~These Gospel According to Matthew, 1964 The Gospel According to Matthew Royal National Institute for the Blind, 1938 How to Read the Gospels Yung Suk Kim, 2024-05-29 This accessible introduction to the Gospels examines the distinctive messages offered by the texts giving students a better understanding of methods and interpretations It explores a close reading of each Gospel and encourages students to approach texts from their own perspectives from postcolonialism to environmentalism The discussion questions included will help students focus their reflections on the gospel narrative its theology and methods of reading it How to Read the Gospels is an ideal textbook for undergraduate and seminary classrooms The book aims to reach seminary and graduate students who study the Gospels critically and comprehensively It provides user friendly summaries such as the basics of each Gospel authorship history important parables etc the Jesus of each Gospel and notable interpretation and translation issues Without reading the entire story readers often focus on only specific passages This book aims to foster close reading of each entire text sensitizing students to historical and literary issues that commonly arise and helping them better understand various ways to interpret these formative stories What makes this book unique is that it also engages various readings of the Gospels from traditional to deconstruction approaches including womanist interpretation disability interpretation ecological interpretation and many more For example how can readers understand the story of Jesus surprising conversation with the Samaritan woman in John 4 through the lens of feminism Or postcolonial criticism By providing alternative ways to think about these stories and various methods of approaching texts that may be new to the student the book opens up how such passages can be interpreted and appreciated

Making Peace with Faith Michelle Garred, Mohammed Abu-Nimer, 2018-01-15 Although religion is almost never a root cause it often gets pulled into conflict as a powerful element especially where conflicting parties have different religious identities Every faith tradition offers resources for peace and secular policy makers are more and more acknowledging the influence of faith based actors even though there remains a tendency to associate religion more with conflict than peace In this text practitioners from different faiths relate and explore the many challenges they face in their peacebuilding work which their secular partners may be unaware of The contributors are all practitioners whose faith or religious experience motivates their work for peace and justice in such a way that it influences their actions Their roles are diverse as some work for faith based institutions while others engage in secular contexts The multiple perspectives featured represent multiple faiths Muslim Christian Hindu Buddhist Jewish diverse scopes of practice different geographic regions Each chapter follows a similar template to address specific challenges such as dealing with extremist views addressing negative stereotypes about one's faith endorsing violence developing relations with other faith based or secular groups confronting gender based violence and working with people who hold different beliefs In this text practitioners from different faiths relate and explore the many challenges they face in their peacebuilding work which their secular partners may be unaware of They provide a comprehensive view of the practice of peacebuilding in its many challenging aspects for both professionals and those studying religion and peacebuilding alike

Defining the New Testament Logia on Divorce and Remarriage in a Pluralistic Context Yordan Kalev Zhekov, 2009-01-01 Christian marriage is a permanent union which requires the commitment of both spouses for its maintenance through fulfillment of its stipulations The failure of the fulfillment of the latter provides legitimate grounds for divorce and remarriage of the innocent party This work employs a fourfold approach for the development of NT ethical argumentation based on Richard B Hays Moral Vision of the New Testament The author establishes the proper contextual grounds for the NT study through formulation of the Old Testament perspective on marriage as covenant The relevant NT passages are examined through historical critical and narrative critical methods A critical study of the main Christian traditions leads to an ecumenical formulation of the theological conclusions Pragmatic implementation of the thesis follows an examination of the contemporary pluralistic context and applications in both Christian communities and the larger society within its legislative system

Out of Galilee M. Darrol Bryant, 2018-04-20 Out of Galilee The History of Christian Thought as a Great Conversation is an ambitious exploration of Christian thought over two millennia It discloses the remarkable unity in diversity of the thought of women monks mystics men philosophers and theologians who are seeking to unfold the meaning and mystery of divine intention in Jesus Christ From the first century in Galilee to the early apologists such as Irenaeus from Augustine's Confessions to the mystic voices of Hildegard of Bingen and Teresa of Avila and to reformers such as Martin Luther and John Calvin Christians have sought to understand the Christian vision and unfold paths of spirituality The quest continues among Pietists among Puritans such as Jonathan Edwards and among Methodists Together with modern thinkers such as Schliermacher and contemporaries such as Thomas Berry and Abhishiktanada these notable figures have woven the living narrative of Christian thought You will find them all here in accessible language intended for a generalist audience Avoiding technical language Out of Galilee reveals the essential contributions of each to the story of Christian thinking through the ages

John: Loving Jesus and Keeping His Word Paul Y. Lee, 2020-09-30 The passion of Paul Lee for Jesus drove him to write John Loving Jesus and Keeping His Word Here is one of the most profound reflections on the Gospel of John in our time Thoroughly researched and written in Lee's distinct voice this is a book I wish I had on my shelves fifty years ago and provides the kind of insight that will reach preachers scholars students and anyone who wishes to learn more about the living Christ for years to come Dr James B Mooneyhan Clergy Atlanta Area of the UMC The Gospel of John becomes alive anew with the reading of this book Dr Lee has compiled a contextual interpretation of the Gospel in a way that informs casual readers and yet challenges serious scholars and seminary students This is an invaluable resource in sermon preparation Bible studies Sunday school lessons or daily devotions This work is so extensive yet very understandable that it should be included in every serious student of the Scriptures I highly recommend this book Rev Dr Philip D DeMore Former District Superintendent of the UMC This book is the labor of a lifetime as Paul Lee shares the fruit of decades of living with the Gospel of John and for persons committed to serious study of the Bible The title itself is a challenge as the aim of every Christian My prayer for potential readers is that they will experience Jesus as Lord and Teacher love him more dearly and keep his word more faithfully Maxie Dunnam Former President of Asbury Seminary now Minister at Large Christ UMC Memphis TN The Gospel of John continues to be an inexhaustible source of Christian faith and theology Paul Lee has given us a fresh clear and faithful reading of John combining chapter by chapter overviews detailed commentary and insightful practical reflections on John s implications for Christian life and witness This book is an excellent resource for pastors teachers and anyone who desires a deeper encounter with the Johannine biblical text in relation to the New Testament Rev Dr Don E Saliers Candler School of Theology Emory University

Creating Christianity - A Weapon Of Ancient Rome Henry Davis,2018-10-06 A profound and controversial investigation of a complex theme the war that led to the fall of Jerusalem and the creation of the Christian religion The religious and political battle between the people of Judea and the Jewish and Roman aristocracies is presented in an unconventional narrative which investigates ancient evidence quotes from the work of respected authorities on the subject and states controversial opinions openly Its main conclusion is that the New Testament the new law was created by a powerful senatorial family called the Calpurnius Pisos who had the full support of their relatives the Herodian royal family the family of Herod the Great and the Flavian emperors with the Piso family hiding their name within the Koine Greek scriptures The result is a book that is both provocative and compelling Using valuable feedback from Cambridge and Oxford University professors Henry Davis explains why the supposed Jewish Historian Flavius Josephus never existed how the Book of Revelation presents the name of the Piso family member who oversaw the creation of the Christian scripture and the reason the number 666 was changed to 616 Davis also explains the facts behind the personal and political reasons that led to the Roman and Jewish royal families creating a new religion and how the Piso family used the literary techniques of the aristocracy to insert their names into the scriptures I found his selection of evidence to be both interesting and compelling Creating Christianity A Weapon Of Ancient Rome is a thoughtful work of historical non fiction by author Henry Davis Anyone with a knowledge of the history of the Roman Empire knows that its conversion from a pagan belief system to widespread Christianity was a significant political and military move for the Empire as much as it was a religious decision and this book focuses on the specific details and clues as to how that really came about Davis searches for the real identity of the Christian Messiah and argues for a potentially Roman author of the modern New Testament one who had a view to creating a new religion for his own reasons as much as those of Rome Readers Favorite

Mark's Other Gospel Scott G. Brown,2006-01-01 Did the evangelist Mark write two versions of his gospel According to a letter ascribed to Clement of Alexandria Mark created a second more spiritual edition of his gospel for theologically advanced Christians in Alexandria Clement's letter contains two excerpts from this lost gospel including a remarkably different account of the raising of Lazarus. Forty-five years of cursory investigation have yielded five mutually exclusive paradigms abundant confusion and rumours of forgery. Strangely one of the few things upon which most investigators agree is that the letter's own explanation of the origin and purpose of this longer gospel need not be taken seriously. Mark's Other Gospel: Rethinking Morton Smith's Controversial Discovery calls this pervasive bias into question. After thoroughly critiquing the five main paradigms, Scott G. Brown demonstrates that the gospel excerpts not only sound like Mark but also employ Mark's distinctive literary techniques deepening this gospel's theology and elucidating puzzling aspects of its narrative. This mystic gospel represents Mark's own response to the Alexandrian predilection to discover the essential truths of a philosophy beneath the literal level of revered texts.

Tom Malone Joyce Vick, 2003. Among a generation of giants that brought fundamentalism to a position of prominence and influence in the twentieth century is the preacher from Pontiac, Dr. Tom Malone, founder and longtime pastor of Emmanuel Baptist Church of Pontiac, Michigan, as well as founder and president of Midwestern Baptist College. The reach of his ministry has been worldwide. Although a prominent influential figure today, Dr. Malone truly had a humble beginning. Reared in a broken home in the rural South in the Depression era, he struggled through the hardships of the times to prepare for the life of service that God had planned for him. Here is the story of Tom Malone, his wife Joyce, and the great ministries that have come about through their labors. It will excite you and encourage you to see what God will do through His faithful servants. Back cover.
