The Scars of An African Girl Esther Ebireri, 2024-08-20 Muriel is watching her favourite TV programme when Izobo walks through the living room into the bedroom she shares with her sisters This is not the first time Muriel is seeing this woman in their house Though only ten at the time Muriel still remembers the horror that filled her heart as the cries of Sandra her eldest sister filled the entire house after Izobo arrived in the house On asking why Sandra was crying her mother had told her that Sandra was being turned into a complete woman Muriel didn't understand When she tried to ask Mother had dismissed her in one of her usual ways But Muriel is determined to find out this time So she peeps through the keyhole into the room where Christabel is locked in with the priestess She watches with horror as blood splashes on the mat on which Christabel lays as the priestess bends over her As Christabel lay on the mat groaning in pains Muriel remembers again the sound of cries and screams that came out of that room the first time Izobo visited their house Then it struck her sooner or later it would be her turn But Muriel was nothing like her sisters she was strong willed resilient and obstinate and would not let anyone lock her up in a room with a woman who brings nothing but pain and agony into their home Minutes of the Providence Annual Conference ,1850 Atlanta ,2008-05 Atlanta magazine's editorial mission is to engage our community through provocative writing authoritative reporting and superlative design that illuminate the people the issues the trends and the events that define our city The magazine informs challenges and entertains our readers each month while helping them make intelligent choices not only about what they do and where they go but what they think about matters of importance to the community and the region Atlanta magazine's editorial mission is to engage our community through provocative writing authoritative reporting and superlative design that illuminate the people the issues the trends and the events that define our city The magazine informs challenges and entertains our readers each month while helping them make intelligent choices not only about what they do and where they go but what they think about matters of importance to the community and the region
