memoir spurs readers to reflect on their own experience and release anxieties familiar to all who find themselves on this road. It is an unapologetic look at the struggles: conflicting family expectations, exhausting frustrations, self-doubt, and the internal tug of war that shapes every caregiver's reality. Kyle's story offers a release valve to caregivers, particularly caregivers of color. It acknowledges the overwhelming hardships while encouraging often underappreciated family warriors to occasionally put themselves first so their healing can begin.

The Shadow's Heart K. J. Taylor, 2014-12-30 THE CONCLUSION TO K J TAYLOR'S COMPELLING AND EXCITING SFFANZ RISEN SUN TRILOGY Half-breed Queen Laela Taranis II is in more danger than ever before. Her subjects hate her, her closest allies including her griffin have fallen, and most worryingly, the Night God's immortal assassin, The Shadow That Walks, is bent upon reaping vengeance. As her enemies close in on all sides, her methods of maintaining power increase in desperation and violence. Laela's half-brother Kullervo is supposed to be her strongest ally. But as he comes to terms with both who he is and what his sister's reign means to the land, he begins to doubt his once strong loyalties. With the conflict drawing to its bloody close, he must decide what he's truly prepared to fight for, a choice that could have dire consequences for all he once held dear. Meanwhile, a new threat is lurking in the darkness: the Night God's final deadly pawn. It is this shadow that will decide the outcome of the war, and its power that will seal the fates of all involved.

Shadow of the Father Kyell Gold, 2010-01-22 When a stranger arrives with a message that the Lord of Dewanne has died and appointed Volle's son Yilon his heir, the young fox realizes that there are worse places than Divalia. Dewanne is one of the most remote cities in Tephos, in a mountainous province where foxes rule and mice are relegated to menial jobs and a slum outside the main city. Which makes it more difficult for Yilon to explain why his companion Sinch is a mouse. Ever the schemer, Yilon hatches a plan to get sent home to Vinton. His plan quickly goes awry as he finds that even in a backwards town, there are complicated politics, family betrayals, and ancient blood feuds. Old wounds that his clumsy acts have reopened. With two different groups trying to kill him and even the foxes on his side alienated by his attitude, he has nowhere to turn but Sinch. But Sinch has run afoul of a band of thieves in the mouse slums and now has his own death threats to deal with, not to mention the hatred of a city of foxes. Yilon will need all the stubbornness and cleverness he's inherited from his father just to survive to the next sunrise, let alone save his inheritance, his friend, and his new city. Back cover

The Elven Romance Vivienne van Zwaluwenhof, The morning mist clung to the ancient oaks like whispered secrets, each droplet catching the first rays of dawn and transforming them into tiny prisms of light. Lyrlei had walked this path countless times since childhood, but today something felt different. The very air seemed to hum with an energy she couldn't quite place, as if the forest itself was holding its breath in anticipation. She paused beside the Crystal Brook, where the water sang its eternal song over smooth river stones. Her reflection gazed back at her from the clear surface, silver hair cascading over her shoulders like moonlight made tangible. The pointed tips of her ears, so characteristic of her people, caught the dappled sunlight filtering through the canopy above. At one hundred and twenty-three years old, she was still considered young by elven standards though she often felt as ancient as the trees that surrounded her homeland of Ethereal Glen A sudden rustling in the undergrowth made her turn From between the towering ferns emerged a figure she had never seen before yet one that seemed strangely familiar He was tall even by elven standards with hair the color of burnished copper that fell in gentle waves to his shoulders His eyes a deep forest green met hers across the babbling brook and Lyrarei felt something shift within her chest as if her heart had forgotten its rhythm for just a moment Forgive me he said his voice carrying the musical quality common to their kind yet with undertones she had never heard before I did not mean to startle you I am lost There was something in the way he spoke the last word that suggested he meant more than simply having misplaced his way through the forest Lyrarei found herself stepping closer to the water s edge drawn by an invisible thread she could neither see nor understand
