Heather And The Thistle:

Of Heather and Thistle Erinn Maxwell, 2025-08 At its core Of Heather and Thistle is a story of homecoming healing and the courage to stop running Heather Campbell has spent her life in motion believing she can outrun grief and the weight of her past When she arrives in Scotland to settle her late mother's estate Glenoran feels like nothing more than an obligation a crumbling relic meant to be restored and sold But as she peels back the layers of the house she begins to strip back the layers of herself Glenoran is more than a place it's a reflection of Heather abandoned yet enduring its history whispering of love loss and something worth saving And then there's Flynn Duncan the steady patient contractor restoring the estate He doesn't chase her or try to fix her He simply waits And in doing so he becomes the counterweight to her restless heart showing her that staying is a choice she's allowed to make But Glenoran holds more than memories it holds secrets As Heather uncovers forgotten artifacts hidden letters and whispers of a lost Jacobite treasure she realizes history isn't just something that happened it's something we carry For anyone who has ever felt unmoored searched for belonging or been drawn to places they've never been this book is for you Because sometimes the greatest adventure isn't leaving It's choosing to stay
