Readings in Philosophy of Education Evelina M. Orteza y Miranda,1999 Four philosophies: And their practice in education J. Donald (James Donal Butler,1957 The UN Secretary-General and Moral Authority Kent J.

Kille,2007-10-29 Once described by Trygve Lie as the most impossible job on earth the position of UN Secretary General is as frustratingly constrained as it is prestigious The Secretary General s ability to influence global affairs often depends on how the international community regards his moral authority In relation to such moral authority past office holders have drawn on their own ethics and religious backgrounds as diverse as Lutheranism Catholicism Buddhism and Coptic Christianity to guide the role that they played in addressing the UN s goals in the international arena such as the maintenance of international peace and security and the promotion of human rights In The UN Secretary General and Moral Authority contributors provide case studies of all seven former secretaries general establishing a much needed comparative survey of each office holder s personal religious and moral values From Trygve Lie s forbearance during the UN s turbulent formative years to the Nobel committee s awarding Kofi Annan and the United Nations the prize for peace in 2001 the case studies all follow the same format first detailing the environmental and experiential factors that forged these men s ethical frameworks then analyzing how their inner code engaged with the duties of office and the global events particular to their terms Balanced and unbiased in its approach this study provides valuable insight into how religious and moral leadership functions in the realm of international relations and how the promotion of ethical values works to diffuse international tensions and improve the quality of human life around the world Philosophies of Education A. S. Seetharamu,1978 Four Philosophies

(Naturalism, Idealism, Realism, Pragmatism) and Their Practice in Education and Religion J. Donald Butler,1951

Onebunne Ph.D, Paul T. Haaga Ph.D, 2019-10-21 This book of readings is designed to accomplish two tasks to philosophize on Igwebuike and to honour Professor KANU Ikechukwu Anthony O S A These two tasks or goals go hand in hand because Igwebuike is Professor Kanu s philosophy The book clearly demonstrates why Kanu deserves honour as an African philosopher who has introduced a way of doing African philosophy It is an approach of doing philosophy that takes into account African ontology and cosmology Igwebuike as a systematic African thought is exploratory in nature It investigates issues with a view of seeing how they are related Doing philosophy in this way takes into account not only the African context but the world as a complex entity with myriads of challenges The myriads of challenges facing humanity have a representation in this book For this reason the book is bound to have a global impact In terms of philosophizing this book demonstrates that Africa is confronted with many discourses Discourses that are already going on but need a more systematic African philosophical approach Some of the discourses are on the environment governance infrastructure human and material resource among others Denis Odinga Okiya Maryknoll Insitute of African Studies Nairobi Kenya The Doctrine of God in African Christian Thought James Henry Owino Kombo, 2007 Noting the relationship between philosophy and the doctrine of the Trinity this book offers the African pre Christian understanding of God and the Ntu metaphysics as theoretical gateways for African reflections on the doctrine of the Trinity Advances in Child Development and Behavior , 1992-01-08 Advances in Child Development and Behavior Third Conference on Empirical Research in Black Psychology , 1977 Ruth Benedict Margaret M. Caffrey, 2013-11-04 Poet anthropologist feminist Ruth Fulton Benedict was all of these and much more Born into the last years of the Victorian era she came of age during the Progressive years and participated in inaugurating the modern era of American life Ruth Benedict Stranger in This Land provides an intellectual and cultural history of the first half of the twentieth century through the life of an important and remarkable woman As a Lyricist poet Ruth Benedict helped define Modernism As an anthropologist she wrote the classic Patterns of Culture and at one point was considered the foremost anthropologist in the United States the first woman ever to attain such status She was an intellectual and an artist living in a time when women were not encouraged to be either In this fascinating study Margaret Caffrey attempts to place Benedict in the cultural matrix of her time and successfully shows the way in which Benedict was a product of and reacted to the era in which she lived Caffrey goes far beyond providing simple biographical material in this well written interdisciplinary study Based on exhaustive research including access for the first time to the papers of Margaret Mead Benedict s student and friend Caffrey is able to put Benedict s life clearly in perspective By identifying the family and educational influences that so sharply influenced Benedict s psychological makeup the author also closely analyzes the currents of thought that were strong when Victorianism paralleled the Modernism that figured in Benedict s life work The result is a richly detailed study of a gifted woman This important work will be of interest to students of Modernism poetry and women s studies as well as to anthropologists and Philosophy Richard A. Cherwitz, Henry W. Johnstone Jr.,2014-06-03 This important volume explores alternative ways in which those involved in the field of speech communication have attempted to find a philosophical grounding for rhetoric Recognizing that rhetoric can be supported in a wide variety of ways this text examines eight different philosophies of rhetoric realism relativism rationalism idealism materialism existentialism deconstructionism and pragmatism The value of this book lies in its pluralistic and comparative approach to rhetorical theory Although rhetoric may be the more difficult road to philosophy the fact that it is being traversed by a group of authors largely from speech communication demonstrates important growth in this field Ultimately there is recognition that if different thinkers can have solid reasons to adhere to disparate philosophies serious communication problems can be eliminated Rhetoric and Philosophy will assist scholars in choosing from among the many philosophical starting places for rhetoric

The Journal of Education for Teaching at 40

Peter Gilroy,2018-10-19 In 2015 the Journal of Education for Teaching celebrated 40 years of original contributions on the subject of international teacher education with the publication of an anniversary virtual special issue Its unique contribution to debates about the preparation and lifelong learning of teachers in a variety of fields including medical education and language education have been expressed in a variety of formats and international contexts These include high quality academic papers using innovative qualitative and quantitative methodologies symposia in the form of Platonic dialogues and even critical positions expressed in verse This virtual special issue was freely available online throughout 2015 but the strong demand for the papers has prompted their re publication in this volume with the addition of several more articles Taken together this collection will allow the reader to experience the variety of the dozen or so international contexts represented in the journal and its academic quality Included in the volume is the original Editorial from the first issue of the journal The fact that the points made in this forty year old piece still ring true suggests that the threats to high quality teacher education remain much the same as they did four decades or more ago The Journal of Education for Teaching continues to provide an indispensable platform for colleagues to make their voices heard in what appears to be an increasingly shrill evidence free environment Long may it do so
