Four Phenomenological Philosophers Hesserl Heidegger Sartre Merleau Ponty:

Four Phenomenological Philosophers Christopher E. Macann, 1993 Four Phenomenological Philosophers is the first book to examine the major texts of the leading figures of phenomenology in one volume. In separate chapters the book explores the ideas of Edmund Husserl, Martin Heidegger, Jean Paul Sartre and Maurice Merleau-Ponty with detailed readings of their most important texts. A knowledge of these key thinkers and their major texts is essential to an understanding of many of the major themes of contemporary philosophy from hermeneutics and existentialism to postmodernism and deconstructivism. World

Philosophies Ninian Smart, 1999 World Philosophies is a comprehensive survey of the world's philosophical and religious traditions by one of our foremost religious thinkers. Ninian Smart discusses notable figures such as Plato and Kierkegaard in the West, the Buddha and Mao Zedong in Asia, Tempels and Knibanga in Africa, and Rodo and Royce in America. Covering a wide range of topics including Indian ideas of testimony and evidence, Chinese notions of moral development, Buddhist concepts of cosmology, and Latin American critiques of materialism, Smart sheds new light on the astonishing diversity of philosophies that have developed throughout history. Virginia Woolf and Being-in-the-world Emma Simone, 2017-04-19

Breaking fresh ground in Woolfian scholarship, this study presents a timely and compelling interpretation of Virginia Woolf's textual treatment of the relationship between self and world from the perspective of the philosophy of Martin Heidegger. Drawing on Woolf's novels, essays, reviews, letters, diary entries, short stories, and memoirs, the book explores the political and the ontological as the individual's connection to the world comes to be defined by an involvement and engagement that is always already situated within a particular physical, societal, and historical context. Emma Simone argues that at the heart of what it means to be an individual making his or her way in the world, the perspectives of Woolf and Heidegger are founded upon certain shared concerns, including the sustained critique of Cartesian dualism, particularly the resultant binary oppositions of subject and object and self and Other, the understanding that the individual is a temporal being, an emphasis upon intersubjective relations insofar as Being in the world is defined by Being with Others, and a consistent emphasis upon average everydayness as both determinative and representative of the individual's relationship to and with the world.

Foucault and the History of Philosophical Transcendence Christopher Falzon, 2024-08-22 In an original approach to Foucault's philosophy, Christopher Falzon argues for a reading of Foucault as a philosopher of finite transcendence and explores its implications for ethics. In order to distinguish Foucault's position, Falzon charts the historical trajectory of transcendence as a philosophical concept, starting with the radical notion of transcendence that was introduced by Plato and which reappears in various forms in subsequent thinkers, from the Stoics to Descartes and from Kant to Sartre. He argues that Foucault's critique of the transcendent subject of humanism is a rejection not of transcendence per se but of radical transcendence in its distinctively modern form. As such, he shows how Foucault's conceptualisation of transcendence as finite enables a picture of the human being as neither fully determined nor a creature of infinite possibilities but as both subject and object affected by but also able to affect the world With the notion of finite transcendence Falzon captures the essence of Foucault s unique philosophy and provides a new insight into his contribution to ethics Demonstrating its contemporary relevance Foucault and the History of Philosophical Transcendence further explores the potential application of Foucault s approach to the current ecological crisis Phenomenology or Deconstruction? Christopher Watkin,2009-03-03

Phenomenology or Deconstruction challenges traditional understandings of the relationship between phenomenology and deconstruction through new readings of the work of Maurice Merleau Ponty Paul Ricur and Jean Luc Nancy A constant dialogue with Jacques Derrida s engagement with phenomenological themes provides the impetus to establishing a new understanding of being and presence that exposes significant blindspots inherent in traditional readings of both phenomenology and deconstruction In reproducing neither a stock phenomenological reaction to deconstruction nor the routine deconstructive reading of phenomenology Christopher Watkin provides a fresh assessment of the possibilities for the future of phenomenology along with a new reading of the deconstructive legacy Through detailed studies of the philosophy of Merleau Ponty Ricur and Nancy he shows how a phenomenological tradition much wider and richer than Husserlian or Heideggerean thought alone can take account of Derrida s critique of ontology and yet still hold a commitment to the ontological This new reading of being and presence fundamentally re draws our understanding of the relation of deconstruction and phenomenology and provides the first sustained discussion of the possibilities and problems for any future deconstructive phenomenology A Comparative Guide to Sartrean and Deleuzean Selves in Modernist and Post-Modernist Fiction Onur Ekler,2021-07-12

This book provides insights into the maze of know thyself through a carefully detailed comparative study of the Sartrean no self and the Deleuzean rhizomic self It is informative argumentative and rich in literary context and mainly focuses on the shift in the notion of self from Sartre s elegiac suicidal and nihilistic tone seen pervasively in modernist fiction to the celebratory Deleuzean self in postmodernist fiction To trace this shift the book presents a comparative analysis of selected novels showing that authors like Bellow and Atwood have adopted a more positive attitude toward the self similar to the Deleuzean rhizomic self while authors like Hedayat and Beckett have more reductionist decadent nihilistic views on the self like the Sartrean no self Moreover as argued in the cases of the protagonists in the selected novels this book further asserts that the Deleuzean rhizomic self might be seen as a possible alternative to help one survive in times of crisis in contrast to the nihilistic Sartrean no self Unbroken Communion Kathleen Anne McManus,2004-01-01

The reality of suffering is the greatest challenge to faith in the goodness of creation and the possibility of salvation Edward Schillebeeckx not only takes this into account but dialectically incorporates the reality of suffering into a theology generally defined by its focus on the interrelated themes of creation salvation and eschatological hope In Unbroken Communion Kathleen Anne McManus O P traces the origins of Schillebeeckx s thought its development and its consequences Schillebeeckx grounds his entire theological project in the promise of a divine human future made visible in creation and entrusted to human freedom Because suffering is so tangibly present in human experience it provides the means dialectically of imaging the horizon of our hope It is thus that Schillebeeckx turns suffering into hope Hermeneutical Narratives in

Art, Literature, and Communication Malgorzata Haladewicz-Grzelak, Paula García-Ramírez, 2024-02-22 Exploring the relationship between hermeneutics and the arts including painting music and literature this book builds on hermeneutics from a practical perspective connecting this area of critical research with others to reveal how it is viewed from different perspectives International and interdisciplinary in scope this edited volume draws on the work of scholars and practitioners working across a variety of subject areas themes and topics including philosophy literature religious paintings musical oeuvres Chinese urbanscapes Moroccan proverbs and Ukrainian internet blogs Focusing on the idea of hermeneutics as a discipline that can connect different areas of interest the book offers an inside view into how the contributors interpret it within their own academic remits demonstrating its presence in qualitative academic interpretations and canonical contemporary research in humanities Qualitative Marketing Research David Carson, Audrey Gilmore, Chad Perry, Kjell

Gronhaug, 2001-02-01 As the importance of marketing to business grows and as new concepts and applications of marketing emerge and evolve so too does the need for up to date market intelligence This book recognizes that the contribution which qualitative research can make to market understanding and insight is immense and that statistical information flows are never enough but need to be compounded by market intelligence gained through qualitative methods Qualitative Marketing Research clearly explains the use and importance of qualitative methods clarifying the theories behind the methodology and providing concrete examples and exercises which illustrate its application to Management Studies and Marketing This book is intended for all students of marketing who are required to complete their studies with a dissertation or research project

Martin Heidegger Bret W. Davis, 2014-12-05 Heidegger's writings are among the most formidable in recent philosophy The pivotal concepts of his thought are for many the source of both fascination and frustration Yet any student of philosophy needs to become acquainted with Heidegger's thought Martin Heidegger Key Concepts is designed to facilitate this Each chapter introduces and explains a key Heideggerian concept or a cluster of closely related concepts Together the chapters cover the full range of Heidegger's thought in its early middle and later phases Visiting the Visitor Ann Davis, Kerstin

Smeds, 2016-07-15 The study of the museum visitor has undergone radical transformation Each author here has asked unfamiliar questions and responded with fresh answers Some of these questions involve the visitor's identity what she brings to her museum experience Can we gain entry into this experience Does more technology really increase access to the objects themselves Others probe the very nature of museum going and exhibition making demanding that we reexamine the traditional exhibition to reposition the visitor and her meaning making at the centre The volume provokes imaginative research and encourages new conclusions Bioethics in a European Perspective H.A. Ten Have, Bert

countries an overview is given of the most salient themes in present day bioethics The themes are discussed in order to enable the reader to have an in depth overview of the state of the art in bioethics Introductory chapters will guide the reader through the relevant dimensions of a particular area while subsequent case discussions will help the reader to apply the ethical theories to specific clinical problems and health policy queries The book focuses on perspectives typical for the European context This highlights not only particular bioethical themes such as social justice choices in health care and health policy e g in post communist countries it also emphasizes specific approaches in ethical theory in relation to Continental philosophies such as phenomenology and hermeneutics Because of its articulation of what is typical for the European health care setting as well as for bioethical debate this book is unique in comparison to existing textbooks in bioethics The book is an introductory textbook acquainting the reader with the major issues in present day health care as well as the various theoretical and practical approaches to clarify these issues

Poetry as Re-Reading Ming-Qian Ma,2008-08-20 Grounded in a detailed and compelling account of the philosophy guiding such a project Ma s book traces a continuity of thought and practice through the very different poetic work of objectivists Louis Zukofsky George Oppen Carl Rakosi and John Cage and language poets Susan Howe Lyn Hejinian Bruce Andrews and Charles Bernstein His deft individual readings provide an opening into this notoriously difficult work even as his larger critique reveals a new and clarifying perspective on American modernist and post modernist avant garde poetics Ma shows how we cannot understand these poets according to the usual way of reading but must see how they deliberately use redundancy unpredictability and irrationality to undermine the meaning oriented foundations of American modernism and to force a new and different kind of reading Pub desc History and Educational Philosophy for Social Justice and Human Rights Chowdhury, Jahid Siraz,Vadevelu, Kumarashwaran,Zakaria, A.F.M.,Al-Mamun, Abdullah,Ahmed, Sajib,2024-03-22 In the complex landscape of educational philosophy and policy a difficult challenge arises the entwined issues of racism and other demographic differences and evolving education policies Traditional historical accounts fall short of addressing the broader historical patterns that underscore these challenges particularly their colonial legacy The need for a fresh perspective becomes evident one that transcends chronology and delves into the intricate dynamics shaping contemporary educational thought History and Educational Philosophy for Social Justice and Human Rights emerges as a groundbreaking solution to this conundrum Through a broad developmental and historical lens the book provides a fresh perspective on the role of differences as the core content and subject of education It advocates for cultural resistance and a permanent political struggle by political cultural minorities and social movements while also challenging public institutions especially schools to actively embrace and utilize differences in their foundational work By engaging with the tensions and struggles around differences the book contends that institutions can transform becoming agents of positive change and contributing to the foundation of an inclusive and participatory democracy This book invites scholars and educators to not only understand the challenges but to actively participate in shaping a future where differences are not merely acknowledged but celebrated within the realms of education and society at large Body/State Dr Angus Cameron, Dr Jen Dickinson, Dr Nicola Smith, 2013-03-28 Body State brings together original essays addressing various aspects of the evolving interaction between bodies and states While each essay has different empirical and or theoretical focus authors consider a number of overlapping themes to appreciate the state's engagement with and concern about bodies Divided into five parts the first part Bodies Modified and Divided considers how the production regulation policing and maintenance of borders physical social sexual political religious etc are used to enable or constrain the physical re shaping of the body Part two Capital Bodies extends the state's concern with the flows of bodies that make up the nation to consider how they are enrolled in the complex structures of capitalist exchange that form the basis for maintaining and contesting a set of relationships between states and markets Part three Deviance and Resistance examines both how states seek to discipline non normal bodies and appreciates the capacity of changes in the socio cultural meaning and nature of bodies to resist and or escape states Part four Sovereignty and Surveillance develops themes of deviancy and resistance by considering the impact of new technologies both on the intimate regulatory reach of states into and across bodies and on the nature of embodiment itself Finally Part five The Body Virtual examines the impact of new technologies and online spaces both on the intimate regulatory reach of states into and across bodies and on the nature of embodiment itself A varied collection of essays that address important and complex topics in a readable and creative way A Companion to the Anthropology of the Body and Embodiment Frances E. understanding It encourages dialogue across disciplinary barriers and between academics and practitioners and reflects upon the implications of research findings for local national and international policy in relation to landscape The Companion provides a comprehensive and up to date guide to current thinking about landscapes and serves as an invaluable point of reference for scholars researchers and graduate students alike Doom, Desire and the Polis in Eugene O'Neill's Drama Adel Bahroun, 2023-01-24 This book shows that Eugene O'Neill's modern American drama is a survey on the politics of desire the power of doom and the variable configurations of the polis It highlights that the modern American city or polis is the stage on which the antithetic categories of doom and desire are re-enacted in different undertones The text notes that desire doom schizophrenia and the archeology of the polis are reconceived by the playwright while legacy sexuality lucre and the volatility of the free flow of capital entrap the American subject in a maze of qualms and queries Subjection and resistance give birth to schizorevolutionary subjects seeking lines of flight Indeed as noted here O'Neill's plays portray their protagonists as desiring machines trying to evade the modern closed circles of power and various modes of becoming to use Gilles Deleuze's concept O'Neill encounters Deleuze at the level of thoughts and sensations anticipating postmodern plateaus for the human subject to grow into a rhizome Personhood and Music Learning Susan A. O'Neill, 2012-11-01 Personhood and Music Learning edited by Susan O'Neill is a scholarly but accessible exploration of personal action and experience across diverse music learning contexts It offers interesting and challenging insights into persons making meaning and connections with music critical for understanding choices and decisions that impact people's lives Perspectives and narratives by 25 authors from around the world focus on musicians composers and conductors music teaching and learning with children and adolescents music education research and professional practice This book aims to recast theories of personhood in relation to music learning reassert the person into multiple narratives and restore the centrality of personhood to music education theory research and practice Students and researchers internationally as well as music educators in all areas of professional practice will find in these pages thought provoking ideas with profound implications for envisioning the future of music education Contemporary Continental Philosophy Stuart Sim, 2017-08-03 This title was first published in 2000 Contemporary continental philosophy is a widely used but in many ways a highly problematic term and its exact frame of reference is not always clear In its more recent French manifestations in particular it continues to arouse considerable controversy and create bitter divisions with particularly hostile reactions to the work of Derrida and others Much work in the recent continental tradition can be fitted into a longer running philosophical tradition of scepticism and scepticism has always had the power to provoke and unsettle the philosophical establishment Presenting an overview of the philosophical landscape of the continental tradition since the 1940s this book traces the establishment of the new super scepticism as an intellectual paradigm with the power to threaten and disorientate existing world views and more traditional styles of philosophical discourse marking the continental divide Exploring how contemporary continental philosophy from existentialism to postmodernism can be characterised as this new more resistant form of scepticism Sim identifies a clutch of key themes including difference the subject antifoundationalism dialectics which have been obsessively worked over by key thinkers in the Existentialist Postmodernist period and demonstrates how these have contributed to the development of a super sceptical outlook Presenting a new theme led approach to provide an entry into current debates in continental philosophy Stuart Sim reintegrates the work of Sartre into the more recent continental tradition and suggests that something qualitatively different is now occurring in French philosophy
