Daniel F McAuley

Heart Of A Heartle World:

Heart of the Heartless World David Margolies, Maroula Joannou, 1995 Margot Heinemann who died in 1992 was a great scholar of the Renaissance period As a Marxist she inspired many with her commitment to the idea that cultural activity was central to the continuing struggle against oppression These writers consider cultural theory in her honour The Secularization of the European Mind in the Nineteenth Century Owen Chadwick, 1990-09-13 Owen Chadwick's acclaimed lectures on the secularisation of the European mind trace the declining hold of the Church and its doctrines on European society in the nineteenth century The Family Flamboyant Marla Brettschneider, 2012-02-01 Bronze Medalist 2007 Independent Publishers Book Award in the Gay Lesbian Category The Family Flamboyant is a graceful and lucid account of the many routes to family formation Weaving together personal experience and political analysis in an examination of how race gender sexuality class and other hierarchies function in family politics Marla Brettschneider draws on her own experience in a Jewish multiracial adoptive queer family in order to theorize about the layered realities that characterize families in the United States today Brettschneider uses critical race politics feminist insight class based analysis and queer theory to offer a distinct and distinctly Jewish contribution to both the family debates and the larger project of justice politics Anthropological Studies of Religion Brian Morris, 1987-02-27 A lucid outline of explanations of religious phenomena offered by such great thinkers as Hegel Marx and Weber Marx: A Guide for the Perplexed John Seed, 2010-01-01 A concise and coherent overview of Marx ideal for undergraduates and covering the full range of his works and ideas The Future of Religion Michael R. Ott, 2007 This book contains the work of international scholars who address the contemporary globalizing antagonism between religion and secularity in the theoretical and practical pursuit for this antagonism's reconciliation in a more just humane and peaceful future society and world Face to Face, Volume Three Marty Folsom, 2016-08-31 Like falling in love this book argues that a relationship with God begins with surprise proceeds with discovery and shapes a life that comes to share a story of love This book does not describe God but pursues the nature of personally relating with the triune God Consequently it also engages how we relate with humans made in God's image We finish the Face to Face series with this most mysterious and fulfilling encounter a personal engagement with the Relational God known as a community of persons who invite us to share in their life The Great Cosmic Mother Monica Sjoo, Barbara Mor, 2013-12-10 This classic exploration of the Goddess through time and throughout the world draws on religious cultural and archaeological sources to recreate the Goddess religion that is humanity's heritage Now with a new introduction and full color artwork this passionate and important text shows even more clearly that the religion of the Goddess which is tied to the cycles of women's bodies the seasons the phases of the moon and the fertility of the earth was the original religion of all humanity Fantastic reality. Marxism and the politics of religion, The Fruit of Our Lips Eugen Rosenstock-Huessy, 2021-02-01 In the three essays included in this new edition of The Fruit of Our Lips Eugen Rosenstock

Huessy made his clearest and most concise presentation of his understanding of the Christian tradition and the creative power of the spoken word proclaimed at the beginning of Genesis and hence at the heart of the Jewish and the Christian faiths Two of the three essays have never appeared in English before All three root in and contribute to the author's ongoing dialogue with his friend Franz Rosenzweig and show the mutuality of the two men's thinking for all their differences Reading the material in the appendices in tandem with the three main essays provides a unique overview of the interpenetration of Rosenstock Huessy's work on faith and his work on speech The Classical Marxist Critiques of Religion: Marx, Engels, Lenin, Kautsky D.B. McKown, 1975-05-31 In view of the enormous number of works on Marxism in general and in light of the many books and articles touching on the relationship of Marxism to religion in particular it may fairly be asked why yet another such work should be produced My reply is that in eliciting answers to the kinds of questions posed by the methodology I have used it was necessary to go to the primary sources almost exclusively This is not to bemoan a sad fate but to affirm that there are notable deficiencies in the secondary sources relevant to my topic By way of general indictment I contend that the major difficulty with existing studies of the Marxist critique of religion is that their authors whether expositors or critics have failed both to specify their own presuppositions concerning religion and to approach the subject with an adequate comprehension of its many dimensions Since in most cases the reader is equally unprepared anthropologically sociologically psychologically and historically for clear and informed thought in this vast and nebulous area the result has been widespread confusion As if this were not enough numerous writers with little more than polemical interests have compounded the confusion by failing to distinguish between religion in general and their own brands of faith in particular Others have not discriminated between the concepts of metaphysics and the supernatural items of religious belief Many Mansions , 1992-01-31 The Harvard Divinity School professor recounts meetings with Hindu Buddhist Jewish and Marxist men and women and what they have taught him about the relationship between Christianity and other great religious traditions of the world The Fruit of Lips Eugen Rosenstock-Huessy, 1978-01-01 Rosenstock grew up in a Europe alive with the quest for the historical Jesus as exemplified in Albert Schweitzer's own life on the one hand and the demolition of the historical Jesus by Ernest Renan Both men represented the triumph of Gnosis the mind as the creator of real fact the triumph of re-creating history as it might have been and believing that it was that way The nineteenth century preoccupation with biography cut Jesus off from his past for biography ends with the death of the individual Christian tradition had always been concerned with thanatography The empty tomb and the events which followed seal antiquity for as the Word became flesh Jesus became the center in the history of Speech Thus we must make the fruit of biographical Christianity of the last century into a seed for our understanding of Speech Indeed the passionate message of Fruit of Lips exemplifying as it does Rosenstock's Speech Philosophy is permeated by the Logos Our author sees in human language divinely given and its grammatical categories a primordial fundament to all subsequent philosophical and scientific efforts to categorize reality The moods of grammar he correlates with the interlocking modes of the Four Gospels Together they embody the grammar of the cross the four cannot be separated from one another Liberation Theology and the Message of Salvation Eugen Rosenstock-Huessy,1978 Pittsburgh Theological Monograph Series General Editor Dikran Y Hadidian

British Marxist Criticism Victor N. Paananen,2021-12-12 British Marxist Criticism provides selective but extensive annotated bibliographies introductory essays and important pieces of work from each of eight British critics who sought to explain literary production according to the principles of Marxism Autonomy Is in Our Hearts Dylan Eldredge Fitzwater,2019-02-01 Following the Zapatista uprising on New Year s Day 1994 the EZLN communities of Chiapas began the slow process of creating a system of autonomous government that would bring their call for freedom justice and democracy from word to reality Autonomy Is in Our Hearts analyzes this long and arduous process on its own terms using the conceptual language of Tsotsil a Mayan language indigenous to the highland Zapatista communities of Chiapas The words Freedom Justice and Democracy emblazoned on the Zapatista flags are only approximations of the aspirations articulated in the six indigenous languages spoken by the Zapatista communities They are rough translations of concepts such as ichbail ta muk or mutual recognition and respect among equal persons or peoples a mtel or collective work done for the good of a community and lekil kuxlejal or the life that is good for everyone Autonomy Is in Our Hearts provides a fresh perspective on the Zapatistas and a deep engagement with the daily realities of Zapatista autonomous government Simultaneously an exposition of Tsotsil philosophy and a detailed account of Zapatista governance structures this book is an indispensable commentary on the Zapatista movement of today The Milk Train Doesn't Stop Here Anymore Tennessee Williams,1964-10 THE STORY NOTE The version of the play contained in this acting edition is one which was specifically revised by the author for release to the nonprofessional theatre As George Oppenheimer describes We first encounter Mrs Goforth in one of her

Universalist Watchman, and Christian Repository ,1845 Church Seasons and Present Times: sermons, etc George Collyer Harris,1867 Fantastic Reality Jack Conrad,2012-06-02 Religion as defined by Marxism is fantastic reality Fantastic not in the trite sense that the claims religion makes about existence are verifiably untrue unreal or baseless but in the sense that nature and society are reflected in exaggerated form as leaping shadows as symbols or inversions So religion should not be dismissed as mere false consciousness Religion reflects something of the real but as Jack Conrad s book shows there is even more to it than that Religious ideas are not only determined by reality they can themselves become materially effective The ideas people have in their heads especially when mediated through institutions such as churches mosques and temples no matter how wrapped up in the godly and seemingly unrelated to the corporeal world impact on their surroundings
