The Mystical Swagman Gary Blinco, 2008 It is the 1860s and colonial Australia is no longer just a dumping ground for the pitiful throw offs of harsh English justice The colony is rapidly taking on a new identity as a land where opportunities abound for those who are up to the challenge Many prosper while others prefer to tramp the endless bush and enjoy what the land has to offer and still other turn to a life of crime Into this wild land of rare beauty and constant change comes a quiet young orphan boy named Brennan He knows nothing of his origins and his only family is an old lady who nurtures him into his teenage years When she can no longer care for him he packs a modest swag and a little money and heads into the bush On the track he meets up with two old swagmen who quickly become his new family Tramping the bush tracks they find many adventures Set against the backdrop of the beautiful bush they experience bushfires floods droughts harsh winters blistering summers and the kindness and sometimes cruelty of the inhabitants As he grows Brennan begins to develop strange mystical powers that come to him in moments of great fear or passion He is excited and scared at the same time and he longs to understand his origins and find the source of these mystical powers in the hope that he can learn to master them This story provides an insight into early Australian colonial history the land and its people as seen through the eyes of a mystical young swagman

Death of a Swagman Arthur W. Upfield, 2020-06-01 A cypher that looked like a child's game of noughts and crosses a strip of hessian bag the rhythmic clanging sound of the turning windmill suddenly breaking the silence of the night the minister who seemed out of place as a churchman these were some of the more puzzling aspects of the case of the murdered swagman noticed by the keen eyes of Robert Burns alias Detective Inspector Napoleon

Bonaparte alias Bony Our distinctive student of violence arrives incognito at Merino in western New South Wales and as a first move provokes the local sergeant to lock him up The method in Bony s madness is that while serving a semi detention sentence and being made to paint the police station he wears the best of all disguises Here again is a first rate Upfield mystery made warm by humour by the background characters and his portrayal of the natural background scene The Age Upfield at his best Adelaide News *Catalog of Copyright Entries.
