"Hello" Lied the Agent Ian Gurvitz, 2006-10-01 As prevalent as TV is in our lives most of us have no concept of what goes into creating a show getting it on the air and keeping it on Perhaps we assume that the people in charge simply decide what amuses them at the moment make those shows stick them on and wait to see if the public responds Or maybe they just throw darts at a board The truth as with most things is more complicated In Hello Lied the Agent Ian Gurvitz has produced a corrosively funny insider s look at what being a television writer is really all about In his personal journal he details two years in the life of a Hollywood television writer the dizzying ups and downs the rewrites the pitch meetings the table readings the studios and networks and execs in a riveting expose of the business It occurred to me that keeping a journal while I was going through the development process might illuminate a side of the business few people get to see and give them a behind the scenes God I hate that overused ET phrase look at the day to day experience of being a writer in Hollywood OK that s partly bullshit I m not that altruistic The truth is after twenty years in the trenches I found myself bitching about many aspects of the business and needed an outlet which left either writing a book doing standup seeing my shrink more often or suffering in silence but since I don t have the balls to try stand up there s no reason to waste a shrink visit bitching about the business when I ve got more seriously fucked up issues to deal with and there s no money in suffering in silence that left book Here it is Think you ve got a great idea for a TV show Read this book your view of your favorite television show will never be the same
