Enduring Art Of Jade Age China:

Enduring Art of Jade Age China Elizabeth Childs-Johnson, 2001 Each volume is beautifully illustrated with color plates showcasing Neolithic Shang and Zhou jades recently exhibited at New York's Throckmorton Fine Art The Oxford Handbook of Early China Elizabeth Childs-Johnson, 2020 A chronological and interdisciplinary study of early China from the Neolithic through Warring States periods ca 5000-500 BCE Metamorphic Imagery in Ancient Chinese Art and Religion Elizabeth Childs-Johnson, John S Major, 2023-05-30 Metamorphic Imagery in Ancient Chinese Art and Religion demonstrates that the concept of metamorphism was central to ancient Chinese religious belief and practices from at least the late Neolithic period through the Warring States Period of the Zhou dynasty Central to the authors argument is the ubiquitous motif in early Chinese figurative art the metamorphic power mask While the motif underwent stylistic variation over time its formal properties remained stable underscoring the image's ongoing religious centrality It symbolized the metamorphosis through the phenomenon of death of royal personages from living humans to deceased ancestors who required worship and sacrificial offerings Treated with deference and respect the royal ancestors lent support to their living descendants ratifying and upholding their rule neglected they became dangerous even malevolent Employing a multidisciplinary approach that integrates archaeologically recovered objects with literary evidence from oracle bone and bronze inscriptions to canonical texts all situated in the appropriate historical context the study presents detailed analyses of form and style and of change over time observing the importance of relationality and the dynamic between imagery materials and affects This book is a significant publication in the field of early China studies presenting an integrated conception of ancient art and religion that surpasses any other work now available Birth in Ancient China Constance A. Cook, Xinhui Luo, 2017-10-26 Reveals cultural paradigms and historical prejudices regarding the role of birthing and women in the reproduction of society Using newly discovered and excavated texts Constance A Cook and Xinhui Luo systematically explore material culture inscriptions transmitted texts and genealogies from BCE China to reconstruct the role of women in social reproduction in the ancient Chinese world Applying paleographical linguistic and historical analyses Cook and Luo discuss fertility rituals birthing experiences divine conceptions divine births and the overall influence of gendered supernatural agencies on the experience and outcome of birth They unpack a cultural paradigm in which birth is not only a philosophical symbol of eternal return and renewal but also an abiding religious and social focus for lineage continuity They also suggest that some of the mythical founder heroes traditionally assumed to be male may in fact have had female identities Students of ancient history particularly Chinese history will find this book an essential complement to traditional historical narratives while the exploration of ancient religious texts many unknown in the West provides a unique perspective into the study of the formation of mythology and the role of birthing in early religion The Shaman and the Heresiarch Gopal Sukhu, 2012-09-01 The first book length study in English of the Chinese classic the Li sao Encountering Sorrow Includes translations of the Li sao and the Nine Songs The Li sao also known as Encountering Sorrow attributed to the poet statesman Qu Yuan 4th3rd century BCE is one of the cornerstones of the Chinese poetic tradition It has long been studied as Chinas first extended allegory in poetic form yet most scholars agree that there is very little in the two thousand year old tradition of commentary on it that convincingly explains its supernatural flights its complex floral imagery or the gender ambiguity of its primary poetic persona The Shaman and the Heresiarch is the first book length study of the Li sao in English offering new translations of both the Li sao and the Nine Songs The book traces the shortcomings of the earliest extant commentary on those texts that of Wang Yi back to the quasi divinatory methods of the highly politicized tradition of Chinese classical hermeneutics in general and the political machinations of a Han dynasty empress dowager in particular It also offers an entirely new interpretation of the Li sao one based not on Qu Yuan hagiography but on what late Warring States period artifacts and texts including recently unearthed texts teach us about the cultural context that produced the poem In that light we see in the Li sao not only a reflection of the era of the great classical Chinese philosophers but also the breakdown of the political religious order of the ancient state of Chu

The Art and Archaeology of Bodily Adornment Sheri Lullo,Leslie Wallace,2019-07-03 The Art and Archaeology of Bodily Adornment examines the significance of adornment to the shaping of identity in mortuary contexts within Central and East Asia and brings these perspectives into dialogue with current scholarship in other worldwide regions Adornment and dress are well established fields of study for the ancient world particularly with regard to Europe and the Americas Often left out of this growing discourse are contributions from scholars of Central and East Asia The mortuary contexts of focus in this volume represent unique sites and events where identity was visualized and often manipulated and negotiated through material objects and their placement on and about the deceased body The authors examine ornaments jewelry clothing and hairstyles to address questions of identity construction regarding dimensions such as gender and social and political status and transcultural exchange from burials of prehistoric and early historical archaeological sites in Central Asia China Korea and Japan In both breadth and depth this book will be of interest to students and scholars interested in the archaeology art and history of Central and East Asia as well as anyone interested in the general study of dress and adornment Contact and Exchange in the Ancient World Victor H. Mair, 2006-05-31 Do civilizations independently invent themselves or are they the result of cultural diffusion The contributors to this volume do not attempt to provide a definitive answer to this contentious question one of the most debated issues of the past century Instead they shift the focus from theory to reality by presenting empirical evidence on a wide range of cultural phenomena in history and prehistory thereby demonstrating the processes whereby cultural traits are acquired and modified the dynamics of transmission and transformation The range of topics covered in this volume is of extraordinary breadth the distribution of belt hooks and belts from the steppes to North and Central China textile exchange in the third millennium B C the spread of bronze metallurgy across Asia the adaptation of complicated technologies by distant peoples the mechanisms whereby bronze implements were used to convey political messages in East Asia the ethnogenesis of the Turks the complex interrelationships among migratory and settled peoples in western Central Asia during the Bronze Age the origins of the enigmatic Chinese goddess known as Queen Mother of the West an account of hunting with trained cheetahs and the use of abundant botanical and zoological evidence to affirm that the Old World and the New World must have been in contact long before the fifteenth century Rounding out the volume is a survey of the problem of modernocentrism The ^AAncient Highlands of Southwest China Alice Yao, 2016-01-04 The Ancient Highlands of Southwest China offers a vivid account of the history of warrior polities occupying the southwestern frontiers of early China Placing the archaeology of the Dian and its Bronze Age neighbors in dialogue with anthropological theory Alice Yao shows how local histories of kingship come to challenge and resist imperial governance as well as the production of historiography The Zoomorphic Imagination in Chinese Art and Culture Jerome Silbergeld, Eugene Y. Wang, 2016-10-31 China has an age old zoomorphic tradition The First Emperor was famously said to have had the heart of a tiger and a wolf The names of foreign tribes were traditionally written with characters that included animal radicals In modern times the communist government frequently referred to Nationalists as running dogs and President Xi Jinping vowing to quell corruption at all levels pledged to capture both the tigers and the flies Splendidly illustrated with works ranging from Bronze Age vessels to twentieth century conceptual pieces this volume is a wide ranging look at zoomorphic and anthropomorphic imagery in

Chinese art The contributors leading scholars in Chinese art history and related fields consider depictions of animals not as simple one for one symbolic equivalents they pursue in depth in complexity and in multiple dimensions the ways that Chinese have used animals from earliest times to the present day to represent and rhetorically stage complex ideas about the world around them examining what this means about China past and present In each chapter a specific example or theme based on real or mythic creatures is derived from religious political or other sources providing the detailed and learned examination needed to understand the means by which such imagery was embedded in Chinese cultural life Bronze Age taotie motifs calendrical animals zoomorphic modes in Tantric Buddhist art Song dragons and their painters animal rebuses Heaven sent auspicious horses and foreign sent tribute giraffes the fantastic specimens depicted in the Qing Manual of Sea Oddities the weirdly indeterminate creatures found in the contemporary art of Huang Yong Ping these and other notable examples reveal Chinese attitudes over time toward the animal realm explore Chinese psychology and patterns of imagination and explain some of the critical means and motives of Chinese visual culture The Zoomorphic Imagination in Chinese Art and Culture will find a ready audience among East Asian art and visual culture specialists and those with an interest in literary or visual rhetoric Contributors Sarah Allan Qianshen Bai Susan Bush Daniel Greenberg Carmelita Carma Hinton Judy Chungwa Ho Kristina Kleutghen Kathlyn Liscomb Jennifer Purtle Jerome Silbergeld Henrik S rensen and Eugene Y Wang

Death in Ancient China Constance Cook, 2017-06-20 This richly illustrated book provides a glimpse into the belief system and the material wealth of the social elite in pre Imperial China through a close analysis of tomb contents and excavated bamboo texts The point of departure is the textual and material evidence found in one tomb of an elite man buried in 316 BCE near a once wealthy middle Yangzi River valley metropolis Particular emphasis is placed on the role of cosmological symbolism and the nature of the spirit world The author shows how illness and death were perceived as steps in a spiritual journey from one realm into another Transmitted textual records are compared with excavated texts The layout and contents of this multi chambered tomb are analyzed as are the contents of two texts a record of divination and sacrifices performed during the last three years of the occupant s life and a tomb inventory record of mortuary gifts The texts are fully translated and annotated in the appendices A first time close up view of a set of local beliefs which not only reflect the larger ancient Chinese religious system but also underlay the rich intellectual and artistic life of pre Imperial China With first full translations of texts previously unknown to all except a small handful of sinologists

The Songs of Chu Yuan Qu, 2017-07-18 Sources show Qu Yuan 340 278 BCE was the first person in China to become famous for his poetry so famous in fact that the Chinese celebrate his life with a national holiday called Poet s Day or the Dragon Boat Festival His work which forms the core of the The Songs of Chu the second oldest anthology of Chinese poetry derives its imagery from shamanistic ritual Its shaman hymns are among the most beautiful and mysterious liturgical works in the world The religious milieu responsible for their imagery supplies the backdrop for his most famous work Li sao which translates shamanic longing for a spirit lover into the yearning for an ideal king that is central to the ancient philosophies of China Qu Yuan was as important to the development of Chinese literature as Homer was to the development of Western literature This translation attempts to replicate what the work might have meant to those for whom it was originally intended rather than settle for what it was made to mean by those who inherited it It accounts for the new view of the state of Chu that recent discoveries have inspired Chinese Medicine and Healing TJ Hinrichs, Linda L. Barnes, 2013-01-07 In covering the subject of Chinese medicine this book addresses topics such as oracle bones the treatment of women fertility and childbirth nutrition acupuncture and Qi as well as examining Chinese medicine as practiced globally in places such as Africa Australia Vietnam Korea and the United States Scientific Investigation of Copies, Fakes and Forgeries Paul T. Craddock, 2009 Scientific Investigation of Copies Fakes and Forgeries is a comprehensive guide to the technical and scientific study of the authenticity of a wide range of antiquities and artworks It is the first book to provide a full survey of the subject of forgery from a scientific basis examining a wide range of materials and techniques The demand for copies fakes and forgeries is driven by rising prices in an international marketplace The book examines the available new technologies and ever more sophisticated forging techniques looking at production and distribution of fraudulent artworks The subject is exemplified by numerous internationally based case studies some turning out not to be as conclusive as is sometimes believed The book is aimed at those who need to understand the available approaches to and methods of scientific and technical authentication be they curator collector conservator or scientist Book Jacket Art Now Gallery Guide , 2002-03 Ancient Artistry Ellen B.
