

Individual Autonomy of Decision Making

✓ Exclusively available on IvyPanda

An individual's autonomy is an integral component of social health because by making independent decisions, a person shows that one is a full-functioning element of a group. Decision-making capacity is considered as human power; however, it is often underutilized or suppressed (Seymour & Peterman, 2018). Still, international organizations and movements strive to help people whose voices were unheard for a long time to express their ideas and interests. For example, some of these movements use motivation and self-determination theory to empower women to decide and act (Seymour & Peterman, 2018). Indeed, external influence, support or suppression, are fundamental forces that facilitate or halt individuals' decision-making.

A human being may feel proactive in making decisions in one person's presence and prefer not to take control and ownership of one's future steps with another individual. Indeed, I noticed that when I am surrounded by more experienced people in a particular field, I prefer not to express my opinions or take action because I feel less qualified. Hence, I often give my decision-making power to these people. On the other hand, when I spend time with younger students or children, I am empowered to think and act strategically since less knowledgeable or skilled individuals channel their trust and reliance on me. However, some experienced but self-confident people, especially older mentors or advisors, try to elicit this decision-making capacity in me by asking questions and listening to my ideas. This particular group of people seems to have a different energy since they give total freedom while letting one know that assistance will be available when needed. Similarly, in my romantic relationship, I often rely on my partner to encourage him to become more decisive.

In summary, decision-making is a valuable asset that every human being possesses. However, a person may feel more empowered in the presence of some people and reluctant to think and act with others. It appears that more experienced individuals can cause one to feel inferior and vice versa. Still, some confident professionals eager to teach someone are inclined to motivate and encourage less skilled colleagues to help them become more decisive and independent.

Fragments Essays In Subjectivity Individuality And Autonomy:

Fragments Pedro Blas Gonzalez, 2005 Eschewing hair splitting for the sport of it Gonzalez takes a fresh look at the notion of subjectivity and the nature of the self in seven essays With reference to Camus Cocteau Gabriel Marcel Ortega and Enrique Anderson Imbert he explores diverse topics from the aesthetic vision and moral courage to the absurd His nuanced and sensitive writing draws the reader on an introspective journey through a portal that subtly shifts the perception of human reality

Fragments Pedro Blas Gonzalez, 2005 Eschewing hair splitting for the sport of it Gonzalez takes a fresh look at the notion of subjectivity and the nature of the self in seven essays With reference to Camus Cocteau Gabriel Marcel Ortega and Enrique Anderson Imbert he explores diverse topics from the aesthetic vision and moral courage to the absurd His nuanced and sensitive writing draws the reader on an introspective journey through a portal that subtly shifts the perception of human reality

Philosophical Perspective on Cinema Pedro Blas González, 2022-05-17 The main premise of Philosophical Perspective on Cinema is simple Can a visual medium such as cinema put in greater perspective diverse aspects of human experience Films are usually sorted by genres but by applying metaphysical existential categories to cinema the author enables readers to reflect on the nature and essence of existence by making life appear less transparent to itself Undoubtedly the connection between sensual reality and philosophical reflection is often glossed over when the emphasis is placed on theoretical abstractions and not life itself While this work is a reflection on the philosophy of existence the author embraces a practical approach to the metaphysical existential foundation of human existence

Ortega's The Revolt of the Masses and the Triumph of the New Man Pedro Blas Gonzalez, 2007 This book is first and foremost a detailed and meticulous study of Ortega y Gasset's The Revolt of the Masses 1930 No other up to date books explore this thinker and his great work Most importantly the author demonstrates the relevance and importance of Ortega y Gasset's thought and his The Revolt of the Masses for today's world showing for instance how Ortega's categories like mass man and decadence have been vindicated by today's spiritual moral and cultural decay This aspect of the book will perhaps be of major interest to the reading public What Ortega argues for in his brief history of philosophy is something that he has otherwise made explicit throughout his work mainly his conviction that strictly speaking philosophy as an activity or manner of thinking that faces naked reality holistically ended long ago with the ancient Greeks All subsequent philosophical endeavors have been merely a rehashing or an academic commentary on the pre-existing philosophical canon This latter activity he saw as pertaining to the history of philosophy but he did not regard it as philosophy Philosophy as a vital and life forging way of life he argued had played out its originality and thus had run its course long ago With a glossary of special terms as used by Ortega and with references to Albert Camus Gabriel Marcel C S Lewis Friedrich Nietzsche Josef Pieper and others this work is a fundamental tool for any student of Ortega of existentialism and 20th century European philosophy Pedro Blas Gonzalez is Associate Professor of Philosophy at Barry University in Miami His areas of specialization include

Continental philosophy specifically Phenomenology Existentialism and philosophical aspects of literature His works include Fragments Essays In Subjectivity Individuality And Autonomy Algora 2005 and Human Existence as Radical Reality Ortega s Philosophy of Subjectivity Paragon House 2005 Gonzalez holds a Ph D in Philosophy from DePaul University Fragments of Rationality Lester Faigley,2014-07-12 In an insightful assessment of the study and teaching of writing against the larger theoretical political and technological upheavals of the past thirty years Fragments of Rationality questions why composition studies has been less affected by postmodern theory than other humanities and social science disciplines Essays in Honour of Victoria Chick: Methodology, microeconomics, and Keynes Victoria Chick,2002 This volume a companion to Money Macroeconomics and Keynes represents both consolidation and the breaking of new ground in Keynesian methodology and microeconomics by leading figures in these fields The Limits of Voice Luiz Costa Lima,1996 The title of this work derives from Costa Lima s reading of what is probably the most famous passage in Kant s Third Critique In Kant s thesis that the results of aesthetic judgment are generally communicable but without the mediation of a concept Costa Lima discovers the necessity to identify and underscore a silence This silence these limits of voice becomes the complex metonymy for the central theme of this book literary experience as a case of aesthetic experience In pursuing this theme Costa Lima views aesthetic and literary experience as a historically limited potentiality and examines the limits of aesthetic experience which comes from its dependence on contextual requirements The concern about limits of voice is developed on three different levels First Costa Lima focuses as a historical and systematic condition for aesthetic and literary experience on subjectivity as the subject s right to speak in his her own name Second he argues that although historical modes of speaking and experiencing were inscribed into and legitimized by cosmological constructions subjectivity requires the existence of a context no longer grounded in cosmology which he refers to as the Law Third he postulates the double dependence of literary and aesthetic experience on the emergence of subjectivity and the existence of the Law as its enabling and limiting frame condition This book answers a challenge that has persisted in literary theory and literary history for almost two decades how to historicize the concept of literature Left Universalism, Africentric Essays Ato Sekyi-Otu,2018-08-06 Left Universalism Africentric Essays presents a defense of universalism as the foundation of moral and political arguments and commitments Consisting of five intertwined essays the book claims that centering such arguments and commitments on a particular place in this instance the African world is entirely compatible with that foundational universalism Ato Sekyi Otu thus proposes a less conventional mode of Africentrism one that rejects the usual hostility to universalism as an imperialist Eurocentric hoax Sekyi Otu argues that universalism is an inescapable presupposition of ethical judgment in general and critique in particular and that it is especially indispensable for radical criticism of conditions of existence in postcolonial society and for vindicating visions of social regeneration The constituent chapters of the book are exhibits of that argument and question some fashionable conceptual oppositions and value apartheid This book will be of great interest to students and scholars in the fields of social and political philosophy contemporary political theory postcolonial studies African philosophy and social thought American Book Publishing Record ,2003 Subjectivity in the Twenty-First Century Romin W. Tafari,2013-09-23 What is it like to be a person today To think feel and act as an individual in a time of accelerated social cultural technological and political change This question is inspired by the double meaning of subjectivity as both the first personness of consciousness being a subject of experience and the conditioning of that consciousness within society being subject to power authority or influence The contributors to this volume explore the perils and promise of the self in today s world Their shared aim is to describe where we stand and what is at stake as we move ahead in the twenty first century They do so by interrogating the historical moment as a predicament of the subject Their shared focus is on subjectivity as a dialectic of self and other or individual and society and how the defining tensions of subjectivity are reflected in contemporary forms of individualism identity autonomy social connection and political consciousness Book Review Index ,2006 Every 3rd issue is a quarterly cumulation Poststructuralist Agency Rae Gavin Rae,2020-02-14 Gavin Rae shows that the problematic status of agency caused by the poststructuralist decentring of the subject is a central concern for poststructuralist thinkers First Rae shows how this plays out in the thinking of Deleuze Derrida and Foucault He then demonstrates that it is with those poststructuralists associated with and influenced by Lacanian psychoanalysis that this issue most clearly comes to the fore He goes on to reveal that the conceptual schema of Cornelius Castoriadis best explains how the founded subject is capable of agency Choice ,2006 The Politics of Recognition and Social Justice Maria Pallotta-Chiarolli,Bob Pease,2013-11-07 Via a wide range of case studies this book examines new forms of resistance to social injustices in contemporary Western societies Resistance requires agency and agency is grounded in notions of the subject and subjectivity How do people make sense of their subjectivity as they are constructed and reconstructed within relations of power What kinds of subjectivities are needed to struggle against forms of dominance and claim recognition The participants in the case studies are challenging forms of dominance and subordination grounded in class race culture nationality sexuality religion age disability and other forms of social division It is a premise of this book that new and or reconstructed forms of subjectivity are required to challenge social relations of subordination and domination Thus the transformation of subjectivity as well as the restructuring of oppressive power relations is necessary to achieve social justice By examining the construction of subjectivity of particular groups through an intersectional lens the book aims to contribute to theoretical accounts of how subjects are constituted and how they can develop a critical distance from their positioning JALUR PEMIKIRAN : Menyelami Kompleksitas Pemikiran Manusia Riyo Arie Pratama, Sinopsis Selamat datang di dunia berpikir JALUR PEMIKIRAN Menyelami Kompleksitas Pemikiran Manusia akan mengajak Anda menapaki perjalanan intelektual melalui lembaran lembaran buku ini Bagian demi bagian kita akan menjelajahi labirin pikiran manusia yang mencakup segala dimensi kehidupan dan filsafat Bagian pertama membuka tirai dengan membahas Berpikir dalam Konteks Kehidupan Di sini

Subjectivity Transformed Thomas Vesting, 2023-11-28 This book provides a historically informed reconstruction of the social practices that have shaped the formation of the modern subject from the early modern period to the present The formal legal protections accorded to subjects are and always have been latent in social practices norms and language before they are articulated in formal legal orders Vesting argues that in Western societies legal personhood is closely tied to three ideal types of social personhood what he calls the gentleman the manager and Homo digitalis By examining these three ideal types and their emergence in society we can see that Western formal law does not bring these ideal types into being but on the contrary they arise from the social and cultural conditions that they generate and reflect Correspondingly Western legal personhood or legal subjectivity arises from the history and culture of Western nations not the other way around Therefore signature features of Western formal law particularly its valorization of the rights of persons whether natural or nonnatural come from the particular sociohistorical cultural developments that had already generated the strong ideas of social personhood inherent in the ideal types of the gentleman the manager and Homo digitalis Subjectivity Transformed is a major contribution to legal and social theory and with its original analysis of the formation of modern subjectivity it will be of interest to students and scholars throughout the social sciences and humanities

The Art of Hunger Alys Moody, 2018-11-10 Hunger is one of the governing metaphors for literature in the late nineteenth and twentieth centuries Beginning in the mid nineteenth century writers and critics repeatedly describe writing as a process of starvation as in the familiar type of the starving artist and high art as the rejection of culinary pleasures The Art of Hunger Aesthetic Autonomy and the Afterlives of Modernism argues that this metaphor offers a way of describing the contradictions of aesthetic autonomy in modernist literature and its late twentieth century heirs This book traces the emergence of a tradition of writing it calls the art of hunger from the origins of modernism to the end of the twentieth century It focuses particularly on three authors who redeploy the modernist art of hunger as a response to key moments in the history of modernist aesthetic autonomy s delegitimization Samuel Beckett in post Vichy France Paul Auster in post 1968 Paris and New York and J M Coetzee in late apartheid South Africa Combining historical analysis of these literary fields with close readings of individual texts and drawing extensively on new archival research this book offers a counter history of modernism s post World War II reception and a new theory of aesthetic autonomy as a practice of unfreedom

Ethical Foundations of Palliative Care for Alzheimer Disease Ruth B. Purtilo, Henk A.M.J. ten Have, 2010-09-01 Alzheimer disease afflicts more than twelve million people worldwide and its incidence is increasing at a staggering rate People with the disorder are living longer than have those in previous generations and they require interventions for quality of life issues associated with palliative care However the symptoms of Alzheimer disease often fail to place such persons into settings where palliative care resources are available to them Indeed clinicians and other caregivers may be unsure about what constitutes effective palliation in these cases At the same time the ethical issues involved in providing end of life care to persons with Alzheimer disease remain on the margins of mainstream bioethics In Ethical Foundations of Palliative Care for Alzheimer Disease leading ethicists and clinicians from the United States and Europe explore ethical and scientific concerns about the diagnosis and prognosis of Alzheimer disease challenges arising from applying palliative procedures to its symptoms key philosophical and theological concepts central to our understanding of the disease and to end of life decisions and the changing patterns of relevant medical social and economic policies Cross cultural multidisciplinary and state of the art this volume is a unique and important resource for bioethicists clinicians and policy makers everywhere Contributors David A Bennahum M D University of New Mexico Pierre Boitte Ph D Catholic University of Lille France Roger A Brumback M D Creighton University Medical Center Wim J M Dekkers M D Ph D University Medical Centre Nijmegen The Netherlands Elizabeth Furlong R N Ph D J D Creighton University Medical Center Eugenijus Gefenas M D Ph D Vilnius University Lithuania Bert Gordijn Ph D University Medical Centre Nijmegen The Netherlands Amy M Haddad R N Ph D Creighton University Medical Center S ren Holm M D Ph D Dr Med Sci University of Manchester Franz J Illhardt D D Ph D Freiburg University Rien Janssens Ph D University Medical Centre Nijmegen The Netherlands Givi Javashvili M D Ph D State Medical Academy of Georgia Tbilisi Judith Lee Kissell Ph D Creighton University Medical Center Gunilla Nordenram D D S Ph D Karolinska Institute Stockholm Richard L O Brien M D Creighton University Medical Center Marcel G M Olde Rikkert M D Ph D University Medical Centre Nijmegen The Netherlands Winifred J Ellenchild Pinch R N Ed D Creighton University Medical Center Patricio F Reyes M D Creighton University Medical Center Anne Sophie Rigaud M D Ph D H pital Broca Paris Linda S Scheirton Ph D Creighton University Medical Center Jos V M Welie M Med S J D Ph D Creighton University Medical Center

Renaissance Theory James Elkins, Robert Williams, 2008-04 Renaissance Theory presents an animated conversation among art historians about the optimal ways of conceptualizing Renaissance art and the links between Renaissance art and contemporary art and theory This is the first discussion of its kind involving not only questions within Renaissance scholarship but issues of concern to art historians and critics in all fields Organized as a virtual roundtable discussion the contributors discuss rifts and disagreements about how to understand the Renaissance and debate the principal texts and authors of the last thirty years who have sought to reconceptualize the period They then turn to the issue of the relation between modern art and the Renaissance Why do modern art historians and critics so seldom refer to the Renaissance Is the Renaissance our indispensable heritage or are we cut off from it by the revolution of modernism The volume includes an introduction by Rebecca Zorach and two final synoptic essays as well as contributions from some of the most prominent thinkers on Renaissance art including Stephen Campbell Michael Cole Frederika Jakobs Claire Farago and Matt Kavalier

Elizabeth Barrett and Robert Browning Mary Sanders Pollock, 2016-04-28 First published in 2003 this book examines the creative partnership of Elizabeth Barrett and Robert Browning and provides a critical analysis of the poems written by this famous couple during the 16 year period of their friendship courtship and marriage Even quite early in their relationship the Brownings shared a frame of reference similar themes narrative structures and details of phrasing resonate in their works and suggest dialogue rather than merely mutual influence Pollock traces parallels between the Brownings lives and works even before they met and then throughout their courtship and married life suggesting that their creative dialogue continued after Barrett Browning died in 1861 as her presence and themes continued to inform Browning s poetry for at least a decade afterward
