The Good Health Book for African Americans Barbara M. Dixon, Josleen Wilson, 1994

African American Psychology Faye Z Belgrave, Kevin W Allison, 2009-07-15 This core textbook provides students with comprehensive coverage of African American psychology as a field Each chapter integrates African and American influences on the psychology of African Americans thereby illustrating how contemporary values beliefs and behaviors are derived from African culture translated by the cultural socialization experiences of African Americans in this country The literature and research are referenced and discussed from the perspective of African culture mostly West African during the period of enslavement at other critical periods in this country e.g. early 20th century civil rights era and through the present Chapters provide a review of the research literature with a focus on applications for contemporary living

African Americans' Health Care Practices, Perspectives, and Needs Randolph Quaye, 2005-04-07 Healthcare of the highest quality is what one should expect to receive in the United States Inequalities in the distribution and utilization of American health services will result in disastrous consequences for the nation as a whole African Americans Health Care Practices Perspectives and Needs examines the impact of healthcare discrimination upon the African American community Healthcare specialists and providers as well as ethnic studies scholars will benefit from this telling book

African American Foodways Anne Bower, 2009 Moving beyond catfish and collard greens to the soul of African American cooking

African American Psychology Faye Z. Belgrave, Kevin Wendell Allison, Camilla W. Nonterah, 2025-09-02 African American Psychology From Africa to America provides a comprehensive and integrated introduction to the field The Fifth Edition presents recent advances and developments in African American psychology including new coverage of systematic and institutional racism Black empowerment COVID 19's impact on Black communities and increased attention to heterogeneity within the Black community

African-American Healthy Richard W. Walker, Jr., 2012-06-12 Winner of the IBPA Benjamin Franklin Award for Best Health Title It's no secret that African Americans top the list of groups afflicted by hypertension stroke diabetes heart disease renal failure and cancer What the statistics do not show is the pain misery and despair that these conditions create not only for the individual but also for family and friends As an African American doctor Dr Richard Walker has studied these conditions among his patients for many years Now for the first time Dr Walker believes that research has found a commonsense way to prevent reduce and possibly eliminate these killers turning the tide of African American health Dr Walker begins by looking at the black community s lifestyle which has radically changed over the centuries shifting people from hours spent under a blazing sun to a life of minimum sunlight exposure From there it is clear that the missing puzzle piece of African American health is a chronic lack of Vitamin D3 Most important Dr Walker explains how this crucial factor can be added to a daily routine along with components such as nutritional supplements diet and exercise He then focuses on each major illness affecting the black community and explores what it is what its symptoms are and how the reader can avoid or treat the problem A concise yet critical guide African American Healthy offers an important first step towards achieving a healthier longer life for millions of people

Perceptions of African American Women About Their Dietary Habits Christine Dial-Benton,2012-08-29 Recent years have seen a tremendous growth in scientific knowledge of the relationship between diet and health This increase in knowledge has informed dietary recommendations to promote health It has also started a campaign to educate Americans on more healthful eating habits Guthrie Derby and Levy 1994 American consumers show a high level of awareness of the relationship between their diets and serious diseases such as heart disease and cancer Derby and Fein 1995 Public health campaigns along with growing media attention to diet and health topics have raised awareness among less educated as well as the more educated consumers Ippolito and Mathios 1996 This study will provide an up to date picture of the degree to which three groups of African American women are meeting dietary recommendations The women in the study will be grouped according to age income and education They will complete a survey concerning their dietary habits This study was designed in hopes that it would contribute to the evolving literature concerning the factors that promote general poor health among African American women

The African American Experience in Cyberspace Abdul Alkalimat,2003-12-20 The World Wide Web is the greatest source of information used by students and teachers media and library professionals as well as the general public There is so great a flow of information that it is necessary to have a tool for guiding one to the best and most reliable sources This important new guide to the African American experience in cyberspace fills this need for people in all areas of Black Studies and Multiculturalism There is no search engine list that can match the quality of sites to be found in this book Alkalimat provides an easy to use directory to the very best websites that deal with the African American Experience The first section covers every aspect of African American history while a second section deals with a diverse set of topics covering society and culture Each chapter has a brief essay extensively annotation on the five best sites for each topic and then a group of good sites and a short bibliography This book is designed for a course at the high school or college level This book should be kept near every home computer that people use to surf the web for Black content Most people have found out that the major corporations and governments have been the dominant uploaders of information into cyberspace This volume is different because it is a serious introduction to the full democratic use of the web These websites will introduce people to the people who are serious about ending the digital divide because they are busy uploading information about the most excluded and marginalized people the African American community Many of these sites are being established by Black Studies academic programmes as well as community based organizations and institutions

Food Choice and Obesity in Black America Eric J. Bailey, 2006-05-30 Anthropologist Eric Bailey uses a cultural and holistic analysis of African American food preferences to show how black Americans generally perceive health body image food dieting physical fitness and exercise As is true of Americans overall black Americans are becoming more overweight and obese than ever before So too they are seeing the consequences heart attacks strokes hypertension and Type II diabetes at earlier and earlier ages Bailey offers a new cultural diet for black Americans and a prescription for working collectively not only to understand this critical health issue but also to establish a lifestyle strategy that will be both effective and manageable

Encyclopedia of Race and Crime Helen Taylor Greene, Shaun L. Gabbidon, 2009-04-14 The organization of the reader's guide especially the groupings of landmark cases race riots and criminology theories is impressive Other related titles lack the breadth detail and accessibility of this work Recommended for all libraries essential for comprehensive social studies collections Library Journal As seen almost daily on local and national news race historically and presently figures prominently in crime and justice reporting within the United States in the areas of hate crimes racial profiling sentencing disparities wrongful convictions felon disenfranchisement political prisoners juveniles and the death penalty and culturally specific delinquency prevention programs The Encyclopedia of Race and Crime covers issues in both historical and contemporary context with information on race and ethnicity and their impact on crime and the administration of justice These two volumes offer a greater appreciation for the similar historical experiences of varied racial and ethnic groups and illustrate how race and ethnicity has mattered and continues to matter in the administration of American criminal justice

Key Features Covers a number of broad thematic areas basic concepts and theories of criminal justice the police courts and corrections juvenile justice public policy the media organizations specific groups and populations and specific cases and biographies Addresses such topics as gender hate bias crimes immigrant experiences international and cross cultural issues race and gangs and race and law Presents experiences of all major racial and ethnic groups in the U S including Asians Blacks Latinos Native Americans and Ethnic Whites as well as religious minorities such as Muslims Includes coverage of recent incidents like the alleged rape of a black female North Carolina Central University student by white male members of the Duke University Lacrosse Team the Jena 6 incident the Tulia Texas drug arrests the Rodney King beating the O J Simpson trials in the 1990s and more recent racial profiling incidents Two appendices provide information on locating and interpreting statistical data on race and crime as well as detailed instructions on how to access statistical data on the web for such specific areas as arrests drugs gang membership hate crimes homicide trends juvenile justice prison
