

How to effectively receive Constructive Feedback

Sometimes constructive feedback, particularly critical feedback can take us by surprise. When receiving feedback try the following:

1. Consider your first reaction try not to be defensive or brush it off and try be calm and listen.
2. Remember the benefits of getting feedback.
3. Listen actively.
4. Say thank you – thanking someone doesn't mean you're agreeing with what they're saying, but acknowledges the effort they took to share
5. Ask questions to help understand the feedback For Example, "How do you think this could be done differently in the future?"
