Robinson Jeffers James Karman, 2015-08-05 A deeply informative biography situates the poet in his time and place tracing the effect of both contemporary history and wild nature on his work Edwin Cranston Harvard University The precipitous cliffs rolling headlands and rocky inlets of the California coast come alive in the poetry of John Robinson Jeffers an icon of the environmental movement In this concise and accessible biography Jeffers scholar James Karman reveals deep insights into this passionate and complex figure and establishes Jeffers as a leading American poet of prophetic vision In a move that would define his life s work Jeffers family relocated to California from Pennsylvania in 1903 when he was sixteen At the height of his popularity in the 1920s and 1930s Jeffers became one of the few poets ever featured on the cover of Time magazine and posthumously put on a U S postage stamp Writing by kerosene lamp in a granite tower that he had built himself his vivid and descriptive poetry of the coast evoked the difficulty and beauty of the wild and inspired photographers such as Edward Weston and Ansel Adams He was known for long narrative blank verse that shook up the national literary scene but in the 1940s his interest in the Greek classics led to several adaptations which were staged on Broadway to great success Inspiring later artists from Charles Bukowski to Czeslaw Milosz and even the Beach Boys Robinson Jeffers contribution to American letters is skillfully brought back out of the shadows of history in this compelling biography of a complex man of poetic genius who wrote so powerfully of the astonishing beauty of nature

Eugene O'Neill Remembered Brenda Murphy, George Monteiro, 2017 Eugene O'Neill Remembered is a collection of reminiscences by O'Neill s contemporaries friends and family that illuminate the life of one of America s most significant playwrights The Collected Letters of Robinson Jeffers, with Selected Letters of Una Jeffers James Karman, 2011-10-12 The 1930s marked a turning point for the world Scientific and technological revolutions economic and social upheavals and the outbreak of war changed the course of history The 1930s also marked a turning point for Robinson Jeffers both in his career as a poet and in his private life The letters collected in this second volume of annotated correspondence document Jeffers rising fame as a poet his controversial response to the turmoil of his time his struggles as a writer the growth and maturation of his twin sons and the network of friends and acquaintances that surrounded him The letters also provide an intimate portrait of Jeffers relationship to his wife Una including a full account of the 1938 crisis at Mabel Dodge Luhan s home in Taos New Mexico that nearly destroyed their marriage Robinson Jeffers and a Galaxy of Writers William B.

Thesing, 1995 The Mountain Men George Laycock, 2023-09-21 To know how the West was really won start with the exploits of these unsung mountain men who like the legendary Jeremiah Johnson were real buckskin survivalists Preceded only by Lewis and Clark beaver fur trappers roamed the river valleys and mountain ranges of the West living on fish and game fighting or trading with the Native Americans and forever heading toward the untamed wilderness In this story of rough heroic men and their worlds Laycock weaves historical facts and practical instruction with profiles of individual trappers including harrowing escapes feats of supreme courage and endurance and sometimes violent encounters with grizzly bears and Native Americans Book Prices: Used and Rare, 1994 Edward N. Zempel, 1994 Robinson Jeffers and the American Sublime Robert Zaller, 2012-01-25 Robinson Jeffers and the American Sublime is the most comprehensive and most substantial critical work ever devoted to the major American poet Robinson Jeffers 1887 1962 Jeffers the best known poet of California and the American West particularly valorized the Big Sur region making it his own as Frost did New England and Faulkner Mississippi and connecting it to the wider tradition of the American sublime in Emerson Thoreau and John Muir The book also links Jeffers to a Puritan sublime in early American verse and explores his response to the Darwinian and Freudian revolutions and his engagement with modern astronomy This discussion leads to a broad consideration of Jeffers focus on the figure of Christ as emblematic of the human aspiration toward God a God whom Jeffers defines not in Christian terms but in those of an older materialist pantheism and of modern science The later sections of the book develop a conspectus of the democratic sublime that addresses American exceptionalism through the prism of Jeffers Jeffersonian ethos A final chapter places Jeffers poetic thought in the larger cosmological perspective he sought in his late works A Literary History of the American West Western Literature Association (U.S.), 1987 Literary histories of course do not have a reason for being unless there exists the literature itself This volume perhaps more than others of its kind is an expression of appreciation for the talented and dedicated literary artists who ignored the odds avoided temptations to write for popularity or prestige and chose to write honestly about the American West believing that experiences long known to be of historical importance are also experiences that need and deserve a literature of importance Inventing the Language to Tell It George Hart, 2013-09-02 From 1920 until his death in 1962 consciousness and its effect on the natural world was Robinson Jeffers s obsession Understanding and explaining the biological basis of mind is one of the towering challenges of modern science to this day and Jeffers s poetic experiment is an important contribution to American literary history no other twentieth century poet attempted such a thorough engagement with a crucial scientific problem Jeffers invented a sacramental poetics that accommodates a modern scientific account of consciousness thereby integrating an essentially religious sensibility with science in order to discover the sacramentality of natural process and reveal a divine cosmos There is no other study of Jeffers or sacramental nature poetry like this one It proposes that Jeffers s sacramentalism emerged out of his scientifically informed understanding of material nature Drawing on ecocriticism religious studies and neuroscience Inventing the Language to Tell It shows how Jeffers produced the most compelling sacramental nature poetry of the twentieth century
