Movement Raj Kumar,2003 Contents Introduction The Nationalist Ideas Behind the Revolt of 1857 Nationalism Takes Root The Moderates The Indian Struggle for Independence 1885 to 1909 Politics of Indian Revolutionaries 1905 1910 Armed Struggle for the South East The Indian Self Government as Advocated by Annie Besant Quit India Movement Tribals and Freedom Struggle Muslim Nationalism and Freedom Struggle Subhash Chandra Bose his Role in India s Freedom Struggle The Last Phase of the Freedom Struggle the R I N Mutiny Preserving Islamic Tradition Nathan Spannaus,2019 The end of the eighteenth century was a transformational period for the Muslim communities in the Russian Empire and their relationship with the tsarist state One of the major figures to emerge out of this context was the reformer Abu Nasr Qursawi 1776 1812 A controversial religious scholar he put forward a sweeping reform of the Islamic scholarly tradition that was influential among these communities into the twentieth century Nathan Spannaus presents the first detailed analysis of Qursawi s reformism both in its contours and broad historical setting addressing issues of modernity secularity tradition and intellectual history The Sovereign Lives of India and Pakistan Atul Mishra,2021-10-20 The Sovereign Lives of India and Pakistan explores what it has meant for the two countries to act as sovereign states entangled at birth by an unsatisfactory partition Sovereignty is conventionally understood as a means to achieve the goals that states set for themselves This book argues that for India and Pakistan sovereignty has become an end in itself and that its pursuit has aided majoritarianism insecurity and mutual estrangement It examines the trajectory of three problems that the partition of 1947 bequeathed to the two states It investigates the state minority relations national identity debates and contestation over Kashmir to outline the parallel processes of minoritization homogenization and territorialization It shows how these processes signify the two states quest for sovereignty The scholarship on India and Pakistan often privileges their bilateral relations In contrast the author carries out the deeper task of a single frame analysis and critique of their intertwined statehoods Ultimately the book shows the inadequacy of the nation state form as the basis for political community in the subcontinent It concludes by pointing to the contemporary relevance of alternative ideas of sovereignty and political community in South Asia that were articulated during the first half of the 20th century Between Babasaheb and Mahatma Hulas Singh,2024-10-16 This book is a critical comparative study of Jotirao Phule and Bhimrao Ramji Ambedkar modern India's two most prominent dalit leaders. Although they were not close contemporaries, they came to construct a firm structure of not only dalit ideology but also dalit methodology to emancipate the oppressed and depressed sections of society. The book deals with their ideas in a new light, highlighting aspects of convergence and contrast in their respective approach to philosophy, religion, society, and culture. It argues that deep down, in his philosophic orientation, Phule was quintessentially closer to Gandhi than to Ambedkar. The author also contends that the usage of the term dalit exclusively in the caste communitarian sense is essentially a product of post-independence political appropriation rather than social evolution. The book specifically brings to light the dynamics of humanism and nationalism on the one hand and that of communitarianism on the other in the context of twentieth-century colonial India. Notably, Gandhi is brought in the narrative to complete the triumvirate. Comprehensive and deeply grounded in primary research, this thought-provoking book will be indispensable for students and researchers of modern Indian history, sociology, political science, political thought, exclusion studies, dalit and subaltern studies, and South Asian studies. It will also appeal to those interested in the writings of Ambedkar and Phule.

The Partition of Bengal and Assam, 1932-1947 Bidyut Chakrabarty, 2004-08-02. The fragmentation of Bengal and Assam in 1947 was a crucial moment in India's socio-political history as a nation-state. Both the British Indian provinces were divided as much through the actions of the Muslim League as by those of Congress and the British colonial power. Attributing partition largely to Hindu communalists is therefore historically inaccurate and factually misleading. The Partition of Bengal and Assam provides a review of constitutional and party politics as well as of popular attitudes and perceptions. The primary aim of this book is to unravel the intricate socio-economic and political processes that led up to partition as Hindus and Muslims competed ferociously for the new power and privileges to be conferred on them with independence. As shown in the book, well before they divorced at a political level, Hindus and Muslims had been cleaved apart by their socio-economic differences. Partition was probably inevitable.

Istanbul 1940 and Global Modernity E. Khayyat, 2018-12-11. Istanbul 1940 and Global Modernity: The World According to Auerbach Tanpinar and Edib engages Erich Auerbach's Istanbul career and his pioneering works of comparative literature in a new light. It interprets Auerbach's works against the background of his Turkish colleagues' analogous works that like Auerbach's masterpieces were drafted at Istanbul University in the 1940s. Unlike Auerbach's writings, which center around Western literary cultures and Christianity, these Turkish writings trace non-Western, largely Islamicate cultural histories. The critic, novelist, and poet Ahmet Hamdi Tanpinar (1901-1962) and his illustrious senior, the Muslim feminist humanist and novelist Halide Edib (1884-1964), focused on Middle Eastern and South Asian cultural trajectories. In addition to offering groundbreaking insights into their respective cultural legacies, Auerbach, Tanpinar, and Edib elaborated extensively on the intercrossing that is their meeting place, the chiasmic space of modern literature. Interpreting their writings as the work of a collective, Istanbul 1940 and Global Modernity examines the new paths these critics opened for theorizing literary modernity, world literature, and the comparative study of literature and religion.

Identity and Religion Amalendu Misra, 2004-08-30 A sensitive and intelligent account of the Indian nationalist thought and the difficulties it faced in doing justice to India's Islamic inheritance Lord Parekh Fellow of the British Academy A thoughtful well researched and original analysis of the nationalist conceptualisation of the Muslim presence in India Professor Noel O Sullivan University of Hull Amalendu Misra shows that while some eminent nationalist leaders were implacably hostile to Muslims even wholly secular ones were uneasy with India's Muslim past and had a generally unfavourable disposition towards both Muslims and Islam The book explicates this by focusing on the writings of Vivekananda Gandhi Nehru and Savarkar supported by a wealth of examples from a wide range of contexts It argues that the views of these four prominent individuals were heavily shaped by British historiography as well as their respective visions of independent India The author goes on to suggest how modern India needs to redefine itself to flourish as a genuinely secular democracy The Great Partition Yasmin Khan, 2007-09-18 The American Journal of Islamic Social Sciences, 1985

Nation-state and Minority Rights in India Tanweer Fazal, 2014-08-01 The blood laden birth pangs of the Indian nation state undoubtedly had a bearing on the contentious issue of group rights for cultural minorities Indeed the trajectory of the concept minority rights evolved amidst multiple conceptualizations political posturing and violent mobilizations and outbursts Accommodating minority groups posed a predicament for the fledgling nation state of post colonial India This book compares and contrasts Muslim and Sikh communities in pre and post Partition India Mapping the evolving discourse on minority rights the author looks at the overlaps between the Constitutional and the majoritarian discourse being articulated in the public sphere and poses questions about the guaranteeing of minority rights The book suggests that through historical ruptures and breaks communities oscillate between being minorities and nations Combining archival material with ethnographic fieldwork it studies the identity groups and their vexed relationship to the ideas of nation and nationalism It captures meanings attributed to otherwise politically loaded concepts such as nation nation state and minority rights in the everyday world of Muslims and Sikhs and thus tries to make sense of the patterns of accommodation adaptation and contestation in the life world Successfully confronting and illuminating the challenge of reconciling representation and equality both for groups and within groups this exploration of South Asian nationalisms and communal relations will be of interest to academics in the field of South Asian Studies in particular Sociology and Politics

Islam in Perspective Patrick Bannerman, 2013-06-03 There has been a significant upsurge of western interest in the political manifestations and significance of Islam in the last decade fuelled by the notion of Islamic revival the Iranian revolution and by events in countries as diverse as Egypt Pakistan and Sudan Oil power and its effect on the international economic order the relationship of Muslim countries with the superpowers and the continuation of the Arab Israeli conflict have also served to focus attention on Islamic politics and in particular on the notion of Islamic reassertion As the author of this book argues one result of this interest has been the development of a view of Islam as monolithic and implacable He takes a broad view of the intellectual and cultural history of Islam emphasising the extraordinary diversity of Islamic societies and the ways in which the ideal is often pragmatically adapted to reality In this wider social and historical context the nature of Islamic revival is then reassessed First published in 1988 Blood and Water David Gilmartin,2015-06-05 The book is a history of the political and environmental
