Globalization and Papua New Guinea: Ancient Wilderness, Paradise, Introduced Terror and Hell Falk Huettmann, 2023-04-26 This book aims to present a reality view for Papua New Guinea based on many years of first hand field work and research accounts It further assesses sustainability in the light of 47 000 years of a self sustained type of civilization without bad global impacts This book contrasts the modern sustainable development failures from the colonial times onwards as promoted by the western world namely Australia the UK EU and the U S as well as Japan and now China in times of globalization Trumpism and royal governance Papua New Guinea is still part of the British Dominion and of the Antarctic Treaty etc This assessment and book is the first of its kind also employing modern data analysis Landscape Ecology principles patterns and processes telecoupling and Geographic Information Systems GIS with Open Access data focusing on ecological economics marxism socialism and contrasting it with current capitalism and neoliberalism that Papua New Guinea is fully exposed to Throughout the 31 book chapters various aspects are covered how a further insistence on the new Sustainable Development Goals SDGs and so called Development Aid will result in unwanted side effects and perverse outcomes for Papua New Guinea and for the world in times of wider global change and unprecedented man made crisis

The Cloud Garden Paul Winder, Tom Hart Dyke, 2011-03-30 The Dari n Gap is a place of legend The only break in the Pan American highway which runs from Alaska to the tip of South America it is an almost impregnable strip of swamp jungle and cloud forest between the vast landmasses of North and South America Stories of abduction and murder there are rife and in recent years more people have successfully climbed Everest or trekked to the South Pole than have crossed the Dari n Gap In 2000 Tom Hart Dyke a young botanist set off to Central America with one thing on his mind orchids He knew that in order to find the rare and beautiful species he so fervently admired he would have to visit some of the most inhospitable places on earth Unbeknown to Tom another young explorer Paul Winder was backpacking through the area at the same time Though he sometimes worked freelance in the City of London Paul was a fearless and intrepid traveller happier scaling volcanoes than lounging on beaches In every bar and caf along his route rumours abounded of the Dari n Gap and the more he heard the greater became his desire to make the journey Pure chance brought Paul and Tom together in northern Mexico they formed an instant bond and their fate was sealed Ignoring a final succinct warning from the Lonely Planet guide Don't even think about it Tom and Paul set off into the Dari n Tom in search of orchids Paul in search of adventure They would find plenty of each For six days they made good progress Then just hours away from Colombia the dream ended and the horror began Paul and Tom were ambushed by FARC guerrillas who were to hold them hostage for the next nine months From that day on their survival was a matter of extraordinary endurance incredible ingenuity and not a little good luck NationalGeographicTreasures , Going Places Robert Burgin,2013-01-08 Successfully navigate the rich world of travel narratives and identify fiction and nonfiction read alike with this detailed and expertly constructed guide Just as savvy travelers make use of guidebooks to help navigate the hundreds of countries around the globe smart librarians need a guidebook that makes sense of the world of travel narratives Going Places A Reader s Guide to Travel Narratives meets that demand helping librarians assist patrons in finding the nonfiction books that most interest them It will also serve to help users better understand the genre and their own reading interests The book examines the subgenres of the travel narrative genre in its seven chapters categorizing and describing approximately 600 titles according to genres and broad reading interests and identifying hundreds of other fiction and nonfiction titles as read alike and related reads by shared key topics The author has also identified award winning titles and spotlighted further resources on travel lit making this work an ideal guide for readers advisors as well a book general readers will enjoy browsing Of Canoes and Crocodiles Tony Robinson-Smith,2024-08-22 Of Canoes and Crocodiles is a story of adventure in the remote and threatened landscapes of Papua New Guinea In 2018 Tony Robinson Smith and his wife Nadya Ladouceur bought dugout canoes and paddled down the Sepik the country s longest river Traveling with local guides and staying in their villages Tony and Nadya ate smoked piranha and sago pancakes heard tales of river gods and sorcerers marvelled at rainbow bee eaters and cat size flying foxes sank in a tropical storm got lost in mosquito infested swamplands and hid from pirates in mangroves near the sea As the narrative follows the bends of the river Robinson Smith incorporates into its flow descriptions of crocodile initiation rites village big men the barter system raskolism and sing sings He reflects on clan loyalty colonization Christian missionaries bride price the environmental impacts of foreign logging and mining and the joys and fears of following the current down a long snaky jungle river in a volatile Melanesian country Four Corners Kira Salak,2004 Four Corners One Woman s Solo Journey into Papua New Guinea is a creative dissertation approved by the English Department s Program in Creative Writing A work of creative nonfiction published by Counterpoint Perseus Books in 2001 and National Geographic s Adventure Press in 2004 it chronicles a journey I took across the island of New Guinea as a young woman The book which can be categorized as both memoir and travel literature explores issues of gender Western colonization and globalization It is meant to demonstrate that women can successfully undertake the same adventures as men while contributing to the literature of travel on their own terms Routledge Handbook of the Tourist Experience Richard Sharpley,2021-11-17 Routledge Handbook of the Tourist Experience offers a comprehensive synthesis of contemporary research on the tourist experience It draws together multidisciplinary perspectives from leading tourism scholars to explore emergent tourist behaviours and motivations This handbook provides up to date critical discussions of established and emergent themes and issues related to the tourist experience from a primarily socio cultural perspective It opens with a detailed introduction which lays down the framework used to examine the dynamic parameters of the tourist experience Organised into five thematic sections chapters seek to build and enhance knowledge and understanding of the significance and meaning of diverse elements of the tourist experience Section 1 conceptualises and understands the tourist experience through an exploration of conventional themes such as tourism as authentic and spiritual experience as well as emerging themes such as tourism as an embodied experience Section 2 investigates the new developing tourist demands and motivations and a growing interest in the travel career Section 3 considers the significance motives practices and experiences of different types of tourists and their roles such as the tourist as photographer Section 4 discusses the relevance of place to the tourist experience by exploring the relationship between tourism and place The last section Section 5 scrutinises the role of the tourist in creating their experiences through themes such as transformations in the tourist role from passive receiver of experiences to co creator of experiences and external mediators in creating tourist experiences This handbook is the first to fill a notable gap in the tourism literature and collate within a single volume critical insights into the diverse elements of the tourist experience today It will be of key interest to academics and students across the fields of tourism hospitality management geography marketing and consumer behaviour

Types of Professional Writing Mr.

Rohit Manglik,2023-11-23 Writing for business media PR and other professional domains The New Age of Adventure

Sebastian Junger,2009 These stories rocket readers across the roof of the world on the new high speed railway in Tibet describe the tension between Indian farmers and the sacred elephants besieging their villages and introduce them to a shaman whom some believe can cure the most serious depressions Explorer Travellers and Adventure Tourism Jennifer Laing,Warwick Frost,2014-08-04 This book examines the nexus between exploring and tourism and argues that exploration travel based heavily on explorer narratives and the promises of personal challenges and change is a major trend in future tourism In particular it analyses how romanticised myths of explorers form a foundation for how modern day tourists view travel and themselves Its scope ranges from the Golden Age of imperial explorers in the 19th and early 20th centuries through the growth of adventure and extreme tourism to possible future trends including space travel The volume should appeal to researchers and students across a variety of disciplines including tourism studies sociology geography and history

A World of Her Own Michael Elsohn Ross,2014-03-01 An inspiration for any young person who loves the outdoors wildlife or science A World of Her Own tells the stories of 24 brave women from different cultures epochs and economic backgrounds who have shared similar missions to meet the physical and mental challenges of exploring the natural world to protect the environment and native cultures and to leave a mark in the name of discovery Among the many bold women profiled are Rosaly Lopes who worked for NASA and discovered 71 volcanoes on one of Jupiter s moons Helen Thayer the first woman to walk and ski the Magnetic North Pole accompanied by only her dog Kay Cottee the first woman to successfully sail nonstop around the world completely unassisted and Anna Smith Peck who set the record for the highest climb in the Western Hemisphere at the age of 58 These and other engaging profiles based on both historical research and firsthand interviews stress how childhood passions and interests perseverance and courage led these women to overcome challenges and break barriers to achieve great success in their adventurous pursuits and careers A bibliography and annotated list of exploration resources and organizations make this an invaluable resource for young explorers parents and teachers alike

Contemporary Vernacular Design Clare Nash,2019-08-13 This book presents 25 international housing schemes that draw on traditional vernacular principles whilst taking into account modern day materials methods and financial or energy requirements The aim is to show how despite mass housing needs we can design quality modern schemes that fit their surroundings and generate a sense of place community and regional identity rather than the poor quality identikit housing currently seen wherever you are in the UK

The White Mary Kira Salak,2025-06-25 A young woman journeys deep into the untamed jungle wrestling with love and loss trauma and healing faith and redemption in this sweeping debut from the gutsiest woman adventurer of our day Book Magazine Marika Vecera an accomplished war reporter has dedicated her life to helping the world's oppressed and forgotten When not on one of her dangerous assignments she lives in Boston exploring a new relationship with Seb a psychologist who offers her glimpses of a better world Returning from a harrowing assignment in the Congo where she was kidnapped by rebel soldiers Marika learns that a man she has always admired from afar Pulitzer winning war correspondent Robert Lewis has committed suicide Stunned she abandons her magazine work to write Lewis's biography settling down with Seb as their intimacy grows But when Marika finds a curious letter from a missionary claiming to have seen Lewis in the remote jungle of Papua New Guinea she has to wonder What if Lewis isn't dead Marika soon leaves Seb to embark on her ultimate journey in one of the world's most exotic and unknown lands Through her eyes we experience the harsh realities of jungle travel embrace the mythology of native tribes and receive the special wisdom of Tobo a witch doctor and sage as we follow her extraordinary quest to learn the truth about Lewis and about herself along the way

Respect on Campus in an Age of Growing Disrespect Robert Engvall,Jessica Skolnikoff,2019-06-27 This book considers the generalized topic of respect on college and university campuses from the perspectives of a variety of participants It highlights perspectives held by different individuals culminating in a conversation about the evolution of respect issues on campus and how those issues are reflected by our broader society There are a variety of contributors students faculty members student support personnel as well as staff persons all of whom have contact with students in a variety of venues and with widely varying power differentials While there can be no single agreement upon what the issue of respect means to a variety of participants there nevertheless can be a discussion about the evolution of issues of respect on campus and in educational settings This book contributes to a larger conversation regarding respect and is a helpful starting point for increased consideration of this issue In this particularly polarized political environment and one in which the coarseness of language and behavior seems ever expanding it is interesting to assess what is happening on campus and how a variety of campus actors view issues of respect moving forward

The Bullsh*t Artist Paul Kleinman, 2011-06-18 It's not what you know It's what they think you know And they will think you know it all once you learn how to bullsh*t successfully Because there's a difference between talking out of your ass and bullsh*tting like a pro and if you want to sound in the know without getting called out you better know how to do it right What you want is to be able to control any conversation and keep cool under pressure with a combination of confidence and cunning To help out there's a section of useful facts to stick up your sleeve Forget being a know it all You'll tap into real appeal and have a lot more fun once you become a skilled bullsh*t artist Guaranteed

Rape, Sexual Violence and Transitional Justice Challenges Janine Clark, 2017-09-01 It is estimated that 20 000 people were subjected to rape and other forms of sexual violence during the 1992-1995 Bosnian war Today these men and women have been largely forgotten Where are they now To what extent do their experiences continue to affect and influence their lives and the lives of those around them What are the principal problems that these individuals face Such questions remain largely unanswered More broadly the long term consequences of conflict related rape and sexual violence are often overlooked Based on extensive interviews with male and female survivors from all ethnic groups in Bosnia Herzegovina BiH this interdisciplinary book addresses a critical gap in the current literature on rape and sexual violence in conflict situations In so doing it uniquely situates and explores the legacy of these crimes within a transitional justice framework Demonstrating that transitional justice processes in BiH have neglected the long term effects of rape and sexual violence it develops and operationalizes a new holistic approach to transitional justice that is based on an expanded conception of legacy and has a wider application beyond BiH
