Helene Cixous Rootprints Memory And Life Writings:

Hélène Cixous, Rootprints Hélène Cixous, Mireille Calle-Gruber, 1997 This first English translation of Cixous book Photos de Racine explores Cixous development as a writer and intellectual A must for students and scholars of French feminist theory gender studies and literary theory Helène Cixous, Rootprints Helène Cixous, 1997 Helene Cixous is undoubtedly one of the most brilliant and innovative contemporary thinkers Published here in English for the first time Helene Cixous Rootprints is an ideal introduction to Cixous's theory and her fiction tracing her development as a writer and intellectual whose remarkable prespicacity and electrifying poetic force are known world wide Unprecedented in its form and content this collection breaks new ground in the theory and practice of auto biography Cixous's creative reflections on the past provide occasion for scintillating forays into the future The text includes an extended interview between Cixous and Calle Gruber exploring Cixous's creative and intellectual processes a revealing collection of photographs taken from Cixous's family album set against a poetic reflection by the author selections from Cixous's private notebooks a contribution by Jacques Derrida original thing pieces by Calle Gruber Helène Cixous, Rootprints Helène Cixous, 1997 Helene Cixous is undoubtedly one of the most brilliant and innovative contemporary thinkers Published here in English for the first time Helene Cixous Rootprints is an ideal introduction to Cixous's theory and her fiction tracing her development as a writer and intellectual whose remarkable prespicacity and electrifying poetic force are known world wide Unprecedented in its form and content this collection breaks new ground in the theory and practice of auto biography Cixous's creative reflections on the past provide occasion for scintillating forays into the future The text includes an extended interview between Cixous and Calle Gruber exploring Cixous's creative and intellectual processes a revealing collection of photographs taken from Cixous's family album set against a poetic reflection by the author selections from Cixous's private notebooks a contribution by Jacques Derrida original thing pieces by Calle Gruber Helene Cixous Abigail Bray, Julian Wolfreys, 2003-12-11 Abigail Bray offers a lucid and accessible introduction to Helene Cixous and her theorisation of writing and sexual difference This book explores the context of feminist debates surrounding Cixous's work and provides a concise explanation of her major philosophical and literary concepts including the other bisexuality the third body and literature feminine Bray demonstrates through original and provocative readings of texts by James Joyce Virginia Woolf Clarice Lispector and Angela Carter the creative potential of Cixous's thought on literature and philosophy Reading Cixous alongside Nietzsche Heidegger Deleuze and Derrida Bray argues for a recognition of Cixous as one of the important thinkers of our times Language and Linguisticity in Gadamer's Hermeneutics Hans-Georg Gadamer, Lawrence Kennedy Schmidt, 2000-01-01 In this book internationally recognized scholars in philosophical hermeneutics discuss various aspects of language and linguisticity The translations of Hans Georg Gadamer's two recent essays provoke a preliminary discussion on the philosopher's polemic claim in Truth and Method Being that can be understood is language Topics addressed by the contributors include the relationship of rituals to tradition and the immemorial the unity of the word conversation translation and conceptuality and the interrelationship between the art of writing and linguisticity This work is of critical importance to anyone interested in Gadamer's claims regarding the boundaries of language the transition from the prelinguistic to linguistic realms and the role of rituals in this transition

The Autobiography Effect Dennis Schep, 2019-07-24 Since the advent of post structuralism various authors have problematized the modern conception of autobiography by questioning the status of authorship and interrogating the relation between language and reality Yet even after making autobiography into a theoretical problem many of these authors ended up writing about themselves This paradox stands at the center of this wide ranging study of the form and function of autobiography in the work of authors who have distanced themselves from its modern instantiation Discussing Roland Barthes Jacques Derrida Hélène Cixous and others this book grapples with the question of what it means to write the self when the self is understood as an effect of writing Combining close reading intellectual history and literary theory The Autobiography Effect traces how precisely its theoretically problematic nature made autobiography into a central scene for the negotiation of philosophical positions and anxieties after structuralism

A Poetics of Church Jennifer Reek, 2017-09-25 This innovative book aims to create a poetics of Church and a religious imaginary as alternatives to more institutional and conventional ways of thinking and of being Church Structured as a spiritual and literary journey the work moves from models of the institutional Catholic Church into more radical and ambiguous textual spaces which the author creates by bringing together an unorthodox group of thinkers referred to as poet companions the 16th century founder of the Society of Jesus Ignatius of Loyola the French thinkers Gaston Bachelard and Hélène Cixous the French poet Yves Bonnefoy and the English playwright Dennis Potter Inspired especially by the reading and writing practices of Cixous the author attempts to exemplify Cixous' notion of écriture féminine feminine writing that suggests new ways of seeing and relating The project's uniting of Ignatian spirituality with postmodern thinking and its concern with creating new theological literary and spiritual spaces for women both coincide and contrast with Pope Francis's pastoral and reformist tendencies which have neglected to adequately address the marginalisation of women in the Church As Francis has called for a theology of women of which there are of course many to draw from this volume will be a timely contribution with a unique interdisciplinary approach

Posthumorism Frances McDonald, 2022-01-27 Examining the multiple non humorous meanings of laughter this book explores a unique strain of laughter in modernism that is without humor without humans and without humanism Providing a bold new theory of modernism's affects Posthumorism chronicles the scattered emergence of a particular strain of humorless laughter in twentieth century literature film and philosophy From William James's trippy experiments with laughing gas to the wide open suicide shriek of Major Kong in Stanley Kubrick's Dr Strangelove modernity is strewn with examples of such laughter defined by its ability to crack up and destroy whilst opening new horizons of perception Examining the creative operation of posthumorist laughter this book explores how various stylists of the form from Nathanael West and Kurt Vonnegut to Georges Bataille and Hélène Cixous use it as a tool to unsettle reconfigure the individual human and shape different forms of humanist discourse Other Lives - Other Learning Helen

McCann,2007-05-01 An examination of the ways in which new university students such as women indigenous and non metropolitan forge a place for themselves within university culture and pedagogy This study has wide implications for ways of teaching structuring and valuing tertiary knowledges Feminist Thought Rosemarie Tong,Tina Fernandes

Botts,2018-05-04 A classic resource on feminist theory Feminist Thought offers a clear comprehensive and incisive introduction to the major traditions of feminist theory from liberal feminism radical feminism and Marxist and socialist feminism to care focused feminism psychoanalytic feminism and ecofeminism The fifth edition has been thoroughly revised and now includes a new chapter on Third Wave and Third Space Feminism Also added to this edition are significantly expanded discussions on women of color feminisms psychoanalytic and care feminisms as well as new examinations of queer theory LGBTQ and trans feminism Learning tools like end of chapter discussion questions and the bibliography make Feminist Thought an essential resource for students and thinkers who want to understand the theoretical origins and complexities of contemporary feminist debates The Politics of English as a World Language Christian Mair,2003 The complex politics of English as a world language provides the backdrop both for linguistic studies of varieties of English around the world and for postcolonial literary criticism The present volume offers contributions from linguists and literary scholars that explore this common ground in a spirit of open interdisciplinary dialogue Leading authorities assess the state of the art to suggest directions for further research with substantial case studies ranging over a wide variety of topics from the legitimacy of language norms of lingua franca communication to the recognition of newer post colonial varieties of English in the online OED Four regional sections treat the Caribbean including the diaspora Africa the Indian subcontinent and Australasia and the Pacific Rim Each section maintains a careful balance between linguistics and literature and external and indigenous perspectives on issues The book is the most balanced complete and up to date treatment of the topic to date

Part-Architecture Emma Cheadle,2017-07-20 Part Architecture presents a detailed and original study of Pierre Chareau s Maison de Verre through another seminal modernist artwork Marcel Duchamp s Large Glass Aligning the two works materially historically and conceptually the book challenges the accepted architectural descriptions of the Maison de Verre makes original spatial and social accounts of its inhabitation in 1930s Paris and presents new architectural readings of the Large Glass Through a rich analysis which incorporates creative projects into history and theory research the book establishes new ways of writing about architecture Designed for politically progressive gynaecologist Dr Jean Dalsace and his avant garde wife Annie Dalsace the Maison de Verre combines a family home with a gynaecology clinic into a free plan layout Screened only by glass walls the presence of the clinic in the home suggests an untold dialogue on 1930s sexuality The text explores the Maison de Verre through another radical glass construction the Large Glass where Duchamp s complex depiction of unconsummated sexual relations across the glass planes reveals his resistance to the marital conventions of 1920s Paris This and other analyses of the Large Glass are used as a framework to examine the Maison de Verre as a register of the changing history of women's domestic and maternal choices reclaiming the building as a piece of female social architectural history The process used to uncover and write the accounts in the book is termed part architecture Derived from psychoanalytic theory part architecture fuses analytical descriptive and creative processes to produce a unique social and architectural critique Identifying three essential materials to the Large Glass the book has three main chapters Glass Dust and Air Combining theory text creative writing and drawing each traces the history and meaning of the material and its contribution to the spaces and sexuality of the Large Glass and the Maison de Verre As a whole the book contributes important and unique spatial readings to existing scholarship and expands definitions of architectural design and history

"Something Dreadful and Grand" Stephen Watt, 2015-06-02 Elaborate analogies between Irish and Jewish history between Irish and Jewish subjectivities occur with surprising frequency throughout American literature They recall James Joyce's Leopold Bloom and episodes of Ulysses Douglas Hyde's analogies during the Celtic Revival between learning Hebrew and learning Irish and a myriad of claims of an unusual relationship between these peoples that goes beyond comparisons of their respective diasporic histories But how does one describe this uncanny relationship one often marked by hostility affinity and ambivalence without essentializing people whose origins class affiliation educations life experiences and so on are enormously different Something Dreadful and Grand American Literature and the Irish Jewish Unconscious describes a complex allo-Semitism and allo-Hibernianism through a variety of cultural texts with which immigrant Irish and Jewish Americans were most engaged popular music of the Tin Pan Alley era tenement literature from Anzia Yezierska and James T Farrell through the posthumous publication of Henry Roth's An American Type and proletarian and socialist inflected drama by Elmer Rice Clifford Odets Eugene O'Neill and Arthur Miller as they engaged the Irish drama of such writers as Bernard Shaw and Sean O'Casey In an effort to trace both the genealogy and more recent trajectory of immigrant drama and fiction chapters explore both the post-Famine melodramatic stage of the nineteenth century and a host of more contemporary texts from newer generations of immigrants Throughout the book argues for a circum-North Atlantic culture in which texts from Ireland Britain Irish America and Jewish America contribute substantially to both a modern American literature and to understandings of the terms Irish and Jewish How can we really know what these terms mean as they delimit or erase totally the differences inherent to them Borrowing a term from psychoanalytic and political theory Something Dreadful and Grand explores the larger dimensions of this Irish Jewish unconscious underlying cultural production in America arguing for the centrality of these two diasporic groups to the development of American popular music fiction and especially drama

Literature, theology and feminism Heather Walton, 2019-01-04 This book offers an authoritative overview of the broad and complex terrain of feminist theorising concerning the relationship between literature and theology as it has developed over the past several decades It provides the first comprehensive evaluation of the significance of women's literature in the development of feminist theology and offers a critique of the variety of reading practices currently employed by religious feminists As well as illuminating current reading strategies the work argues that it is now appropriate for feminists to develop new ways of reading the divine in women's writing Drawing upon the pioneering work of Helene Cixous Julia Kristeva and Luce Irigaray the work sets out a new framework for feminist religious reading that is both creative and challenging and which will be of interest both to scholars and students in this area Through its artful and compelling feminist reconsiderations the book makes a refreshing and significant contribution to the general field known as literature and theology

Embodied Writing in Management and Organisation Studies Ilaria Boncori, Deborah N. Brewis, Emmanouela Mandalaki, Noortje van Amsterdam, 2025-11-03 This book brings together explorations of embodied writing and contributions to the Writing Differently movement in management and organisation studies in terms of content style format and development The introduction to the special issue discusses editing differently and the political value and potential of embodied writing in surfacing hidden silenced and creative dimensions of research and experiences in management and organisation studies The chapters included in this edited volume tell a variety of stories across different contexts through poetry movement and dance embodied memory diaries ethnodrama and theatre as well as through queer listening tagging and relational reading practices underpinning the writing process The editors invite us to think of feel and know differently not only what we do think write research on organising and in organisations but also how we engage in ways that do justice to the very processes of researching and writing to the people we engage with and to the embodied experiences discussed This book will appeal to scholars and practitioners across management and organisation studies seeking alternative approaches to knowledge production through embodied methodologies It serves as an essential resource for those working at the intersection of critical management studies arts based research and feminist queer decolonial approaches as well as educators and journal editors interested in expanding the boundaries of academic expression
