Gospel And Law Contrast Or Continuum The Hermeneutics Of Dispensationalism And Covenant Theology:

Gospel and Law Daniel P. Fuller, 1980-01-01      Covenant Theology Jeong Koo Jeon, 2004-11-03 In Covenant Theology author Jeong Koo Jeon makes a much needed contribution to 21st century biblical and systematic theology. He explores the debate between John Murray and Meredith G. Kline, placing their ideas in the larger context of Biblical studies that have had a direct influence on Reformed theology and evangelicalism. Although the theologies of Murray and Kline contain significant differences, they both maintain a distinction between a covenant of creation and a covenant of grace. In addition, they both advocate a fundamental antithesis between law and gospel, giving a priority to law over gospel in the temporal and logical order of divine works. Jeon sees these distinctions as hermeneutic tools that are essential for a better understanding of biblical revelation as well as faith, grace, and atonement.      Covenant Theology in the Reformed Perspective Mark W.

Karlberg, 2000-07-31      Covenant Theology and Justification by Faith Jeong Koo Jeon, 2006-05-23 This study explores the Shepherd Controversy (1975-1982) and the contemporary debate on covenant and justification by faith from the perspectives of historical, systematic, and biblical theology. The distinctive contribution lies in the identification that the Shepherd Controversy is a logical outcome of rejecting the distinction between Law and Gospel at Westminster Seminary in Philadelphia. The larger problem is that Norman Shepherd and other associated theologians reject the distinction between Law and Gospel, injecting their monocovenantalism into the theologies of Calvin, the Westminster Standards, and Murray. The result has been hermeneutical and theological confusion among some of the followers of the Union with Christ School scholars. Reformed theonomists led by Greg Bahnsen (Auburn Avenue theologians and pastors) are also monocovenantalists and have been influenced by the Union with Christ School scholars directly and indirectly. Their common denominator is the rejection of the distinction between Law and Gospel in their analysis and understanding of covenant and justification by faith. Having been influenced by the Union with Christ School scholars at Westminster Seminary in Philadelphia, some scholars began to adopt the hermeneutics and theology of the New Perspective on Paul, which is anti-Reformational and anti-Pauline. The adaptation of the New Perspective on Paul among some of the followers of the Union with Christ School is a logical step because both of them reject the distinction between Law and Gospel, which was a key hermeneutical and theological tool during the sixteenth-century Protestant Reformation against the background of the medieval legalistic religion.      Five Views on Law and Gospel Greg L. Bahnsen, Walter C. Kaiser, Jr., Douglas J. Moo, Wayne G. Strickland, Willem A.

VanGemeren, 2010-09-21 An introduction to a complex theological issue that impacts our daily lives as believers in Christ. What is the relevance of the Old Testament Law to our understanding of the Gospel and how it should be lived? This book explores five major approaches to this important biblical topic as they've developed in Protestant circles: Non-Theonomic, Reformed View (the law is the perfection of righteousness in Jesus Christ), Theonomic Reformed View (the goodness of the law is dependent on how it's used and does not offer a way to salvation), Heavily focused on Paul's discussion of the Law, Law as Gracious Guidance View emphasizes the contrasts between the Mosaic law and the Gospel of grace while still asserting the Law's value. Dispensational View approaches the Law from a historical perspective to help us understand its presentation, treatment, and recipients. Modified Lutheran View the Law of Christ as the fulfillment of the Law of Moses. This book allows each contributor to not only present the case for his view but also to critique and respond to the critiques of the other contributors, allowing you to compare their beliefs in an open forum setting to see where they overlap and where they differ. The Counterpoints series presents a comparison and critique of scholarly views on topics important to Christians that are both fair-minded and respectful of the biblical text. Each volume is a one-stop reference that allows readers to evaluate the different positions on a specific issue and form their own educated opinion.

Galatians (Baker Exegetical Commentary on the New Testament) Douglas J. Moo, 2013-11-15 In this addition to the award-winning BECNT series, highly regarded New Testament scholar Douglas Moo offers a substantive yet accessible commentary on Galatians. With extensive research and thoughtful chapter-by-chapter exegesis, Moo leads readers through all aspects of the book of Galatians: sociological, historical, and theological, to help them better understand its meaning and relevance. As with all BECNT volumes, this commentary features the author's detailed interaction with the Greek text and an acclaimed user-friendly design. It admirably achieves the dual aims of the series: academic sophistication with pastoral sensitivity and accessibility, making it a useful tool for pastors, church leaders, students, and teachers.

Misunderstanding, Nationalism, or Legalism Richard Wellons Winston, 2020-09-15 How does Paul assess Israel's error with reference to the law in Romans 9:30-10:13, and what solution does he present? In the years since the dawn of the New Perspective on Paul, interpreters continue to discuss what the Mosaic law required and how Paul described Israel's plight and solution. In this work, Richard Winston argues for a traditional law-gospel explanation of a central passage in Paul's discussion of faith and the law, Rom 9:30-10:13, defending the viewpoint that Paul critiqued Israel for seeking to obtain a right standing with God by obeying the law as the law requires and presenting faith in Christ as the solution for their problem. Throughout the discussion, special attention is given to how Paul rightly interprets the Old Testament to show that it is in agreement with his argument.

One Lord, One Faith, Second Edition Rex A. Koivisto, 2009-01-01 One Lord, One Faith is a plea and plan to re-envision the Church as a broad cross-denominational community with a shared faith in the Christ of the Gospel. It both affirms the place and inevitability of individual denominational traditions and also provides a grid from which to distinguish those denominational traditions from the core of historical orthodoxy shared by the entire Christian community. The book seeks to distinguish denominationalism from sectarianism and identifies sectarianism as the true enemy of historic catholicity.

Galatians Craig S. Keener, 2019-05-21 Leading New Testament scholar Craig Keener is widely respected for his thorough research, sound judgments, and knowledge of ancient sources. His four-volume magnum opus on Acts has received high praise from all quarters. This commentary on Paul's Letter to the Galatians features Keener's meticulous and comprehensive research and offers a wealth of fresh insights. It will benefit students pastors and church leaders alike      Did the Reformers Misread Paul? Aaron T. O'Kelley, 2014-10-07 By placing the Reformation doctrine of justification in its historical theological context against the backdrop of late medieval Catholic theology O Kelley demonstrates that the real nature of the debate between Rome and the Reformers was not grace vs works per se but rather the Reformation's clear law gospel distinction vs Rome's law gospel synthesis This extraordinary study seeks to allow the Reformers and their heirs a fair hearing in the current debate over Paul's doctrine of justification a courtesy that they have too often been denied      What Is Scripture? L. Timothy Swinson, 2014-10-15 Analysis of the literary scheme of the letters to Timothy suggests that graphe as it is employed in each letter may legitimately be understood to include some of the apostolic writings that now appear in the New Testament In affirming the Pauline authorship of the Pastoral Epistles Swinson argues that a form of the Gospel of Luke stands as the source of the second referent of graphe in 1 Tim 5:18 Second Swinson contends that pasa graphe in 2 Tim 3:16 includes the apostolic writings extant in Paul's day specifically Luke's Gospel and some of Paul's own writings These parallel lines of analysis demonstrate that Paul ascribes to his own writings and to those of his coworkers an authoritative standing equal to that of the sacred writings ta hiera grammata found in the Old Testament While many questions surrounding biblical authority and the biblical canon remain Paul's use of graphe in 1 and 2 Timothy nevertheless advances a high view of both Old Testament and New Testament Scripture      Who Can Take the Lord's Supper? Dallas W. Vandiver, 2021-09-10 Baptism and the Lord's Supper are likely more basic for the church than you think When Jesus inaugurated the new covenant by his death on the cross he established baptism as the new covenant sign of entry and the Lord's Supper as the new covenant sign of participation These signs identify believers with Christ and his people They are integral to the existence membership and discipline of the local church In answer to the question Who can take the Lord's Supper this book catalogues four major positions in the broad Baptist tradition While proponents of various views have appealed to the necessity of circumcision for participation in Passover as evidence for their position none have adequately worked out the covenantal relationships between circumcision and baptism or Passover and the Lord's Supper By contrast to Reformed paedobaptist covenantal theology and in distinction from Baptist covenantal theology and dispensational theologies this book develops the relation of these covenantal signs from a progressive covenantal perspective It presents an unprecedented comparison of the continuities and discontinuities between the covenant signs across the storyline of Scripture to demonstrate a biblical theological principle that the sign of entry should precede the sign of participation      Abrahamic Descent, Testamentary Adoption, and the Law in Galatians Bradley Trick, 2016-08-09 In this volume Bradley Trick argues that Hellenistic testamentary adoption provides the key to understanding Abrahamic descent and its implications for the law in Galatians      Perspectives on Our Struggle with Sin Terry L. Wilder, 2011-10-14 A point counterpoint discussion of Paul's words about sin in Romans 7 and whether they describe his pre-Christian or post-conversion self or the broader idea of the human being confronted with the Law      Minority

Reports Mark Klitsie, 2016-06-03 The stuff that comes after modernism isn't all bad Postmodernism not needing everything to be buttoned up can leave things dangling it can pay attention to the obscure marginal and particular The postmodern dynamic invites one to revisit biblical texts that do not fit into tidy cherished theological constructs I call these texts the minority reports Popular theology infers that God is just pretending when he changes his mind or gets frustrated saddened and affected by humans this understanding is guided by concepts of God's omni attributes But these wise and well intentioned concepts fail to portray a God who will not be domesticated Certain biblical narratives trace YHWH's hiddenness suffering changeability and hostility this awkward shadow side of YHWH is sometimes selectively overlooked The fear of God is gone Instead we have the ever tolerant universal God who is in danger of evaporating into spirit light and love As a theologian I use Hebrew block logic competing truths in the Bible are kept intact synthesis isn't necessarily sought God chooses us and we choose God God is self sufficient all powerful and all knowing needing no creature Yet he chooses to limit his omni ness in the human arena and makes himself vulnerable to humans He hyphenates his name with Abraham Isaac Jacob and the church at a risk

Less Than Conquerors Doug Frank, 2009-08-01 Although evangelicals enjoyed respect and leadership in American society in the decades before the Civil War their fortunes declined precipitately in the wake of the industrialism modernism and secularism of the next half century But the 1920s evangelicals felt like an embattled minority within a largely unbelieving culture and perceived that history was very much out of their control Frank examines the spiritual significance of these events by placing them against a biblical understanding of the gospel He sees in the confidence and self congratulation of the turn of the century evangelicals a portrait of the spiritually rich of the Bible who must lose their riches before they can come to know God truly Harmful uses of the gospel are explored through dispensational premillennialism the victorious life theology and the revivalism of Billy Sunday Altogether Less Than Conquerors is a call to replace the blurred and self serving gospel of a besieged subculture with the genuine gospel of Jesus Christ

Christ the End of the Law Robert Badenas, 1987-03-01 In this close textual analysis Badenas uses the term telos as his starting point to delve into a closer examination of the Greek speaking ancient world The study divides into three key sections a history of exegesis a lexical study of telos and an exegetical study of Rom 10:4 This final part enables an in depth analysis of the place and role of Rom 10:4 within Romans 9:11 and in turn of Romans 9:11 within Paul's argument more generally In so doing Badenas is able to offer a more informed judgement of the use of the statement Christ is the end of the law contributing insightfully to an abundance of material which proclaims the statement without acknowledgement of its greater context

Christian Counseling Ethics Randolph K. Sanders, 1997-06-09 A client raises spiritual questions Can a Christian therapist working in a government agency talk with a client about faith A young couple with two children asks a Christian counselor to help them negotiate an end to their marriage What responsibility does the counselor have to try to repair the relationship A youth group member confidentially reveals to the pastor that he is taking drugs Should the pastor tell the boy's parents A counselor who teaches a college course has a client show up for class What should she do These are just a few of the complex dilemmas that therapists counselors and pastors face nearly every day Handling these situations appropriately is critical for both the client's progress and the professional's personal credibility and protection from liability State and federal codes professional association statements and denominational guidelines have been drawn up to address ethical issues like competence confidentiality multiple relationships public statements third parties and documentation In this book you'll find them all compiled and interpreted in light of Christian faith and practice Written by qualified professional counselors and respected academic instructors this book is an indispensable resource for understanding and applying ethics in Christian counseling today

The Old Testament of the Old Testament R. W. L. Moberly, 2001-08-27 In The Old Testament of the Old Testament Moberly has looked at pentateuchal criticism from an altogether fresh angle and has registered far too many stimulating and provocative items for discussion than could or should be catalogued here He has asked important new questions not just provided an array of footnotes to a method received without further ado Anyone who has bothered to keep up with recent moves in pentateuchal study knows that certain fundamental conclusions are being called into question from a variety of different angles Moberly's angle is theological and his overture is bold and though provoking Christopher R Seitz from the Editor's Foreword

Faith and Obedience in Romans Glenn Davies, 2015-01-29 This study is a fresh approach to Paul's Epistle to the Romans Taking Paul's Jewish background seriously it challenges the prevailing consensus that Paul's object in the first three chapters is to conclude that everyone is under the power of sin Davies shows that in Paul's thinking there has always been a category of the righteous those who live by faith and express their faith in obedience Paul's indictment of Jews and Gentiles therefore is an indictment of only the wicked among Jews and Gentiles not of the righteous
