Deming, 1993-04 Dianne Deming has a special gift for communicating the Gospel to children in ways that are engaging charming and understandable while maintaining theological integrity These sermons based on the readings from the New Revised Common Lectionary Year C employ a variety of storytelling methods and involve simple props such as blocks candles cookies and glitter Indexed by topic for nonlectionary use A Time with Our Children Dianne E. Deming, 1992 With simple props glitter blocks candles and cookies Deming brings Scripture and theology into the world and understanding of children She speaks their language to them as equals not at them or down to them and God's love for children and her love for them shines through every word Growing Up with God Nancy Cocks, 2003 One way to help children grow up with God is through storytelling By telling children stories that speak of their concerns by listening to the stories that children long to tell and by exploring their questions parents and teachers can help them to grow up trusting God This book is a how to manual developing the latent storyteller in each person a workbook showing how to interact with children using stories and a treasury of stories with which to practice play and most importantly tell Young Children , 1992 Journal of Nursery Education , 1992 Nurturing Your Child's Spirit Jeannine L. Schmid, 1997-05 Children already enjoy a spiritual life Our challenge is to respect their original experiences of God while providing them with the images rituals and symbols through which they can express the otherwise hidden life of God's Spirit within them Nurturing Your Child's Spirit aims to help parents and teachers meet this exciting challenge Gospel, Culture, and Transformation Chris Sugden, 2011-05-13 Gospel Culture and Transformation explores the practice of mission especially in relation to transforming cultures and communities Mission as Transformation has become a mainstream definition of mission in orthodox Christian circles especially in the Two Thirds World and among those involved in ministry with the poor Vinay Samuel has played a leading role in developing this understanding of mission which he defines as follows Transformation is to enable God's vision of society to be actualized in all relationships social economic and spiritual so that God's will may be reflected in human society and his love be experienced by all communities especially the poor Christian faith is faith in the incarnation of God in a particular place in history so all theology should have to do with the particular This work studies mission in the work of the leading Indian Mission Theologian Canon Dr Vinay Samuel between 1984-1996 It is taken from the author's larger work Seeking the Asian Face of Jesus Wipf and Stock 2011 Lamin Sanneh D Willis Professor of Mission and World Christianity Yale University wrote of that book Dr Sugden brings a sharp theological focus to bear on issues of context identity and cultural particularity The literature on contextual theology and situational ethics now has a standard to rise to A companion volume Mission as Transformation is edited by Vinay Samuel and Chris Sugden Wipf and Stock 2009 American Book Publishing Record, 1992 Seeing Children, Seeing God Pamela D. Couture, 2000 In Seeing Children Seeing God Pamela Couture explores the actual and potential relation of the church and the theological school to economically and socially relationally poor children She argues that the solution to the problem of child poverty requires the shared responsibility of individuals families neighborhoods congregations governments businesses and international organizations because children develop within these multiple systems With their unique access to these multiple systems churches and theological schools are in a wonderful position to transform the social ecology within which children develop and to assist in children's flourishing Concretely what would it mean for the caring ministries of the church and those who teach and learn about them in seminary to make the issue of children and poverty central to what we do How would this change the way we live Pamela Couture argues from a Wesleyan perspective that caring for poor children is a means of grace a grace that deepens our experience as the adopted children of God She draws explicitly on recent writings that have updated the Wesleyan theological tradition Seeing Children Seeing God will be of particular interest to everyone who is concerned about children and poverty especially from a Wesleyan perspective Key Features Brief and accessible Offers a constructive theologically sound response to the problem of children and poverty Recognizes and shares responsibility for solutions across society but especially with the church and the seminary Key Benefits Readers will understand the dynamics and extent of the problem of children living in poverty today Readers will understand ways in which theology has undergirded efforts to deal with this problem in the past Readers will understand and identify with the specifically Christian imperative to respond to this problem Readers will understand how various groups can contributed to a concerted effort to deal with the problem Readers will understand how the church has failed to deal with this problem in the past     Seeking the Asian Face of Jesus Chris Sugden,1997     Index to Book Reviews in Religion ,1994
