nomadism of postmodern travelogue Among its particular areas of concern are Othering discourses of cannibalism and infanticide the production of colonial knowledge geographic medicinal zoological the role of sexual anxiety in the construction of the gendered travelling body the interplay between imperial and domestic spheres reappropriation of alien discourse by indigenous cultures Post colonial studies has concentrated on travellers as conduits of erasure and appropriation This book resists the temptation to think in terms of a simple monolithic Eurocentrism and offers a more complex reading of texts produced before during and after periods of imperial ascendancy In doing so it provides a more nuanced account of the hegemonic functions of travel writing As such it is necessary reading for students and academics of cultural studies literary theory anthropology and history

The Middle East Gary S. Gregg, 2005-07-21 For over a decade the Middle East has monopolized news headlines in the West Journalists and commentators regularly speculate that the region s turmoil may stem from the psychological momentum of its cultural traditions or of a tribal or fatalistic mentality Yet few studies of the region s cultural psychology have provided a critical synthesis of psychological research on Middle Eastern societies Drawing on autobiographies literary works ethnographic accounts and life history interviews The Middle East A Cultural Psychology offers the first comprehensive summary of psychological writings on the region reviewing works by psychologists anthropologists and sociologists that have been written in English Arabic and French Rejecting stereotypical descriptions of the Arab mind or Muslim mentality Gary Gregg adopts a life span development framework examining influences on development in infancy early childhood late childhood and adolescence as well as on identity formation in early and mature adulthood He views patterns of development in the context of recent work in cultural psychology and compares Middle Eastern patterns less with Western middle class norms than with those described for the region s neighbors Hindu India sub Saharan Africa and the Mediterranean shore of Europe The research presented in this volume overwhelmingly suggests that the region s strife stems much less from a stubborn adherence to tradition and resistance to modernity than from widespread frustration with broken promises of modernization with the slow and halting pace of economic progress and democratization A sophisticated account of the Middle East s cultural psychology The Middle East provides students researchers policy makers and all those interested in the culture and psychology of the region with invaluable insight into the lives families and social relationships of Middle Easterners as they struggle to reconcile the lure of Westernized life styles with traditional values

Mandated Landscape Roza El-Eini, 2004-11-23 In this ground breaking authoritative study a highly documented and incisive analysis is made of the galvanising changes wrought to the people and landscape of British Mandated Palestine 1929 1948 Using a comprehensive and interdisciplinary approach the book s award winning author examines how the British imposed their rule dominated by the clashing dualities of their Mandate obligations towards the Arabs and the Jews and their own interests The rulers Empire wide conceptions of the White man s burden and preconceptions of the Holy Land were potent forces of change influencing their policies Lucidly written Mandated Landscape is also a rich source of information supported by numerous maps tables and illustrations and has 66 appendices a considerable bibliography and extensive index With a theoretical and historical backdrop the ramifications of British rule are highlighted in their impact on town planning agriculture forestry land the partition plans and a case study presenting discussions on such issues as development ecological shock law and the controversial division of village lands as the British operated in a politically turbulent climate often within their own administration This book is a major contribution to research on British Palestine and will interest those in Middle East history geography development and colonial postcolonial studies

Britain and the formation of the Gulf States Shohei Sato, 2016-05-01 This book offers new insight into the end of the British Empire in the Middle East It takes a fresh look at the relationship between Britain and the Gulf rulers at the height of the British Empire and how its effects are still felt internationally today Over the last four decades the Persian Gulf region has gone through oil shocks wars and political changes and yet the basic entities of the southern Gulf states have remained largely in place How did this resilient system come about for such seemingly contested societies Drawing on extensive multi archival research in the British American and Gulf archives this book illuminates a series of negotiations between British diplomats and the Gulf rulers that inadvertently led Bahrain Qatar and the UAE to take their current shapes The story addresses the crucial question of self determination versus better together a dilemma pertinent to anyone interested in the transformation of the modern world

Unfabling the East Jürgen Osterhammel, 2019-11-19 During the long eighteenth century Europe's travelers scholars and intellectuals looked to Asia in a spirit of puzzlement irony and openness In this panoramic and colorful book Jürgen Osterhammel tells the story of the European Enlightenment's nuanced encounter with the great civilizations of the East from the Ottoman Empire and India to China and Japan Here is the acclaimed book that challenges the notion that Europe's formative engagement with the non European world was invariably marred by an imperial gaze and presumptions of Western superiority Osterhammel shows how major figures such as Leibniz Voltaire Gibbon and Hegel took a keen interest in Asian culture and history and introduces lesser known scientific travelers colonial administrators Jesuit missionaries and adventurers who returned home from Asia bearing manuscripts in many exotic languages huge collections of ethnographic data and stories that sometimes defied belief Osterhammel brings the sights and sounds of this tumultuous age vividly to life from the salons of Paris and the lecture halls of Edinburgh to the deserts of Arabia the steppes of Siberia and the sumptuous courts of Asian princes He demonstrates how Europe discovered its own identity anew by measuring itself against its more senior continent and how it was only toward the end of this period that cruder forms of Eurocentrism and condescension toward Asia prevailed

Tradition and Modernity in Arabic Language And Literature J R Smart, J. R. Smart, 2013-12-16 Covers a range of literary and linguistic subjects from pre Islamic times to the twentieth century

Rome in the East Warwick Ball, 2002-01-04 From Rome's legendary foundation by Aeneas and the Trojan heroes as the New Troy through installing Arabs as Roman emperors to the eventual foundation of the new Rome by a latter day Aeneas at Constantinople the East took over Rome and Rome ultimately ditched Europe to the Barbarians Through this obsession Near Eastern civilisation most of all Christianity went West to transform Europe Warwick Ball argues that the story of Rome is the story of the East more than the story of the West Jacket
