Marital Myths Revisited Arnold A. Lazarus,2001 Many people contend that marriage is a relationship that carries the principle of friendship to its ultimate and most intimate degree I think they are mistaken One of the most influential psychotherapists of our time revisits his two dozen myths two decades later Surprises aplenty in this no holds barred conversation with readers about the myths that get married couples in trouble The notions that Husbands and wives should be best friends Marriage should be a 50 50 partnership and An unhappy marriage is better than a broken home are explored debunked and re examined in the light of 21st century hindsight This is a provocative insightful sometimes disturbing look at some of our most cherished beliefs about marriage

The Heart of the Matter George E. Thompson,2017-01-20 The Heart of the Matter does not dance around the fringes of acceptable religion nor is it limited by traditional church thinking Rather it peels away the many layers of conventional thought to get down to bedrock truth concerning Christianity and living the Christian life However in so doing it carefully adheres to the absolute truth and authority of scripture The book puts into perspective who God is and his overall plan for creation and eternal fellowship with his bride It delves into how each person fits into that plan offering considerable detail concerning the many issues in establishing a deep relationship with God Much is said about the biblical significance and importance of maintaining such a close intimate relationship that God not only demands but earnestly desires Many practical guidelines are presented regarding Gods design for our lives here on earthwhat he would have us think say and do that we are to continue growing how to deal with gut wrenching adversity and that whatever we do is to be for his glory

I (Think) I Want Out Becky Whetstone,2025-02-04 Among the 600 000 annual divorces that transpire within the United States almost all of them begin with a marriage crisis Whether your partner told you they want to leave the marriage or you are wondering how to break the news that you want out this breaking point can be filled with overwhelming emotions worry about children becoming collateral damage and ill advised counseling that make navigating this process more frightening and confusing than it has to be These heartbreaking times can propel couples into a state of fear panic and uncertainty about what steps they should take sometimes leading them to divorce when reconciliation might have been possible Known as the Marriage Crisis Manager marriage and family therapist Becky Whetstone fills in these gaps by speaking to both partners on how to manage themselves and their relationship in the healthiest of ways regardless of the eventual outcome
