The Art of Confession Christopher Grobe, 2017-11-07 The story of a new style of art and a new way of life in postwar America confessionalism What do midcentury confessional poets have in common with today's reality TV stars They share an inexplicable urge to make their lives an open book and also a sense that this book can never be finished Christopher Grobe argues that in postwar America artists like these forged a new way of being in the world Identity became a kind of work always ongoing never complete to be performed on the public stage The Art of Confession tells the history of this cultural shift and of the movement it created in American art confessionalism Like realism or romanticism confessionalism began in one art form but soon pervaded them all poetry and comedy in the 1950s and 60s performance art in the 70s theater in the 80s television in the 90s and online video and social media in the 2000s Everywhere confessionalism went it stood against autobiography the art of the closed book Instead of just publishing these artists performed with around and against the text of their lives A blend of cultural history literary criticism and performance theory The Art of Confession explores iconic works of art and draws surprising connections among artists who may seem far apart but who were influenced directly by one another Studying extraordinary art alongside ordinary experiences of self betrayal and revelation Christopher Grobe argues that a tradition of confessional performance unites poets with comedians performance artists with social media users reality TV stars with actors and all of them with us There is art this book shows in our most artless acts Design Entrepreneur Steven Heller,Lita Talarico,2011-04-01 Designers are used to working for clients but there is nothing better than when the client is oneself Graphic and product designers who are skilled with the tools and masters aesthetics are now in the forefront of this growing entrepreneur movement Whether personal or collective drive is the common denominator of all entrepreneurial pursuit of course then comes the brilliant idea and finally the fervent wherewithal to make and market the result The Design Entrepreneur is the first book to survey this new field and showcase the innovators who are creating everything from books to furniture clothes to magazines plates to surfboards and more Through case studies with designers like Dave Eggers Maira Kalman Charles Spencer Anderson Seymour Chwast Jet Mous Nicholas Callaway Jordi Dur and over thirty more from the United States and Europe this book explores the whys hows and wherefores of the conception and production processes The design entrepreneur must take the leap away from the safety of the traditional designer role into the precarious territory where the public decides what works and what doesn t This is the book that shows how that is accomplished Metamodernism Robin van den Akker,Alison Gibbons,, Timotheus Vermeulen,2017-11-29 Metamodernism Historicity Affect Depth brings together many of the most influential voices in the scholarly and critical debate about post postmodernism and twenty first century aesthetics arts and culture By relating cutting edge analyses of contemporary literature the visual arts and film and television to recent social technological and economic developments the volume provides both a map and an itinerary of today s metamodern cultural landscape As its organising principle the book takes Fredric Jameson s canonical arguments about the waning of historicity affect and depth in the postmodern culture of western capitalist societies in the twentieth century and re evaluates and reconceptualises these notions in a twenty first century context In doing so it shows that the contemporary moment should be regarded as a transitional period from the postmodern and into the metamodern cultural moment
