The Diary of Anna Comnena, or The Very Political Adventures of a Transgender Byzantine Princess in African Elevators Tis Kaoru Zamler-Carhart,2024-09-06 In The Diary of Anna Comnena or The Very Political Adventures of a Transgender Byzantine Princess in African Elevators Zamler Carhart impersonates the 12th century Byzantine princess and historian Anna Comnena as she comes out as trans and tries to write her father s imperial biography The Alexiad while in exile in contemporary West Africa Outside the Empire categories become fluid and elevators stop on strange floors Prose slips into graphic poetry medieval Christianity into mystical Sahelian Islam Byzantine chronicles into erotic gore anime Anna s first person diary careens down a series of sinister African elevators and intersectional magic spaces She is an outcast of the Empire but also a product of it exploring the dynamics of contemporary African textile production vernacular theater animal husbandry jihad urban design television and coin metallurgy from the perspective of a 12th century trans Byzantine engineer The Diary of Anna Comnena initially adopts the same Empire centric perspective as the historical Alexiad but the dystopian confrontation with African reality forces Anna to reflect on what it means for her to be specifically in Africa and not just in a generic outside space Together with the author s previous work The Diary of Anna Comnena forms a gelatinous ongoing treatise where seriousness is an emerging property and the distinction between speculative fiction design theory and political philosophy is probably just matter of scale The Morning Star and Free Baptist ,1899 We Are Home Ray Suarez,2024-04-23 From a veteran broadcaster and historian comes a richly reported portrait of the newest Americans immigrants from all over the globe who are living all across the country filled with their own voices We are a nation of immigrants never more than now In recent decades the numbers have skyrocketed thanks to people coming from many continents especially Asia Africa and South America Just like their predecessors they face countless obstacles including political hatred And yet just like their predecessors they work hard They persist And they become us The newest Americans are poorly understood and frequently presented only in stereotypes Veteran journalist broadcaster and interviewer Ray Suarez has criss crossed the country to speak to new Americans from all corners of the globe and to record their stories This portrait of our newest citizens is full of their own compelling voices It s a story as old as the country yet each new wave of arrivals tells that classic story in new and crucially important ways The Index ,1874 The Index ... Francis Ellington
