

The book cover features a dramatic, painterly illustration. In the foreground, a gnarled, leafless tree stands on a rocky outcrop. Behind it, a two-story house with a red roof and glowing windows sits on a hill. In the background, a body of water is visible under a sky with swirling, fiery clouds in shades of orange, red, and purple. A small bridge or pier extends into the water on the right. The overall mood is somber and evocative.

Reflections on Hanging Arthur Koestler, 2019-03-15 Reflections on Hanging is a searing indictment of capital punishment inspired by its author's own time in the shadow of a firing squad During the Spanish Civil War Arthur Koestler was held by the Franco regime as a political prisoner and condemned to death He was freed but only after months of witnessing the fates of less fortunate inmates That experience informs every page of the book which was first published in England in 1956 and followed in 1957 by this American edition As Koestler ranges across the history of capital punishment in Britain with a focus on hanging he looks at notable cases and rulings and portrays politicians judges lawyers scholars clergymen doctors police jailers prisoners and others involved in the long debate over the justness and effectiveness of the death penalty In Britain Reflections on Hanging was part of a concerted ultimately successful effort to abolish the death penalty At that time in the forty eight United States capital punishment was sanctioned in forty two of them with hanging still practiced in five This edition includes a preface and afterword written especially for the 1957 American edition The preface makes the book relevant to readers in the U S the afterword overviews the modern day history of abolitionist legislation in the British Parliament Reflections on Hanging is relentless biting and unsparing in its details of botched and unjust executions It is a classic work of advocacy for some of society's most defenseless members a critique of capital punishment that is still widely cited and an enduring work that presaged such contemporary problems as the sensationalism of crime the wrongful condemnation of the innocent and mentally ill the callousness of penal systems and the use of fear to
