Endurance In Suffering Hebrews 12 1 13 In Its Rhetorical Religious And Philosophical Context:

Endurance in Suffering N. Clayton Croy, Emory University. Graduate Division of Religion, 1995 Endurance in Suffering N. Clayton Croy, 2005-08-22 Hebrews 12 1 13 portrays the suffering of its readers with two images an athletic contest and God's fatherly discipline N Clayton Croy places this important passage in the context of Jewish and Greco Roman traditions He argues that the idea of training unites the passage which presents Jesus as the supreme athlete It also supports a nonpunitive understanding of discipline in which God's children undergo a positive process of education These ideas combine to support a call in Hebrews to faithful endurance rather than repentance Rhetoric, Ethic, and Moral Persuasion in Biblical Discourse Thomas H. Olbricht, Anders Eriksson, 2005-10-27 A collection of essays from the Heidelberg conference on rhetoric and the New Testament A Biblical Theology of Hebrews Douglas W. Kennard, 2018-11-27 Using a biblical theology method this book reflects the content of the epistle of Hebrews within its Jewish Christian context Within Jewish monotheism a Two Powers Christology is championed to float a simple missional Trinitarianism Jesus Christ is also presented as a superior prophet Davidic king and Melchizedek priest Christ initiates the new covenant with his very Jewish atonement in the Day of Atonement pattern ultimately perfecting believers conscience as an Edwardsian Religious Affection and providing everlasting forgiveness This provision initiates the believer on a new exodus toward the celestial city within a two way soteriological framework To make it to that heavenly goal the believer must continue in faith Those who are faithful already begin to experience rest in this life as a foretaste of the kingdom rest to come when Christ brings in eschatological salvation Purifying the Consciousness in Hebrews Joshua D. A. Bloor, 2023-02-23 Joshua D A Bloor argues that the purification of the consciousness of sin via Jesus perpetual heavenly blood offering is a vital motif for understanding Hebrews sacrificial argumentation and vice versa Jesus objective earthly achievements are many yet only his subjective heavenly blood offering purges the heavenly tabernacle and subsequently the consciousness of sin Bloor views the Levitical cult as having a positive role in Hebrews with Levitical guilt foreshadowing and informing Hebrews notion of the consciousness of sin Levitical sacrifices could purge the consciousness but only Jesus heavenly blood can offer complete perpetual purgation This blood is a qualitative type of purgation which continually speaks in heaven offering eternal assurance for the recipients regarding their consciousness of sin Bloor begins with the defiled consciousness and situates the world of Hebrews within cultic defilement enabling the consciousness of sin and its cosmic implications to be properly understood From here the solution to a defiled consciousness is explored by examining Hebrews cultic argumentation Bloor highlights the distinctive purposes inherent in both Jesus earthly and heavenly achievements with the latter concerned particularly with Yom Kippur imagery and the purgation of the consciousness Bloor concludes by differentiating between Jesus session present heavenly activity and perpetual heavenly blood offering Throughout this volume Bloor engages critiques and advances current discourse concerning the nature and timing of Jesus offering in Hebrews The Letter to the Hebrews: Critical

Readings Scott D. Mackie, 2018-04-05 The Letter to the Hebrews is a key text in the New Testament canon. It has recently received a great deal of attention, prompting a resurgence of scholarly works and a need to re-engage with some of the foundational works of scholarship on the text. The history of research on Hebrews is presented in this volume of critical readings, edited by Scott D. Mackie. The volume is organized thematically, addressing the following sub-areas: theology, Christology, and pneumatology; eschatology; authorship and audience; structure and Greco-Roman influences; the relationship with contemporaneous Judaism and soteriology. Each section is prefaced by an introduction and summary of the particular theme in Hebrews. At the end of each section is an annotated bibliography to point researchers towards further readings in and engagements with these key themes.

Hebrews David L. Allen, 2010-09-15 The New American Commentary series is an exceptionally acclaimed resource for ministers and Bible students who want to understand and expound the Scriptures. Notable features in this new Hebrews volume by scholar David Allen include: Commentary based on the New International Version (NIV) text printed in the body of the commentary; Sound scholarly methodology reflecting capable research in the original languages; Interpretation emphasizing the theological unity of each book and Scripture as a whole; Readable and applicable exposition.

Atonement and the Logic of Resurrection in Hebrews 9:27-28 William W. Henry, 2024-09-05 The general believer waiting for salvation by Jesus hopes to see him appear while living or promptly at death. Comfort during loss of life usually portrays those passing now in heaven. Conversely, the more religiously academic the less one thinks anyone ever goes to heaven. Trained scholars typically choose a closed heaven with temporal delays and spatial detours in limitation of God's promises about so great salvation. Better typically perceives as a resuscitated flesh on earth that lives by decay of the surrounding creation. Hearing word meaning by mapping creation with an old first-century option for plural heavens, this project reexamines the conversation recommended by the pastor in the letter to the Hebrews about promises regarding the twofold ministry of Christ. By analysis with current study tools, the conversation both challenges the common academy views and reintroduces a first-century hearing option for God's speech concerning prompt postmortem Christ fulfillment into heaven. Listening includes the milk of the beginning teaching requirements for atonement and logic of resurrection to God immediately after death and judgment. Hearing senses the solid food about priestly intercession by Jesus after death at judgment to shepherd his believers for salvation into heaven a very little while after individual death and judgment.

Paul's World Stanley E. Porter, 2008-01-31 This volume is concerned with Paul's world. The major question to ask is what is that world of Paul? In determinable ways, Paul's world is everything in the world in which Paul lived and acted and hence virtually everything that Paul did. In other words, Paul's world can be defined macrocosmically and microcosmically. As the term is defined in the various essays in this volume, Paul's world includes the surrounding environment in which Paul functioned, including its various religious, social, cultural, literary, rhetorical, linguistic, and related phenomena. This volume treats some of the most important and germane factors that went into making up the world in which Paul lived and that consequently defined who he was and became Dictionary of Scripture and Ethics Joel B. Green, Jacqueline Lapsley, Rebekah Miles, Allen Verhey, 2011-11 Leading scholars from the fields of biblical studies and ethics provide a one stop reference book on the vital relationship between Scripture and ethics The New Testament in Color Esau McCaulley, Janette H. Ok, Osvaldo Padilla, Amy L. B. Peeler, 2024-08-06 In this one volume commentary a multiethnic team of scholars holding orthodox Christian beliefs brings exegetical expertise coupled with a unique interpretive lens to illuminate the ways social location and biblical interpretation work together These diverse scholars offer a better vantage point for both the academy and the church Deuteronomy and Exhortation in Hebrews David M. Allen, 2008 David M Allen discusses Hebrews use of the narrative and text of Deuteronomy to shape its exhortations By engaging with the various references that Hebrews make to the Deuteronomistic text he argues that Hebrews becomes a new Deuteronomy and challenges its predecessor's contemporary hegemony BOOK JACKET The Blackwell Companion to The New Testament David E. Aune, 2010-01-22 The Blackwell Companion to the New Testament is a detailed introduction to the New Testament written by more than 40 scholars from a variety of Christian denominations Treats the 27 books and letters of the New Testament systematically beginning with a review of current issues and concluding with an annotated bibliography Considers the historical social and cultural contexts in which the New Testament was produced exploring relevant linguistic and textual issues An international contributor list of over 40 scholars represents wide field expertise and a variety of Christian denominations Distinctive features include a unified treatment of Luke through Acts articles on the canonical Gospels and a discussion of the apocryphal New Testament Faith and the Faithfulness of Jesus in Hebrews Matthew C. Easter, 2014-10-27 This volume explores faith in the Book of Hebrews and posits that it is manifested in four dimensions ethical eschatological Christological and ecclesiological Godly Fear or Ungodly Failure? Michael Kibbe, 2016-05-10 A cursory glance at Hebrews critique of Israel's fear at Sinai in Heb 12:18-29 suggests that the author has misunderstood or manipulated his sources In the Pentateuch the appointment of Moses as Israel's mediator receives explicit approval Exod 19:9 Deut 5:28 while Heb 12:25 labels their request for mediation a refusal to heed the word of God This book argues that Hebrews use of the Sinai narratives resides on a complex trajectory established by four points the Sinai covenant according to Exodus the reenactment of that covenant according to Deuteronomy the call for a NEW covenant according to Jeremiah and the present reality of that covenant established by God and mediated by Jesus Christ The basis for Hebrews critique arises from its insight that while Israel's request established covenant from a distance Jesus demonstrates that true covenant mediation brings two parties into a single space The purpose for Hebrews critique lies in its summons to Zion the mountain on which Jesus sits at the right hand of God as the high priestly mediator of the new covenant T&T Clark Handbook of Suffering and the Problem of Evil Matthias Grebe, Johannes Grössl, 2023-07-13 This wide ranging work provides an extensive exploration of the theology of theodicy asking questions such as should all instances of suffering necessarily be understood as evil Why would an omnipotent and benevolent God allow or perpetrate evil Is God unable or unwilling to reduce human and non human suffering on Earth Does humanity have the capacity to exercise a moral evaluation of God s motives and intentions Conventional disciplinary boundaries have tended to separate theological approaches to these questions from philosophical ones This volume aims to overcome these boundaries by including biblical Part I historical Part II doctrinal Part III philosophical Part IV and pastoral interreligious perspectives and alternative intersections Part V on theodicy Authors include thinkers from analytic and continental traditions multiple Christian denominations and other religions and both established and younger scholars providing a full variety of approaches What unites the essays is an attempt to answer these questions from the perspective of biblical testimony historical scholarship modern theological and philosophical thinking about the concept of God non Christian religions science and the arts The result is a combination of in depth analysis and breadth of scope making this a benchmark work for further studies in the theology of suffering and evil Cosmology and Eschatology in Hebrews Kenneth L. Schenck,2007-12-20 Scholars argue over where Hebrews fit in the first century world Kenneth L Schenck works towards resolving this question by approaching Hebrews cosmology and eschatology from a text orientated perspective After observing that the key passages in the background debate mostly relate to the settings of the story of salvation history evoked by Hebrews Schenck attempts to delineate those settings by asking how the rhetorical world of Hebrews engages that underlying narrative Hebrews largely argue from an eschatology of two ages which correspond to two covenants The fresh age has come despite the continuance of some old age elements The most characteristic elements of Hebrews settings however are its spatial settings where we find an underlying metaphysical dualism between the highest heaven which is the domain of spirit and the created realm including the created heavens This creation will be removed at the eschaton leaving only the unshakeable heaven Pursuit of Perfection Seth M. Simisi,2016-11-01 Pursuit of Perfection explores the significance of the perfection motif in the Epistle to the Hebrews It addresses the controversial interpretation of teleios perfection in Hebrews where this notion is so central to the argument of the book The investigation examines the meaning of perfection in an attempt to discover its significance on Hebrews theology The need for the study is the lack of adequate treatment of the subject in the last three decades The discussion focuses on the precise meaning to be attached to the notion of perfection and its significance for Hebrews interpretation Through an exploration of major interpretative approaches to the notion of perfection and its usages in classical world Second Temple Judaism and New Testament literature especially Hebrews The author argues that the notion of perfection has an eschatological significance and is linked to better provisions of the new covenant which guarantee believers salvation and eternal inheritance The author sums up his argument that the call to pursue the goal of perfection is a call for commitment to the gospel message as Christians of all ages follow the example of the Christ the one who endured suffering of the cross and its despised shame in order to bring many followers to their future eternal glory Pioneer and Priest R J McKelvey,2017-08-31 The interest that the Epistle to the Hebrews arouses today is testimony to its enduring message with its focus on what Jesus Christ did and continues to do for his people McKelvey provides new insight on Hebrews by demonstrating that two of its chief images pioneer and priest function not just independently but in tandem Christ is not pioneer without also being priest and his priesthood is only properly understood in terms of the pioneer figure This double analogy conveys the meaning of the Christian faith because only one who is both pioneer and priest can provide the church with the help it needs Pioneer and Priest will appeal to those who want to know more about Hebrews as well as those who believe that the emerging church must follow Christ outside the camp

So Great a Salvation Jon C. Laansma, George H. Guthrie, Cynthia Long Westfall, 2019-06-27 This volume presents a dialogue between historians exegetes and theologians on the background and key themes of the atonement in Hebrews Presenting a range of differing perspectives and contributing to the renewed conversation between biblical and theological scholarship the argument is structured in two parts contexts and themes within Hebrews Focusing on atonement not only in the Old Testament but also in the Greco Roman world and touching on themes such as sacrifice plight and solution and faith these contributions shed light on the concept of the atonement in a directly scriptural way The whole is a definitive collection of studies on the atonement in Hebrews that will be of service well beyond the confines of Hebrews specialists a collection as important for what it says about the atonement and the 21st century church as for what it says about Hebrews
